Four Killed in New England

Second Bad Storm in Week Leaves Coating of Snow and Sleet in Wake

Trains Run Tardy in North; Santa to be Late With Mail in Midwest

BOSTON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Ice and snow took a toll of four lives in New England today as the second winter storm of a week blew itself out with bitter gales from the northeast, leaving the southern half of the section under a shell of hard-packed sleet and ice and the northern States buried under from ten to twenty inches of gale-drifted snow.

The latest storm, which swept up the coast last night trailing snow, rain and then sleet through Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, deposited a heavy fall of snow today in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, three States already hard hit by a severe ice storm last week that caused tremendous property damage to wires and trees.

The storm handicapped hundreds of emergency crews and linemen who have been battling for three days to restore light and power and communication lines, which were broken when thousands of ice-coated wires and poles were felled by high winds.

Trains are running two or three hours late in Northern New England because of drifted snow.

MAILS DELAYED BY SNOW BLOCKADE

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Santa Claus will have to make a belated entry into middle western homes, including Chicago, with many packages because of the snow blockade, which has delayed the mails. Only special delivery packages will be distributed tomorrow.

With the opening of national highways and the re-establishment of something like normal railroad schedules on branch lines, stories reached here today telling of the hardships caused by the snow and the blockade. Near Paris, Ill., a crew of men assisted by eighteen horses hitched to snow plows battled ten hours to reach Garland, Ill., where Mrs. Mary Martin, a school-teacher, had been suffering for two days without medical aid.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Dec. 24. [To the Editor of The Times:] While we are merging everything in the world that has no relation to each other why not merge Christmas, Fourth of July, Ground Hog Day, Thanksgiving Day, Labor Day, Halloween, New Year's and April's Fool all into one glorious day that would give everybody a chance to get some work done during the year. And look at the speeches, sermons and turkey it would save.

This has been the hottest day we have had in California in years. Everybody that is not at the beaches bathing is huddled under the thousands of outdoor Christmas trees to get in the shade. Even the imitation snow is melting. All Santa Clauses are in bathing suits and wearing a palm leaf fan for whiskers. There will be two heat prostrations to every Christmas present.

Yours for the merger,
WILL ROGERS.

Arizona Willing to Talk Again

Phillips Answers Wilbur's Suggestion of Further Negotiations

Provision Made That Project Must Revert to Status of Last June

PHOENIX, Dec. 24. (AP)—Gov. Phillips tonight sent Secretary of the Interior Wilbur a telegram stating Arizona will be glad to resume Boulder Canyon Dam water and power allocation negotiations with California and Nevada provided the status of the Boulder Canyon project act as agreed upon in Washington last June be restored and negotiations taken up where they were left off in Washington.

The Arizona Governor suggested that if another conference is held the conferees meet in Arizona.

The telegram was sent in reply to one from the Interior Secretary suggesting that each of the governors of the three States appoint a citizen not a member of their river commissions to act as advisers in a further effort to reach an agreement.

Gov. Phillips pointed out that unless the negotiations could be taken up at the point where they were dropped at the end of the conference in Washington last June, no advantage could be gained by further negotiation.

Some time ago Arizona served notice that it would make no further effort to reach an agreement with the interested States and began preparation of a suit to be filed in the Supreme Court of the United States to prevent construction of the dam.

Americans May Hear King Open Arms Meeting

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The National Broadcasting Company today announced that an attempt will be made to pick up and rebroadcast the address of King George of England when he opens the London naval conference January 21.

The King is to speak in the royal gallery of the House of Lords at 6 a.m., eastern standard time, and he has given permission to the British Broadcasting Corporation to broadcast the address. The British company will send the speech on short waves to the United States and if successful in picking it up the National Broadcasting Company will rebroadcast it.

Chicago Fills Fatter Stocking

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (AP)—On the night before Christmas Chicago's metropolitan area was preparing to delve into a $200,000,000 Christmas stocking.

Chicago morning papers, tabulating the Christmas buying, bonuses and other details, set the figure for the metropolitan area at $200,000,000, or $6,000,000 more than the amount last year.

Fifty leading stores estimated the buying of the last week was approximately $30,000,000 and mail-order houses reported a large increase in sales.

NOGALES (Ariz.) Dec. 24. (AP)—The United States will be a few acres smaller tomorrow for a period of three hours.

The occasion is a municipal Christmas tree to which the children of both border cities are invited.

At the last moment it was discovered that about 3000 children living on the Mexican side would be barred by immigration laws. After a great many conferences between American and Mexican officials, it was decided to move the international border back far enough to include the tree.

PILGRIMS BOW AT SHRINE

Bethlehem Resounds With Songs and Prayers as Stars Shine on Scene of Nativity

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 24. (AP)—Pilgrims from many parts of the world came to this historic biblical town tonight and joined in the simple, devout celebration of the birth of the Nazarene. A clear starlight night, following a day of brilliant sunshine, added to the impressiveness of the observance.

Among the faithful who visited the holy sites of the first Christmas were 300 Americans and Canadians. The celebration in general did not attract the throng of other years. It was estimated that not more than 1500 persons, other than residents of Bethlehem and near-by Jerusalem, were in the little town tonight.

Anglican Christmas hymns were sung in the Greek convent adjoining the Church of the Nativity, while at the same time choirs of boys and girls began the old Latin chorals as midnight was ushered in with the ringing of bells.

The Latin patriarch, covered with diamonds and clad in purple, celebrated a pontifical mass in the presence of the Governor of Jerusalem and consuls of the Catholic powers. After the service he led the whole congregation in procession down the steps to the grotto where the manger is said to have stood. He placed a figure of Jesus on the spot where there is a Latin inscription announcing "Here Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary."

After the ceremonies the way was left open for the balance of the night for visitors to come and go and to pray in the grotto.

JERUSALEM WEARS AIR OF SPRINGTIME

JERUSALEM, Dec. 24. (AP)—Bright sunshine and blue sky today gave Christmas Eve in Jerusalem a spring-like air. The streets were crowded with people after the early closing of offices and most of the passers-by carried parcels of Christmas presents. The shops were decorated in honor of "Father Christmas."

All the western churches, representing nearly all the peoples of the Western Hemisphere, were thronged with people praising God in many languages this evening.

American Ambassador Received at Royal Palace Amid Scenes of Splendor

MADRID, Dec. 24. (AP)—Amid all the traditional pomp and pageantry characterizing the Spanish court, King Alfonso today received formally Irwin B. Laughlin at the royal palace and accepted his credentials as new American Ambassador.

The King and Ambassador Laughlin exchanged felicitations on the agreeable relations between the two countries and expressed the hopes that they would increasingly continue.

The Ambassador presented President Hoover's compliments to the King, which His Majesty reciprocated cordially.

Brilliantly uniformed cavalrymen of the royal guards escorted Ambassador Laughlin from the embassy palace through a mile of crowded streets lined with crowds eager to witness the pageant.

Four red-and-yellow state coaches carried the American party.

JOY GIVEN ALIMONY CLUB

Twelve Husbands in Chicago Freed for Holidays by Judge Who Feels Christmas Spirit

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (AP)—The magic spell of Christmas tide penetrated the stone walls and iron bars of the Alimony Club today and gave twelve husbands their liberty for the holidays, if not longer.

Judge Sabath was the medium through which the Christmas spirit worked, freeing the dozen men who were in jail for failure to meet the court's alimony orders for their wives.

A curious sequel to the judge's benevolence concerned Selathial Dillenbeck, alimony clubman in jail for not paying his first wife $1300. She was in court when he was released, and after he told the judge the freedom did not do much good since he had no car fare to get home to his second wife, the first wife stepped forward and handed him a $5 bill.

Another of the men, Gerhardt Johnson, in arrears $110, walked out of court arm in arm with his wife, Judge Sabath effecting their reconciliation.

Still another went back to jail. He is Walter Snydor, whose answers to the judge's questions regarding a possible settlement of the alimony differences were so defiant the court ordered him returned to his cell.

All those freed were given until February 5 to make some arrangements for meeting their alimony payments or else go back to jail.

BYRD MAY HAVE WHITE CHRISTMAS

Antarctic Party Sees Miserable Polar Day as it Wades Through Slush

BY RUSSELL OWEN

[Copyright, 1929, by the New York Times and St. Louis Post-Dispatch. All rights for publication reserved throughout the world.]

LITTLE AMERICA (Antarctica) Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—It looks as though we will have a white Christmas.

A year ago Christmas Day we sighted the barrier and for a year we have been living on it. Thirty of us have not seen land or anything resembling it for more than a year. Of course, if one chopped a hole in the backyard down to the water and then swam persistently downward for a quarter of a mile one could see land of a sort. We saw a little brought up by an automatic scoop and it was clayey and altogether uninviting.

This is a miserable polar summer day, with soft snow under foot and drab sky above, such a monotone of white and gray that unless there is a little dirt around it is impossible to see the surface and there is no horizon, just a bowl of gruel in which objects stand out detached as if resting on air. But tomorrow is Christmas and in a month the ships should be nearly here and a month after that if all goes well we will be where there are unfamiliar trees and grass and trolley cars and noises and probably all will be run over by automobiles the first day ashore.

Idaho Chamber of Commerce Recalls Moses's Jibe in Program Printing

BOISE (Idaho) Dec. 24. (AP) Wild jackasses may become a part of the State emblem or something equally ostentatious if their popularity continues growing since Senator Moses of New Hampshire referred to the natives of three western States as sons of that unimposing little animal.

The latest wrinkle in their rise to popularity is their placement on the cover page of the program for the annual convention in Pocatello, January 16, of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce.

No comment accompanies the drawing of the animals, just the picture of three wild jackasses—being wild.

FLAMES IN WHITE HOUSE DESTROY HOOVER OFFICES

President Looks on as Fire Crews Fight Stubborn Blaze Amid Ice; Executive Documents Saved

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—The most disastrous blaze at the White House since the British burned it in the War of 1812 destroyed the executive offices of President Hoover tonight. Scores of firemen fought the fire for more than two hours after its discovery at 8:15 p.m. before bringing it under control at 10:35. While the offices of the President were charred and wrecked by water, the White House proper was unharmed.

While President Hoover and Mrs. Hoover were entertaining a party of children of the White House staff the executive wing of the building, separated by more than 100 feet from the living quarters of Mr. and Mrs. Hoover, blazed up, but the only danger to the Chief Executive was the possibility that he might have been struck by an unruly fire hose, and he escaped this.

BUILT BY ROOSEVELT

The executive wing was built on the recommendation of President Roosevelt, who found the White House proper too small to transact the business of the nation. It was a small, one-story structure on the west end of the executive mansion, abutting the State Department and connected with the White House proper by a covered corridor. In it were housed the activities of the President, his secretaries, the newspaper corps and the general every-day business of the head of the government.

The children of the Hoover party were allowed to enjoy the spectacle from a balcony of the famous mansion, whose sides were charred by the British fire in the War of 1812, and the President himself ventured into the fire lines to see the attempts made to quench the flames.

While confined to the executive offices, the fire was a stubborn one and more than two hours was required by the fire department to conquer it. Walter Newton, one of the secretaries to the President, expressed the opinion that a bad wire connection had caused the blaze, which flared up after the offices had been closed for the day.

ALL DOCUMENTS SAVED

The official documents of the President, invaluable to the procedure of the government, were all saved.

The office of the President was among the worst damaged of all the rooms. Firemen had made an especial attempt to save that portion of the structure along with the Cabinet room. The offices of Newton and George Akerson, another of the President's secretaries, were ruined. The stenographers' quarters, the main lobby and the press room were completely wrecked.

Col. U. S. Grant III, Superintendent of Public Buildings and Parks, after an inspection said the ceiling, roof, floors and plaster walls of the building will have to be replaced. Col. Grant said he thinks an estimate of $80,000 damage "conservative."

NO INSURANCE CARRIED

The park and buildings superintendent said that, in his opinion, the outside walls and the supporting walls inside can be used again. All plumbing, electric wiring and fixtures will have to be replaced, he said. He added that rebuilding will be started as soon as practicable.

Walter Newton, who accompanied Col. Grant on his inspection, said that an appropriation by Congress will be necessary to rebuild the executive offices.

The government carries no insurance.

Only one room of the structure was not demolished, an office of one of Mr. Hoover's aides in the northeast corner. The President's own office was among the last to give way before the flames. The dome-shaped ceiling finally had to be torn up by the firemen, and plaster and steel fell down into the chamber. Much of it was piled on the President's desk, from which the drawers with their important documents had been removed by George Akerson and Allan Hoover, son of the President.

Large baskets designed for roses, peonies and other flowers were filled with Presidential correspondence.

DRY UPROAR MUFFLED

Hoover Takes Hand in Row

Harris, Who Demands That McCormick Quit, Mute After Conference

Borah Statement Belittles Efforts of Enforcement Commission

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—President Hoover today took a hand in the controversy between dry Senators and his law-enforcement commission which last night led Senator Harris, dry Democrat of Georgia, to demand the resignation of Federal Judge McCormick of Los Angeles, a member of the commission, for asserting not only that the problem of prohibition enforcement must be solved, but that "governmental lawlessness," as represented by illegal search and seizure in private homes, must be stopped.

At the President's summons, Senator Harris was an early visitor today at the White House. The Georgia dry spent some time with Mr. Hoover. On his departure the White House had no comment to make. Harris himself, although for several days voluble in his protest against the way he thinks the law enforcement commission is drifting, suddenly became mute.

RESOLUTION BLOCKED

The Senator's only statement following his visit had reference to the defense made last night by Senator Carter Glass, Democrat, Virginia, of Judge McCormick's right to express his views. Harris sought to make it appear that wets should derive no comfort from the declarations of the Virginian, who declared that he "did not participate in Senator Harris's view of the matter at all," and that the commission was not appointed "to find out something that would please any particular group in Congress, but was appointed to ascertain the facts, regardless of what conclusion the facts might signify."

Senator Harris is demanding that the commission make a preliminary report concerning its findings as to prohibition. A few days ago a resolution he offered in the Senate to that end was blocked by the objection of Senator Wesley Jones of Washington, dry leader, and Hoover spokesman, who has announced his purpose of visiting the commission to ascertain if and when a preliminary report on prohibition could be made. Senator Jones said tonight that he would defer calling on the commission until after Christmas and perhaps until after New Year's. When he does visit the commission he intends asking that a report on the prohibition phase of the commission's work be submitted to Congress as early as may be possible.

HARRIS'S STATEMENT

Following his conference with the President, Senator Harris made only the following statement:

"Senator Glass's statement while seemingly a defense of the views Judge McCormick expressed in Los Angeles really coincides with mine as to the need for an impartial report. I did not think that Judge McCormick's statement was impar-

FIRE SIRENS LURE CHILDREN

Mrs. Hoover Lets White House Youngsters Abandon Christmas Party to Watch Blaze

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25. (AP)—When the White House was burned by the British 116 years ago Dolly Madison, who was its mistress, seized Washington's portrait and fled.

When it caught fire on Christmas Eve, 1929, Mrs. Hoover, its mistress, after ascertaining there was no danger, continued a children's party which was in progress.

While her husband was watching from a terrace near the executive offices where the flames were raging, Mrs Hoover managed to keep three husky Akerson boys, three children of Walter Newton, and French Strother, Jr., from making a dash for the scene.

For nearly two hours while the fire burned, with its accompanying serenade from the ever-thrilling sirens, the party continued. Finally Mrs. Hoover, probably feeling that it was an historic event, let the crowd go. Grace Newton came down and joined her father among other spectators, but the smaller children came out on the same terrace with the President. One of the Akerson boys showed a disposition to climb down where his father was but changed his mind when the latter indicated he thought differently.

The children's party had been described at the White House as one which Mr. Hoover had personally planned. He had even extended his invitations in person. His own grandchildren were far away in California.

In the meantime two brightly lit

FATE OF FLYERS HELD BY SOVIET

America Waits for Action on Appeal by Radio

Senator Borah Also Takes Matter Up With Agent

Russian Ships Held Nearest to Eielson and Mate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Word was awaited out of the frozen North tonight telling that trained men and dog teams had been ordered across the ice and snow off the Siberian coast to the rescue of Lieut. Carl Ben Eielson, American aviator, and his mechanic, Carl Borland, who disappeared six weeks ago while flying to the icebound fur ship Nanuk.

Action by the soviet government, to which unofficial appeals by the American government and direct appeals by Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, have been made for assistance, remained tonight the outstanding hope of the flyers for rescue.

BORAH IN APPEAL

Senator Borah's appeal was made directly to Acting Commissar of Foreign Affairs Litvinoff of the Moscow government. The Senator has long been a foremost advocate of American recognition of the soviet.

The unofficial appeal for assistance by the Washington government was made by Secretary Wilbur through Boris E. Skvirsky, unofficial representative of the soviet in Washington, and the Soviet Union information bureau.

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, former assistant Attorney-General, now attorney for the airplane corporation which employed Eielson and Borland, is generally credited in the capital with being instrumental in bringing about intercession with Moscow.

MABEL IN TOUCH

The former assistant Attorney-General has kept in touch with the Interior Department since the aviators disappeared in the frozen stretches off the coast of Siberia. She also conferred with Borah concerning the possibility of asking Russian aid, but it has not been indicated which appeal brought the first result.

Announcement of the Senator's message to Moscow was made after it became known that the Interior Department had appealed to the soviet upon the urgent request of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, noted northern explorer.

Mrs. Willebrandt also conferred with Walter Newton, secretary to President Hoover, but whether she discussed rescue plans with him remains to be divulged.

STEFANSSON GIVES THANKS

Stefansson, whose appeal to Wilbur for immediate action toward rescue of the flyers was made on the basis of his intimate knowledge of the severe conditions in the North, telegraphed his thanks both to Wilbur and Borah today.

The telegram to Wilbur read:

"I am sure I speak for all the friends of Eielson and Borland in thanking you for your prompt action."

The message to Borah read:

"Mrs. Willebrandt has told me of your intercession. Best thanks, in which I am sure all friends of Eielson and Borland join."

ALASKA GOVERNOR ASKED

The appeal to Wilbur by the explorer also resulted in a message being dispatched to Gov. Parks of Alaska by the Secretary suggesting that the Governor radio for aid to two soviet ships in the vicinity in which the flyers are believed to have disappeared.

These vessels are the Stavrapol and the Litke. It was to these vessels that Wilbur referred in his message to the Governor as the "icebreakers Litke and Stavrapol."

Borah's message to the Acting Commissar read:

"Two American aviators, Eielson and Borland, flying from Teller, known to be down in vicinity of icebound steamship Nanuk within 100 miles of your icebreaker Stavrapol. Bring this to your attention, believing you will be glad to direct Stavrapol to make such search for them as practicable."

SHE'S CLOSE TO HOME OF SANTA

Icebound Girl Has Crude Christmas

Marion Swenson

NOME (Alaska) Dec. 24. (AP)—If anyone could have caught a glimpse of Santa Claus on his annual journey from the North Pole to visit the homes of boys and girls all over the world, it should have been Marion Swenson, 17-year-old Seattle girl, who had a grand-stand seat.

Marion sailed with her father, Olaf Swenson, on his trading ship, the Nanuk, out of Seattle last summer in search of adventure during a vacation from school. She found plenty, and on Christmas Eve still is aboard the Nanuk icebound in the Arctic Ocean near North Cape, Siberia.

Despite the fact that Marion's Christmas is nearer Santa's traditional North Pole home than most people get in their lifetime, her celebrating was under severe handicaps.

For one thing, she had to make her own Christmas tree out of sticks and green paint. There are no trees for many hundreds of miles. Tufts of rabbit fur and cubes of sugar dyed with green and red ink were her decorations.

No turkey will be on Marion's menu tomorrow. Instead there will be Russian borsch, a ragout with a sauce of fermented beet juice, elder ducks, roast reindeer and tea with lemon.

In Marion's opinion, Santa must have started south earlier this year than usual, for she already has received a beautiful spotted reindeer fur suit trimmed with wolf fur. The worst of it is that there is no girl within many miles to whom she can show her present.

Pope Ennobles New York Man

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) George B. MacDonald, a New York broker, is the first person to be ennobled by the Pope since the signing of the Lateran pact creating the Catican State. Mr. MacDonald will be the Marquis George MacDonald in Italy from now on, which title is one grade higher than that of Count. The title will also be hereditary in his family.

Mr. MacDonald gave a dinner in honor of Cardinal Cerretti, where his honor was announced. He also has been promoted from a chevalier of the Legion of Honor to a Knight of the Legion of Honor by the French government.

POPE ASSAILS FASCIST CRITICS

the fulfillment of the Lateran treaties.

Departing from the benign tone used in his last two encyclicals, the Pontiff launched into the old controversy with Mussolini's government without mincing words. He declared the accusation that Catholic action is mixing in politics is "a thing exactly contrary to truth," and later said that the Catholic press is "badly and unjustly treated."

CONTRARY TO PACTS

Evidently referring to a proposal to erect a monument to Anita Garibaldi, wife of the Italian liberator, upon Janiculum Hill, the Pontiff said that such an act seems contrary to the spirit of the Lateran pacts.

The Lateran treaties, the Pope insisted, "affirmed and recognized that this Rome remains always our Rome, our diocese, ours in all that which is most intimate and dear in our sentiments."

He deplored recent Fascist publications "which have shown no reverence or regard for us—publications which we might say were issued and intended to confuse intelligence and consciences."

REFERS TO VISITS

Notwithstanding all this the Pope said that he thanked providence for the conclusion of the Lateran accords "which in their opportune dispositions will bear precious fruits of pacification and sanctification and new impulses to well being for the country and society at large."

The Pontiff said that he is "really consoled" by the visit of the Italian sovereigns and children recently "particularly because we are able to divine in their person the best and most deferent dispositions for an ever more faithful carrying out of the Lateran treaties."

CHILDREN LURED BY FIRE SIRENS

Christmas trees, one on each side of the main doorway to the White House proper, gleamed away in competition with the flames, booming photographers' flashlights, huge flares and powerful searchlights. They were still shining when firemen began the dirty work of cleaning away the debris.

BIG GAME HUNTERS IN AFRICA TO PAY FEES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Big game hunters, please take note. From now on it will cost $250 to bag an elephant in the wilds of Ethiopia. The fee for killing a buffalo will be $120, for shooting a lion, $30, a leopard $30, while the head tax on killing other game will range from $1 up. The State Department announced that the American Minister to Ethiopia has just sent a dispatch reporting that the Ethiopian government now requires permits and exacts fees for killing elephants and other wild game.

Merry Christmas Extended in Outdoor Speech

Throng Gathers Amid Bright White House Scene

Children Sing Carols and Marine Band Plays

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—A giant spruce tree brilliant with myriad colors stood close to the White House tonight as a symbol of those in homes throughout the land.

President Hoover, standing on a small platform in Sherman Square, his overcoat buttoned tightly as a protection from the cold night air, turned on the lights of the national Christmas tree in conformity with the Christmas custom.

The illumination of the tree, the booming flashlights of photographers and the blue light of a star shell set off simultaneously with the switching of the lights, revealed a crowd of Washingtonians of every rank who came to hear the President's "I wish you a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous new year." Thousands in all the States heard his salutation by radio.

CHILDREN SING

Before and after Mr. Hoover's greeting the children from the junior high schools of the District of Columbia sang the old familiar Christmas carols, accompanied by the United States marine band.

Nature had its part in making the setting for the ceremony a beautiful one. The grounds were white with snow and the trees were silvered by the ice.

A Boy Scout, Joseph Wheeler, and a Girl Scout, Alice Leake, both of Washington, presented Mr. and Mrs. Hoover with baskets of flowers.

All afternoon Mrs. Hoover had been helping distribute baskets of food to the poor. Mr. Hoover spent most of the day at his office, leaving, however, in plenty of time to supervise the final preparations for a party to which he personally invited the children of his White House family.

The President's two small grandchildren, the son and daughter of Herbert Hoover, Jr., were in faraway California with their parents, so the Chief Executive asked the children of George Akerson, Walter Newton and French Strother, his secretaries, and the small daughter of Dr. Joel Boone, the White House physician, to be his guests at dinner and a party afterward. The parents of the children also were present.

CAROLS OMITTED

The usual singing of Christmas carols at the White House tonight was dispensed with in order to allow the White House police force to spend Christmas Eve with their families.

With the exception of about half of the President's Cabinet, a large part of official Washington went back home to celebrate the holidays. Most of the members of the House and Senate, except those living in the Far West, left soon after adjournment. The only member of the Cabinet who took a distant vacation was Secretary Mellon, who boarded a yacht at Miami and sailed to the West Indies for a rest.

Tomorrow night the President and Mrs. Hoover will entertain members of the Cabinet and their families. Allan Hoover, who came from Harvard University, will be present at all of the festivities.

President Hoover will not attend church tomorrow because the Friends Meeting House, where he worships, does not hold special Christmas services.

death on Saluria Island, near here, in the recent blizzard were found yesterday by C. W. Echols, fisherman. The bodies were identified today as members of the crew of a tugboat belonging to the Jacobser Towing Company of Galveston. They were Capt. W. F. Newport, 32 years of age, of Texas City; Roy Clark, deckhand Galveston, and Roy McCaulin, deckhand, Galveston, the company said.

The men were alone on the tug which presumably was grounded and knocked to bits by heavy seas.

FLORIDA SHIVERS IN RECORD COLD YULETIDE

TAMPA (Fla.) Dec. 24. (AP)—This section of Central Florida shivered today in the coldest Christmas Eve in twenty-three years, with a temperature of 33 deg. recorded at Tampa this morning.

No official surveys were available but citrus fruit is believed to have escaped damage, with truck crops faring somewhat worse, according to W. J. Bennett, government meteorologist.

During the day the mercury rose to a high of 52 deg. On the east coast at Miami, the maximum was 10 deg. higher.

Frost was reported in many sections around Tampa, but there was little ice.

BAY CITY SPECIAL ELECTION OPPOSED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—A special election to vote upon a $55,000,000 bond issue for the purchase of properties of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Great Western Power Company, as proposed, will cost $100,000, according to Registrar Collins, and will so tax the Registrar's office that the task of registration for next fall's elections cannot be undertaken until late in the spring. The special election is proposed for March.

fully placed in a large florist basket and continued to keep excellent time.

Firemen said that the reason for the long delay in putting out the blaze completely was due largely to the fact that the iron-grated windows in the half-story attic were not windows at all but were strongly built boxes.

In addition to having to break through the iron grating the firemen found that they also had to break through another wall and then a series of partitions of strong yellow pine.

Cornices on the east side of the building also constructed of pine kept blazing up after firemen thought all flame had been extinguished.

SOLDIER GUARD CALLED

The firemen poured tons of water on the walls and roof. The fire ate on stubbornly and firemen working on the roof barely put out one blaze when another behind them would leap skyward and they would have to turn on that flame to protect themselves.

The water poured down in streams several inches deep from the offices onto Executive avenue, which tended to handicap the operations of the fire fighters.

Among the spectators were working men in dungarees and men in evening dress and silk-toppers.

Secretary of War Hurley ordered fifty men from Washington Barracks placed on guard to patrol the entire White House grounds as the White House police concentrated about the house and the crowds surrounding the executive office.

Land Settlers Offered Plan to Clear Debt

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Charles W. Cleary, chief of the State division of land settlement of the State Department of Agriculture, today submitted to the settlers the Durham (Butte county) State land settlement, a plan for liquidating their indebtedness to the State by writing off $327,853 of the total debt of $485,936 on 3546 acres. If accepted by the settlers the debt reduction will be as of June 30, 1928.

The basis of settlement is the same for each colonist, but differs according to conditions of the contract, the details of which are explained in the letters.

The plan, said Cleary, lacks final approval by the State land settlement board.

Calexico Contractor Sends News of Change

CALEXICO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) Gen. Abelardo L. Rodriguez has resigned as Governor of the Northern District of Lower California and Gen. Jose Maria Tapia, former Congressman from the district, has been named as his successor, according to an unofficial message from authoritative sources received by the Calexico Chronicle today.

The message states that Gov. Rodriguez, who is now in Mexico City, will return within the next two week to assist his successor in taking over the administration and will then leave with his family for a three months' tour of Europe.

Gen. Tapia is a close personal friend of Rodriguez and is well known in Southern California, having been stationed at San Diego for the past three years as Commissioner of Fisheries for the Mexican Federal government. Previous to that he served two years in Congress as Representative from the Northern District.

The territorial palaces in Mexicali were closed this afternoon and it is not known whether official news of the change in governors has been received. Mexican Consul Edmundo Arragon of Calexico stated that his office had not received official notice of the appointment.

The Chronicle's message came from Tom R. Yglesias, American contractor, who is a close friend of both Rodrigues and Tapia and who is now in Mexico City on business in connection with the construction of a highway between Tia Juana and Ensenada.

Rancher Frees "Party" Bride

SEATTLE, Dec. 24. (AP) — Somewhere a chorus girl may be interested in knowing that she no longer is the wife of a rancher she saw just one night in Chicago seven years ago.

William A. Ayres related in Superior Court that he woke up on a "morning after," a Chicago party to be informed by a girl that she was his bride. Then she left and returned no more.

Four years ago on another trip to Chicago, he investigated out of curiosity and found her story true. He was granted a divorce today.

Angelenos Wed for Fifty Years

REDWOOD CITY, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Mr. and Mrs. George Burris of Los Angeles, married in Chillicothe, Mo., fifty years ago tomorrow, will observe their golden wedding anniversary at the home of their son, John W. Burris, here.

"The earth has grown old with its burden of care
But at Christmas it always is young
The heart of the jewel burns lustrous and fair,
And its soul, full of music, breaks forth on the air
When the song of the angels is sung"

Argentine President Escapes Anarchist's Bullets

Two Members of Auto Party Injured by Shots

Bodyguard Quickly Slays Italian Assailant

BUENOS AIRES (Argentina) Dec. 24. (AP)—President Yrigoyen escaped injury today because the aim of a would-be assassin at his speeding automobile was faulty. Two of the three shots fired from behind a wall along the roadway struck members of the Presidential party and the third went wild.

The nation rejoiced tonight at the narrow escape of its chief executive from a tragedy which would have brought to an abrupt halt the extensive Christmas celebrations already under way.

ITALIAN ANARCHIST

The assailant was described by the police as an Italian anarchist named Gualberto Marinelli, 44 years of age. He concealed himself behind a wall bordering the international road. As the President was driving to the National Palace from his home Marinelli srang out and opened fire.

An employee of the investigations office, Carlos Maria Sicilia, was wounded in the stomach and at a hospital tonight it is said he is injured critically. Another man in the Presidential automobile also was wounded. President Yrigoyen and his companion, Dr. Meabe, were not injured.

SLAIN BY GUARD

That the plot failed of its purpose was attributed to the quick action of the Presidential escort, which mowed down the assassin with a stream of shots. He was killed where he stood and later it was found that seven bullets had entered his body. Some of the officials traveling in the escort automobile attempted to save him in order that he might be brought to trial for his act, but the men charged with guarding the President had been prompt and efficient in removing the danger.

President Yrigoyen long has been one of the most powerful and individual figures in Argentina. He first was elected President in 1916, and served until 1922. He was reelected in 1928 by a two-to-one majority. The Argentine people delight in his strong personality, which at times shows itself in what are almost idiosyncrasies in a public officeholder He is extremely adverse to public functions, and to speech making, but departed from his custom in both of these respects when President Hoover visited Buenos Aires last year.

HOOVER SENDS CABLE TO ARGENTINE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—President Hoover today cabled to President Yrigoyen at Buenos Aires his congratulations for the escape from death of the chief executive of the Argentine Reublic. The message said:

"I have learned with the utmost concern of the dastardly attempt on your life and desire to express to you my heartiest congratulations on your very fortunate escae. The people of the United States join with those of Argentina in deploring this unfortunate occurrence and in expressing their great relief and joy that you escaped unharmed."

Fighting Cock Cheats Coyote

ST. JOHN (Kan.) Dec. 24. (AP)—A captured coyote, tied in the yard of Bill Miles here, freed itself, entered the chicken yard of Codge Green, near by, and made off with a fighting cock from the Green flock.

In a few hours the rooster returned, some the worse for wear and a little ruffled in spirit, but still much alive.

Nothing has been seen of the coyote.

VETERAN CHINESE HOTEL WORKER DIES

DEL MONTE, Dec. 24. (AP)—When Hotel Del Monte celebrates its fiftieth anniversary next June the last remaining member of the original Hotel Del Monte organization will not be there, for Yick Kim On, who performed his duties faithfully as Chinese houseman at the famous Monterey Peninsula resort since the opening of the original hotel in 1880, died unexpectedly today.

Former Headliner Facing Term in Cell Gets Chance to Attempt Comeback

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) All has not been beer and skittles in the life of Billy Montgomery, former vaudeville headliner, but the ex-husband and stage partner of Florence Moore, Broadway comedienne, got a break when he least expected one today.

Montgomery was prepared to spend the next six months on Welfare Island. A Fifth-avenue shopkeeper had espied Billy walking out of his establishment with a new suit of clothes and an overcoat, neglecting to stop at the cashier's desk.

While he awaited sentence in special sessions, Billy got his first stage offer in five years.

Frank Tinney, Will Morrissey, Will Duffy and Jack Allman—stars all in Billy's heyday—are planning a comeback effort Friday night in a Hoboken theater. Would Montgomery cast his luck with them?

"I couldn't cast my luck past the turnkey," Billy explained, forcing a smile. "Not that I haven't lots of luck—but it is all bad."

When he told how opportunity had rattled at his cell door, Justices Murphy, Herbert and Voorhees, themselves expansive with the holiday spirit, went into a whispered conference on the bench.

"We'll give you another chance," they finally told Montgomery. Montgomery was given a suspended sentence.

Merchant Has Costly Look at $1000 Bill

KNEOSHA (Wis.) Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—One Kenosha merchant has seen a good $1000 bill and is out one fur coat valued at $600 and $400 in change.

A well-dressed woman came to his store and picked out a fur costing $600. She offered a $1000 bill. The merchant ran over to the bank to see if the bill was all right. The bank told him it was. When he came back, however, the woman was angry and added something about refusing to trade at a store where her word was no good. She walked out. Several hours later the woman came back and said she had not seen in any of the other stores a coat like the one she picked out and offered to buy it. The merchant took the $1000 bill, wrapped up the coat and gave her $400 in change.

The next morning when the merchant went to the bank to deposit the bill he was told it was counterfeit.

British Vessel Aground in Java

LONDON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Lloyd's advices from Macassar, in the Dutch East Indies, state that the British motor vessel Silveray, from San Francisco for Surabaya, Java, ran ashore and requires salvage assistance.

The Silveray, 4535 tons gross, left San Francisco on November 19 and touched at Los Angeles and Calcutta.

SECRET WORTH MILLION

Chemist Who Can Make Fuel at $1 a Ton Faces Bleak, Penniless Christmas

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—Penniless, far from home, and unable to speak a word of English, Heinrich Weber, Austrian chemist and engineer, moped about the home of relatives at Coney Island today, facing a bleak Christmas. In his brain he has a $1,000,000 secret, in his pockets not a penny.

Equally bleak were the holiday prospects of his two erstwhile friends, Moses Rosenthal, who paid Weber's expenses to this country from Lemborg, Austria, and Isidore Thornschein, who back in the old country saved him from military service in the World War, thereby making possible for him to continue on his scientific labors.

Locked in the brain of Weber was a secret—a formula which, he and his former friends say, might be worth millions and revolutionize the coal industry.

FEARS FORMULA THEFT

But today neither Weber nor his former friends were getting any benefit of it because the chemist, afraid lest his precious formula be stolen from him, refused to reveal it to anyone or to have it patented. He wants to sell it outright for $1,000,000.

The Lehigh Valley Navigation and Coal Company, Rosenthal said, had witnessed a test, but before making any arrangements with Weber and his friends, the firm insisted that the process be patented.

Weber refused. He said it would be stolen if patented. And he continued to refuse after receiving subsequent offers from the Prospect Coal Company, the Susquehanna Coal Company and a Mr. Markel, a coal operator of Hazelton, Pa.

FUEL $1 A TON

He demands $1,000,000—$250,000 in cash—before he will reveal to anyone his formula.

Rosenthal and Thornschein, however, had one bit of satisfaction today. They obtained a Supreme Court order enjoining him from leaving the country or divulging his secret to anyone except themselves.

Weber, according to the papers submitted by Rosenthal and Thornschein in their petition for an injunction, has invented a formula which, mixed with water and coal dust, will produce excellent fuel—possible at $1 a ton.

HONORS AWAIT MEXICO'S CHIEF

Capital Prepares to Greet Ortiz Rubio and Wife

Elaborate Ceremony Planned for President-elect

Hoovers to Break Precedent by Returning Call

WASHINGTON Dec. 24. (AP)—A reception and entertainment, more elaborate and extensive than that for any similar dignitary in many years will mark the forthcoming visit to the capital of President-elect Ortiz Rubio of Mexico. The Mexican President-elect, accompanied by Senora Rubio and his party will arrive by special train at Union Station at noon Thursday from Baltimore where both have been undergoing treatment at Johns Hopkins University Hospital. Headed by Secretary Stimson and Mrs. Stimson, Ambassador Tellez of Mexico and three representatives of President Hoover a distinguished gathering will greet the Mexican official upon his arrival.

FULL MILITARY HONORS

The State Department and War Department programs for the reception and subsequent plans for the visit were made public today.

Soldiers sailors and marines will render the military honors at the station and the Mexican Embassy, with service bands on hand to play the American and Mexican national anthems. The line of march from the station to the Embassy will be up Pennsylvania avenue, with a large escort of motorcycle police accompanying the party from the time the last salutes are given at Union Station until military honors are resumed upon the arrival at the Embassy on Sixteenth street.

WILL RETURN CALL

President Hoover will receive the distinguished visitor at the White House at ? p.m. Mrs. Hoover receiving Senora Rubio immediately afterward. Precedent established at the beginning of the history of the United States will be broken by the American Chief Executive and Mrs Hoover in returning these calls. Previously calls of Presidents-elect visiting the United States and even that of Prime Minister MacDonald have been returned by the President and first lady by cards left by an aide. As a mark of particular favor however, the President and Mrs Hoover will go to the Mexican embassy to repay the calls. The function which will climax the social entertainment of the President-elec and his suite will be the state dinner to be given by the President and Mrs. Hoover at the White House at 8 p.m. Friday. The party will leave the capital Sunday afternoon.

GROTTO BLOOMS IN COLORS

Ancient Indian Artists' Work Discovered in Guadalupe Mountains of New Mexico

CARLSBAD (N. M.) Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—A painted grotto, colorful as an Indian blanket, has just been found in the Guadalupe Mountains, New Mexico. The basket-maker race, extinct forty centuries ago, used this huge niche in the canyon wall for a living-room.

Scientists were looking for caves from the lofty rim of Slaughter Canyon, in the wold places of Nature, scanning with field glasses the colossal bluffs of the great South Fork as it writhed away through the jumble of torn mountains. Suddenly a distant cliff seemed to open as if by the magic of Ali Baba—a cave mouth in full view.

They dropped to the canyon bottom, half a mile below, and trekked upstream to the point.

There yawned the huge mouth of a shallow cave in the nature of an extreme overhang. In the half light were discerned a strange medley of paintings—red, yellow, white, black—along the wall for eighty feet. Both sides and a portion of the ceiling are covered.

A forty-foot serpent outlined in a series of small white triangles stretches horizontally; other large snakes, in solid yellow, run from floor to ceiling. Many similar reptiles appear to have been started but left unfinished.

Flat blocks of rocks, the size of a billiard table, lie along the floor; on these prehistoric man ground his corn. These huge rock slabs are pitted with mortars, the grinding pestles remaining in place for use, as though the occupants suddenly had departed.

TUNNEY CRAVES FOGARTY SCALP

Collapse of $500,000 Suit by Wife Paves Way

Husband Offers Vainly to End Alienation Action

Blackmail Charge Possible as Sequel to Affair

BRIDGEPORT (Ct.) Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Having disposed of Mrs. Katherine Fogarty's $500,000 action the Fort Worth divorcee acknowledging a complete defeat, Gene Tunney is after Mr. Fogarty's scalp. And if the ex-heavyweight champion gets it, Fogarty will stand in the shadow of prison bars.

Fogarty, it was learned today, has offered to withdraw his $500,000 alienation suit, but the former heavyweight champion instructed George Whiteside, his counsel, not to give Fogarty "a break."

Tunney not only wants his name vindicated, but he wants Fogarty to admit in court that he and his wife conspired to mulct him of his millions.

If the Fort Worth plumber allows Tunney to take judgment in the counter-claim asserting conspiracy, Fogarty may lay himself open to arrest by the Connecticut authorities for blackmail.

"If Fogarty will allow us to secure an uncontested judgment and admit the conspiracy charges we will forget the $100,000 "Whiteside explained. "However, we cannot be responsible for any criminal action that may be taken against his wife."

WOMAN ASPIRING TO SEAT IN SENATE

Edith Nourse Rogers

LOWELL (Mass.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Friends of Representative Edith Nourse Rogers, revealed here that she will be a candidate for United States Senator next fall if she can be assured of support by the Massachusetts Republican organization.

NEGRO HERO OF DISASTER TO BE AIDED

Memphis Engineers Will Go to Boatman's Home With Gifts of Gratitude

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Dec. 24. (AP)—A group of Memphis engineers plan to make their way today to the home of a negro boatman to play Santa Claus—not as a matter of charity but as a mark of grtitude.

The negro is Tom Lee, hero of the steamer Norman disaster in 1925, and the visit will be in continuation of an annual custom of members of the Engineers' Club of Memphis, many of whom owe their lives to Lee.

He saved thirty-two persons when the Norman rolled over in the Mississippi River and sank. At the time a delegation of southern engineers, here to form a chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers, were aboard. Twenty-three persons drowned.

The home the Santa Claus party will visit is one bought by popular subscription, sponsored by the Engineers' Club and the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Yesterday the club held its holiday luncheon and the matter of the Christmas fund for Tom was foremost in the order of business. A purse of $75 was raised.

James Wood, now president of the club, who happened to be the first rescued by Lee at the time of the boat disaster, by coincidence was the first to hand in his donation to the purse.

ROYALTY OF BRITAIN HAS MERRY TIME

SANDRINGHAM (Eng.) Dec. 24. (AP)—The royal family of England, from King George and Queen Mary down to their youngest grandchildren, gathered at their favorite country retreat today for their first complete Christmas party in years.

The King and Queen had not spent Christmas with all their children and grandchildren since the war.

Princess Mary and her husband, the Earl of Harewood, formerly Viscount Lascelles, and their two small sons arrived last night at the palace, where little Princess Elizabeth greeted her cousins with great delight.

The Duke and Duchess of York and the Duke of Gloucester traveled together from London this afternoon, and the Prince of Wales and Prince George arrived in time to hear the village choristers sing the traditional carols this evening.

The Christmas party will be a family farewell to the Prince of Wales, who is leaving early in January to resume the African trip interrupted by the King's illness a year ago.

Insult Believed Murder's Cause

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Dec. 24.—Arthur W. Kaleher, 42 years of age, real estate dealer and race-horse trainer, died here today of a bullet wound in the lung received last night. William Wepler, 59, construction contractor, was ordered held on charges of murder and possessing liquor, the latter charge being placed against him when 100 quarts of beer were found in his home.

Police say that the shooting followed a remark by Wepler's sister-in-law that Kaleher "insulted" Wepler's daughter last summer.

Indians Honor Legion Leader

POCATELLO (Idaho) Dec. 24. (AP) Honorary membership in the council of Shoshone and Bannock Indian tribes on the Fort Hall Reservation, near here, has been conferred upon O. L. Bodenhammer, national commander of the American Legion, it was announced today by the Stewart Hoover Legion Post of Blackfoot, Idaho. The post includes in its membership several Indian World War veterans who are members of the two tribes.

HOOVER QUIETS UPROAR OF DRYS

Georgia Senator Caller at White House

Borah Takes Dig at Entire Enforcement Staff

tial and that is why I criticised him. I thought he coincided with the views of those who oppose the prohibition enforcement law.

"The two things I criticised were the secret hearings and the delay in sending a report to Congress so that the Appropriations Committee of which I am a member, could have official information to help us in determining the amount needed for further appropriation. I think the commission should have reported before any member made a statement that looked as though he were opposed to the enforcement law.

"This was what I criticised in Judge McCormick. I am sure that Senator Glass did not mean his statement as a defense of those who oppose the enforcement laws but I am afraid it was interpreted that way."

BORAH JOINS HUBBARD

Senator Borah, Senator Norris and Senator Brookhart joined today in the hubbub arid Senators are raising over the commission's handling of the prohibition question. Not only does Senator Borah believe that the President's commission can be of little value in bettering conditions despite the clamor set up by Harris and Glass for a partial report from the agency under pain of holding up appropriations for enforcement, but he also asserts that in his opinion prohibition will never be enforced "with the present personnel from top to bottom" a sly dig at both President Hoover and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon.

Borah is frankly skeptical of the law enforcement commission as are a number of Congressional drys. Doubtless their lack of faith in the body created by Mr. Hoover, with studies embracing not only prohibition, but laxity in all laws, is attributed to recent utterances of Chairman Wickersham, which were interpreted by some of the ultra drys as showing a leaning toward modification.

BORAH'S STATEMENT

The text of the Borah statement is.

"I am not deeply concerned about a report of the commission. The great fact that stands out with me in this situation is this:

"We name the law, the Supreme Court has construed it. There is no difficulty about the officers understanding it. But have we the officials who are willing to execute the law?

"A commission will not throw any light on what the law is. Neither will they have anything to do with the selecting of the officers to enforce it. Having the law clearly defined, the next thing, and the only thing, is to find the kind of officials who will enforce it.

"In my opinion, it will never be enforced with the present personnel from top to bottom.

"If the commission should report they will not tell us anything we do not know, either as to law or as to the facts, we will still be back to the one proposition, and that is, that with the present personnel nothing will be accomplished.

"I am very much more interested in the kind of officials which we are to have, district attorneys, marshals, sheriffs and enforcement officers generally, than I am in the theories and dissertations of the commission."

McCORMICK DEFENDED

Senator Brookhart supported Harris today with a declaration that Judge McCormick should be replaced by a man "who believes in the government of the United States and law enforcement." He expressed impatience "with making the government the criminal in enforcing the law and making heroes out of bootleggers."

Senator Norris agreed with Senator Glass that he saw no reason for action against Judge McCormick because of his statements, taking the position that members of a commission should be expected to have divergent opinions. McCormick had assailed the entering of private homes without a search warrant, and the Nebraska Senator—who is chairman of the Judiciary Committee—took the same stand.

Senator Norris contended that efforts to suppress the alcohol traffic had never been made in good faith in many sections. He expressed the opinion that time and again officers had disregarded cases where men with political influence were making millions of dollars, but had investigated less flagrant violations.

McCORMICK SILENT ON ATTACK BY HARRIS

United States District Judge McCormick, a member of President Hoover's crime commission, declined to comment yesterday regarding the remarks reported to have been made by Senator Harris of Georgia with respect to Judge McCormick's stand on the question of the enforcement of the National Prohibition Act.

Judge McCormick stated that he has not stated whether his sentiments are wet or dry, and that he holds an open mind on the question. He stated that he was quoted substantially correct in previous newspaper interviews. He also stated that what views he expressed, as previously stated, were his own. He pointed to the fact that the commission, appointed by President Hoover to investigate crime conditions, had agreed that any statement from the committee would come from the chairman, Judge Wickersham, and that he was not speaking for the commission.

CONFERENCE CALLED OF TURKEY GROWERS

DAVIS, Dec. 24. His knowledge of the problems of the western States and his efforts to bring about legislation tending to assist the States to overcome them drew the admiration of his colleagues.

Leatherwood was born on a farm near Waverly, O., September 4, 1872. After attending a Kansas normal school he went to the University of Wisconsin, where he received the degree of LL.B. in 1901.

The same year he began the practice of law in Salt Lake City. From 1909 to 1916 he was District Attorney of the Third Utah Judicial District. He became a member of the law firm of Straup, Nioley & Leatherwood, and later president of the Western Powder Company, the Leary & Warren Stockyards and the Olympus Mining and Milling Company.

ONE CHILD

In 1894 Leatherwood and Miss Nancy Albaugh of Kingman, Kan., were married. They had one child, Margaret Jane.

Representative Colton, Republican, Utah, visited the hospital immediately upon being informed of the death. He said he deeply regrets to lose his friend and colleague and that the people of Utah also will mourn his loss.

Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, said Mr. Leatherwood was held in high regard in Utah and that his labor for his State had been highly appreciated.

Funeral arrangements had not been concluded tonight. Speaker Longworth probably will name a delegation tomorrow to attend the services.

ANNIVERSARY WOULD HAVE OCCURRED TODAY

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 24. (AP) The death of Representative E. O. Leatherwood of Utah in Washington today occurred on the eve of the thirty-fifth anniversary of his marriage. The Leatherwoods were married Christmas Day, 1894, at Kingman, Kan.

NOSE THAT KNOWS GETS FULL CELLAR FOR AUTOIST

INDEPENDENCE (Kan.) Dec. 24. (AP) — Possession of olfactory memories that date back to pre-Volsteadian days has made an Independence motorist the most popular man in town.

The happy one, who prefers to be nameless, purchased a gallon of alcohol for the radiator of his motor car.

"Sniff, sniff, sniff," said he a little later on—or sounds to that effect. Following his nose, he investigated the radiator.

"Say," said he a minute later as his car skidded to a stop in the filling station he just had left, "I'd like to buy a barrel of alcohol to keep in my garage at home. I'll take it right with me."

Today a drug store had a barrel of denatured alcohol, a filling station had a most unhappy attendant, a wholesale drug house had an ad in the paper for a new truck driver—and a motorist had a barrel of genuine, bonded, medicinal grain alcohol.

Bay City Fetes Orphans Around Great Yule Tree

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (AP)—The bright faces of 250 orphans at Union Square tonight were living testimonials of how much they had enjoyed their gala day that started with a morning theater party and was followed with a turkey dinner. Grouping of the children about the large, brightly illuminated Christmas tree in the square and the distribution of gifts climaxed the Christmas fete in the downtown business section.

San Franciscans in every walk of life co-operated to gladden the hearts of children and the more unfortunate families. Hospitals, orphanages and homes were remembered carefully. Trucks throughout the day were kept busy distributing gifts.

Duty on Chimes Causes Protest

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Just at the yuletide season, wealthy American donors of imported carillons have written to Chairman Smoot of the Finance Committee protesting against the 40 per cent duty on these musical bells. Domestic bell producers, on the other hand, contend the duty is just and proper, adding that they can supply the carillons wanted if given the orders.

Among those protesting the tariff has been Edward W. Bok of Philadelphia, who gave the carillon for the singing tower at Mountain Lake, Fla., which was dedicated by President Coolidge. Bok wrote that he objected to making a gift to the people and then being asked to pay a duty on part of that gift.

BAR SUSPENDS MANY LAWYERS

Eighty-one Held Delinquent in Dues Payments

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Eighty-one California attorneys were suspended today by the State Bar, either for nonpayment of dues, payment of dues but nonpayment of penalty for arrearage or both.

Suspension, under the laws governing the State Bar, means the attorneys are barred from practicing law in this State until reinstated.

Twenty-six of the number are Los Angeles members and three others are in the two districts comprising the Los Angeles area.

THREE CONVICTS PUT IN DUNGEON

Trio Injure Guard in Effort to Make Escape

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Three convicts were placed in the dungeon here today following an attack made on a guard in a determined effort to escape.

The prisoners John Fitch, serving five years from Humboldt county for burglary, Hubert Hancock, serving seven years from Los Angeles for burglary, and Atley C. Dunne, serving one to ten years from Los Angeles for grand theft, were being returned to the prison from the Superior Court at San Rafael, where they had been taken for arraignment on escape charges, when the attack took place.

BEATING WIFE ALL RIGHT IF SHE DYES HAIR GREEN

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—William Henry King IV was, and still is, considered one of the upstanding citizens of Evanston where the standard is high. He was a good provider, courteous and a desirable neighbor. Consequently when he was brought into court on a charge of beating his wife Evanstonians were amazed.

In court William Henry freely admitted the charge. He explained to the judge and his neighbors who jammed the courtroom that he never objected to his wife buying all sorts of dresses. He did not flare up even when she trumped his ace.

"But, Your Honor, my wife, as you can see for yourself, is a beautiful woman. I stood for all her feminine foibles until she bought a hectic green dress and began dyeing her hair to match the dress. This was perilous to her health and would have made her look like a hag. Inasmuch as she would not listen to reason I was compelled to swing on her."

"Case dismissed," said the court, as the crowded room shouted its approval.

ARIZONA PIONEER AND FORMER JUDGE DIES

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Charles Payne Hicks, 71 years of age, pioneer of this district, died here today following a short illness from pneumonia. In the territorial days he was probate judge for twenty-three years, serving until that class of office was abolished in Arizona.

ENGLISH TO CUT IMPORT DUTIES

Government to Renew None of Tory "Safeguards"

LONDON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Philip Snowden, Labor Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House this afternoon that the government will renew none of the Tory "safeguarding" import duties after their expiration. He added that the McKenna silk and sugar duties will be repealed at the earliest practicable opportunity.

Mr. Snowden said that the government will decide when the time is ripe for such action. Mr. Snowden's announcement was a direct blow at the Conservative "protectionist" policies. The Liberals have been in sympathy on this issue with the Laborites.

PARTY IN PRISON CHEERS WOMEN

Christmas Spirit Prevails Inside San Quentin

Clara Phillips on Program; Gifts Distributed

Turkey on Menu Today, But Men Not So Lucky

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Dec. 24. (AP)—The Christmas spirit today broke through stone walls here and reached the circle of 100 women convicts.

With Dorothy Ellingson, San Francisco matricide, and Clara Phillips, known as the Los Angeles "hammer murderess," and others taking part the women prisoners presented an entertainment as their share in the yuletide observance. Miss Ellingson played the ukulele and Mrs. Phillips the saxophone. Several others sang, danced or gave recitations. Then small gifts grouped about a little tree were distributed.

Tomorrow the women prisoners will have turkey, the first time this choice morsel has been served them in prison, officials declare.

The men prisoners did not fare so well, although they will have two meals with pork and other "luxuries" not provided on other days.

NEW YORK'S CAROLING HEARD ALL OVER WORLD

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The message intoned at Bethlehem by angel choirs—"On earth peace, good will to men"—re-echoed through a large part of the world tonight when a large assembly in Madison Square Park sang carols that were heard by a far-flung radio audience.

Led by a small choir, and accompanied by the police and firemen's bands, the crowd stamped cold feet in the snow that insured New York its hoped-for white Christmas, and sang six carols with true holiday spirit.

A giant Christmas tree, aglow with myriad lights, stood in the background. Boy Scouts distributed printed copies of the old songs.

The program was arranged by the advertising club of New York, in co-operation with nearly 2000 of the city's churches and civic organizations.

Ghost Walks, But Pays No Customs Duty

DETROIT, Dec. 24. (AP)—Ghosts are walking once more on the Detroit River.

Customs officers reported today that down-river rum runners are resorting to "ghost-walking" tactics. This discovery was made yesterday on Beaubien Bay, off Ecorse, when a sled loaded with ten cases of liquor was seized.

"Ghost walking" consists of covering oneself and one's sled load of liquor with a sheet and then setting out for the American shore. Against the ice and snow the white-robed cargo is practically invisible.

Yesterday customs officers heard some one walking on the ice off Ecorse. They investigated and found the sled. Footprints and other markings in the snow told officers that the rum runner had fled, trailing his sheets behind him.

AIR-MAIL LOADS SHOW LARGE GAIN FOR 1929

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Based on poundage carried the first ten months of the year, air-mail loads in this country will aggregate 4000 tons or 320,000,000 letters for 1929, according to estimates by the Boeing system.

MOSCOW HAS NO CHRISTMAS

Today Merely Third Day of "Universal Work Week"

Masses Seem Satisfied With New System

Church Has Lost Hold on Urban Population

(Copyright, 1929, by New York Times)

MOSCOW, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Moscow, the city of church bells; Moscow, the capital of "Holy Russia," has no Christmas Day this year, no holiday, no trees nor feasting, and no special services in churches or chapels.

Christmas is but the third day of the new "unbroken working week" which, only introduced a few months ago, has found favor with the masses.

Factory and office executives complain it is difficult to get a quorum for the innumerable "conferences" which American experts often say are the bane of soviet business life. They complain they must often work on the fifth day because they cannot afford to let business go without the conferences.

SATURDAY QUEUES GONE

Yet, few men are really indispensable and to the public, the new system has a great advantage in this country. Film shows, skating rinks, theaters and other forms of amusement are so limited and the city population's living quarters so crowded that the universal week-end holiday had more drawbacks than charm, whether one went out or stayed at home. Then, too, the stores were closed, which was a nuisance for poor people living on narrow budgets. Any way, the Saturday queues have disappeared, and most of the Saturday and Sunday drunkenness.

The new system has reduced unemployment and increased production. According to the Industrial Gazette, 35 per cent of industry is now on the unbroken week-labor schedule, which will become universal by next February.

PEOPLE UNDISTURBED

From the religious angle the population seems little disturbed. The Greek Church had lost its hold on the urban masses. Those who wish still can attend evening services.

In regard to Christmas, another factor explains the ease of Bolshevik victory. The old orthodox church never accepted the new calendar, so, for its ~~faithful~~, Christmas is still a fortnight hence

TEXAS OFFICIAL STILL DEFIANT

Dist.-Atty. Valls Refuses to Resign at Laredo

Mexican Government Called "Impudent Intruder"

All Violators of Law to be Prosecuted, He Says

LAREDO (Tex.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Dist.-Atty. John A. Valls of Laredo whose attempt to arrest Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles was followed by closing of the Mexican Consulate here, issued a 1000-word statement today repeating that the innocent have nothing to fear from him and that he will not resign in order to bring about reopening of the Consulate.

His statement, he said, was in answer to the statement of Genaro Estrada, Mexican Foreign Affairs Minister, who wired the local Chamber of Commerce that conditions must be made safe for Mexican officials in Laredo before the Consulate can be reopened.

"IMPUDENT INTRUDER"

"The Mexican government," Valls said, "insists as a basis for removal of reprisals imposed on Laredo that I resign or dismiss charges against Calles and promise not to molest Mexican citizens in the future. My answer is . . . the Mexican government is an impudent intruder and will not be permitted to exercise any rights of sovereignty in my district. I will continue to prosecute all violators of the law regardless of nationality.

"The only regrettable incident in this whole affair is the sad spectacle of American soldiers acting as military escort to fugitives from justice."

CALLES PROTECTED

Calles was protected by an armed guard when his train passed through Laredo. He had been granted diplomatic immunity by this government.

After offering a welcome to "honorable and chivalrous citizens of Mexico," Valls asserted:

"There are men high in official circles in Mexico who are wanted for offenses in Webb county, and the trail of the serpent is over them all."

Valls is a native of Mexico.

ISLAM CITY HAS FOUR YULETIDES

Istanbul's Various Creeds Observe Different Days

Moslem Turks Beginning to Celebrate Christmas

Joyous Festivities Assume Numerous Forms

ISTANBUL, Dec. 24. (AP)—City of Islam though it is, Istanbul (formerly Constantinople) celebrates more Christmases every year than most of the great centers of Christendom. The great day falls on December 25 for a part of its heterogeneous population of many creeds, pops up again on January 1 and January 6, and yet again on the 7th. It's all a question of whether you go by the Julian or the Gregorian calendar.

There is so much Christmas spirit in this Moslem air that even the Moslem Turks themselves are becoming infected. Many wisely tolerant Turkish families of the new regime actually are beginning to celebrate the day with stockings and gifts and trees for the sake of their children, who have no Christmas of their own and who in the past have forlornly watched the rejoicings of their little Christian neighbors.

TOY PROTEST MADE

A recent editorial in one of the more orthodox Turkish papers protested against the display of Christmas toys and decorations and Santa Clauses in the shop windows on the grounds that it is unfair to Moslem children to put such sweets for others before their hungry eyes.

A series of replies from Turkish writers and mothers and fathers quelled this attack on Santa Claus. The enlightened Turks maintained that Christmas should be a day for all the children of the world. They said that a Turkish father who dresses up like Santa Claus for the sake of his little Husseins and Mustaphas and Fatimas does not forsake the religion of the Prophet when he dons the white whiskers and red leggings of old St. Nick.

SOME CELEBRATE TODAY

Many Turkish families thus are joining in tomorrow to celebrate Christmas along with European and American families for whom that day is celebrated here just as it is in their far-away homes. But for some 162,000 other Christian residents here, December 25 dawns and closes like any other day. Their Christmas is yet to come.

The 90,000 orthodox Greeks here observe the 25th as technically Christmas, but only in a small churchgoing way. All their Christmas spirit is reserved for January 1 the great festival of St. Basil, once Bishop of Cesarea.

The Armenians, of whom there are some 70,000 here, go the Greeks one better. Their Christmas falls on January 6, but that day is only a quiet religious holiday. They do all their merrymaking in advance on New Year's Eve, with many gifts and much feasting.

WHITE RUSSIANS HAPPY

Still another of Constantinople's Christmas series is that of the 1300 White Russians who still remain here, left over from the thousands who came down from Russia with Wrangel's defeated army.

Despite their poverty, these refugees hold their Christmas on the evening of January 7 with more spirit, perhaps, than any of the other celebrators.

TURKEY TO TEACH ECONOMY TODAY

ANGORA, Dec. 24. (AP)—Christmas Day, a day of gifts and merriment for the Christian world, this year will be Turkey's day of grim national economy.

The Turkish government has named tomorrow as national savings day to instill motions of economy in the luxury-loving Turkish people. The savings day is part of the government's program for extricating Turkey from impending economic disaster.

The Angora Industrial Bank will give a tea party tomorrow to Turkish mothers and school-teachers, in order to outline methods of teaching economy to the youth of the country.

RUTH HANGS UP STOCKING

And Other Women in Congress Have Their Own Ways to Celebrate Christmas Season

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick actually hangs up her stocking on Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Dolly Gann puts all her packages in a spare bedroom, and doesn't peek until after breakfast.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen insists on singing carols, even though it is in an apartment.

Thus, with Christmas customs that have come from childhood, official Washington celebrates just like the rest of the land.

"I've fourteen children in my carol crowd," reported Representative Owen "two grandchildren, four own children, a son-in-law, three borrowed children, four invited-in children. Sometimes I've been afraid we'd be put out of the apartment-house with the noise we've made practicing."

HAPPY TIMES

"We're having a happy time, the first Christmas in our home," said Representative McCormick, who now occupies one of Georgetown's historic homes remodeled to her taste. "The children Matrina, Mendell, Ruth are deep in the annual tree trimming and Christmas decorations contest, and we all have our stockings ready to hang by the fireplace."

At Alice and Nicholas Longworth's home, the report was that everything seemed to be centering about little Paulina, the child who does her own Christmas shopping.

"Christmas breakfast is the big occasion in our home," confided Mrs. Gann sister to the Vice-President "but we'll have a happy family dinner too, and a peek at the midshipman's ball afterward."

Representative Pearl Oldfield was happy because a young man from her home town, Batesville, Ark., also couldn't get home for Christmas. He will have dinner with her and her mother with Batesville as the topic of conversation.

OTHERS GLAD, TOO

Representative Florence P. Kahn, of far-off California, also found Christmas cheer with friends.

But perhaps the most meaningful Christmas of all was that of Edith Nourse Rogers, who could rejoice in the Yuletide signing of her bill, authorizing construction of veterans hospital facilities costing $15 950,000

She invited a group of disabled veterans to join in a celebration Christmas dinner with her and her mother—a gay dinner, indeed, with many colorful favors—and prepared to spend Christmas morning touring hospital wards.

NECKLACE STOLEN BUT PASTE REPLICA'S SAFE

LONDON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Norman M. Gray of Kensington was too careful when she left for a holiday trip in the Mediterranean. Fearing that she might lose her $15,000 pearl necklace she had a paste replica made to take on the voyage, leaving the genuine article behind. She returned to discover that the necklace was stolen, along with other articles of jewelry valued at another $10,000.

BURKE SUSPECT HELD IN ARIZONA

Nogales Sheriff Rearrests Man Once Released

Resemblance to Gunman of Chicago Fame Seen

Posse Takes Fugitive Near Mexican Border

NOGALES (Ariz.) Dec. 24. (AP)—A man believed by Sheriff Patterson to be Fred Burke, wanted in Chicago for questioning in connection with the St Valentine's Day gang massacre there, was captured in the hills west of here by the Sheriff and deputies late today.

Sheriff Patterson, a few hours after the man under the name of J. P. Barton had been released here, found that a photograph of Fred Burke on a Chicago police bulletin bore striking resemblance to his late prisoner.

Barton or Burke and a companion were arrested last night on suspicion of rum running. The man giving his name as Barton was allowed to go when it did not immediately develop that there were any charges against him.

As soon as Patterson discovered the possibility that his prisoner may have been Burke he spread a cordon of deputies over his territory and shortly located the man in the hills near the Mexican line. He was brought back to Nogales under guard.

NINE APPOINTED TO CODE BOARD

Commission to Make Study of Law Classification

Membership Split Between North and Southland

Three Angelenos Honored by Gov. Young

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 24. (AP)—Gov. Young today announced the appointment of nine members of the Code Commission, created by the 1929 Legislature to begin a research into the best methods of codifying California laws.

The appointees are Thomas C. Ridgway, Los Angeles, former president and now a director of the State Bar of California; Maurice E. Harrison, president of the San Francisco Bar Association; Guy R. Crump, president of the Los Angeles Bar Association and a former judge; A. M. Kidd, professor in the school of jurisprudence, University of California; Leonard B. Slossen, Los Angeles, director of the State barr of California; Perry Evans, Berkeley, member of the Commonwealth Club and a San Francisco attorney; Gerald M. Hagar, Oakland attorney; Howard Surr, San Bernardino, and Clark Clement, attorney of Lemoore.

In announcing the appointments, Gov. Young said that for the convenience of the commission its members have been appointed from the larger centers of population and also have been equally divided between north and south sections of the State. The latter was done in order that the commission may function, if it so desires, as a local subcommittee, with frequent conferences and less frequent meetings of the commission as a whole.

Fred B. Wood, chief of the legislative counsel bureau, will serve as secretary of the commission by enactment of the Legislature.

The Governor said that the commission probably will proceed along lines to determine whether general laws should be arranged as codes or new codes made or whether the laws should be grouped according to the subjects they treat.

WHAT THEY KNOW NOBODY'S BUSINESS

State Department Aides Earn Trip by Keeping Mum

The large female contingent going to the London naval disarmament conference with the American delegation consists principally of stenographers. Here is the State Department group. They are, left to right, seated, Miss Adele Dix, Miss Vernita Bronson, Miss Hurley S. Fiske. Standing, left to right, Miss L. Adelaide Watson, Mrs. Pearl L. DeMaret, Miss Beatrice L. Comean and Miss Mildred V. Dieke.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Government officials have proved two important points concerning woman and in so doing have blasted that old theory that the female of the species is unable to keep a secret. Officials have proven that women not only can keep a secret, but they do; and it is also proven that it pays to keep secrets, especially if one is employed by the government.

Because of their ability to keep secrets several women employees of the government, are going to get a trip to London. They will form the female contingent from the United States to the London naval disarmament conference, which opens January 15. They are, in the main, stenographers. Besides personal stenographers for the American representatives the State Department will send seven.

ONE KILLED AND TRIO HURT IN AUTO CRASH

WOODLAND, Dec. 24. (AP)—Dan H. Smith, 63 years of age, rancher of the Sacramento region, was killed and three others were injured near here today when the car in which they were driving to Oakland skidded and overturned. The injured are Mrs. Smith, R. L. Griffiths, Alameda county dairy inspector, who is a son-in-law, and Griffiths's small son Robert.

SHEARER QUIZ AGAIN DELAYED

Committee Member Going to London Conference

Interest in Asserted Naval Lobby Fading Out

Threat Expected to Shield Coming Parley

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Continuance of the investigation by the Shortridge Senate committee into the activities of William B. Shearer at the Geneva naval conference in 1927 faces another long delay and despite assurances that it positively will be reopened little is happening to justify staking anything more valuable than a box of matches on the assurances.

Only one member of the committee is showing any apparent eagerness to continue the investigation and go on to a clarification of some of the conflicting testimony, and to a rigid study of the attitude of certain American naval officers who were advisers at Geneva. The other two members advance a continuing stream of reasons why it must be delayed.

SEVERAL REASONS GIVEN

The current reason is that Senator Robinson of Arkansas, one of the members of the committee, will be starting for the London naval conference January 10. Before the date of the naval conference was fixed the member of the committee who has been pressing for action said that the investigation would be reopened a couple of weeks before the naval conference began and was being delayed until that time because it was thought a reopening then would have a very salutary effect upon people who might be hanging around London during the 1930 conference.

That was explained at the time as the "real" reason for delay, although the official reason was the interest of all the members of the committee in the tariff bill. Now the "real" reason is explained as the decision that by waiting until after the London naval conference and thus keeping the committee officially in existence the fact that it could reassemble at any time would be a deterrent upon anyone contemplating any unwarranted efforts to influence or affect the outcome at London.

There is a suspicion in many quarters in Washington that after the London naval conference is over, unless new and compelling reasons for reopening the investigation develop, the members of the committee will be too busy with appropriation bills and other legislation to bother with Mr. Shearer or naval officers.

REPORT PROBLEMATICAL

And when a formal report will be made by the committee is a very problematical matter.

Already considerable damage has been done by the committee to those who were involved in the investigation. Shearer is explaining to the Bureau of Internal Revenue why he did not file an income-tax report. Frederick P. Palen, vice-president of the Newport News Shipbuilding Company for the last twelve or fifteen years, and an employee of the company thirty-five years, has resigned. Persons close to the shipbuilders say they are worried about getting further contracts from the government for the remaining ten ships to be built under the terms of the fifteen-cruiser bill. And Shearer, who complained that he was jobless before the committee finally adjourned indefinitely, is awaiting the outcome of his suit for $257,000 "back pay" and spending his time lecturing on what really happened at Geneva, writing a book about his twenty years in public life and writing letters to the Internal Revenue Bureau.

LOVE LAWS GO HAYWIRE

New Yorker Gets Permission of First Wife and Note from Son of Second Mate to Rewed

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—When a man has to get the consent of his wife, and a character testimonial from the son of his second wife before he can take on a third mate, the business of marriage becomes complicated. Such, however, were the requirements set before Prentice Strong, rich broker and clubman, member of the swanky Tuxedo Park set, when he applied for a license to wed Miss Ruth Curtis Hill, society girl of Worcester, Mass., in her home town.

The Massachusetts authorities turned his application down. They recalled the New York State law's stipulation that the defendant in a divorce cannot marry during the life of the former mate, and pointed out that Massachusetts recognizes that law.

So Strong dashed back to New York and obtained the signed consent of his ex-wife No. 1, Mrs. Helen T. O. Strong. But his attorneys told him he also must have character witnesses, so he obtained affidavits from Rockwell Du Moulin, Columbia student and step-son by his second marriage, to Mrs. Ethel Du Moulin, who died last year, and from his own society matron mother, Mrs. Martha Strong. Armed with these he faced Justice Tompkins in White Plains Supreme Court today and induced him to void the stipulation in the decree he granted Strong's first wife that the husband could not marry during her lifetime.

All this could have been avoided by Strong's remarrying in a State which does not recognize the New York divorce law, but Miss Hill insisted upon a home wedding.

TWO SUPERVISORS ACCUSED OF FRAUD

AUBURN, Dec. 24. (AP)—Charging they collected "in excess of $17,000" illegally from the county by wilfully and fraudulently presenting claims. Dist.-Atty. Lowell filed suit in the Placer county Superior Court today against Supervisors William Haines and M. C. Langstaff, seeking return of the money. It is asserted that Haines transacted business with the county through his blacksmith shop and that Langstaff had large business transactions with the county through a stage company in which he is interested.

FRENCH INDULGE IN BUYING ORGY

Prosperity Reflected in Christmas Trade

Holiday Season Wettest and Gayest Since War

Middle Classes Pinched by Soaring Prices

PARIS, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—French prosperity being what it is, Paris is passing the wettest and gayest, if not the most expensive, Christmas Eve since the war. Heedless of the soaring prices, the Parisian has fallen to with great gusto to keep up the tradition that makes Christmas Eve in France what New Year's Eve is in the Anglo-Saxon world.

France had no Wall-street crash. Unemployment is practically nonexistent and the economists, in drawing up the annual reports, predict that France again will top all the other countries of the world on the point of prosperity. Prices are going up by leaps and bounds and the middle class of Paris is undoubtedly hard put to make both ends say how-de-do. But the department stores and the luxury shops report an orgy of pre-Christmas spending, and if traffic jams mean anything in the shopping district around the Opera in the afternoons for more than a week, they confirm these reports.

SPANISH FAMILY ALL IN CHURCH

Former Deputy Made Priest Like Sons, as Wife Joins Daughters in Convent

GRANADA (Spain) Dec. 24. (AP)—When former Deputy Conde Aldama says his first mass in a convent at Seville, following his ordination as a priest by Archbishop Cardinal Casanova here, his wife will take her religious vows in the same convent, in which two daughters have been nuns for several years.

Three sons of the new priest, who are Jesuits, will help him say mass at Seville.

It was necessary for the former Deputy and his wife to obtain special papal dispensation to become priest and nun, respectively.

British Tariff Truce Opposed

LONDON, Dec. 24. (AP)—William Graham, president of the Board of Trade, informed the House of Commons today that India, Australia and South Africa have refused to participate in the negotiations for a general tariff truce conducted under the auspices of the League of Nations.

The government refused to adopt the suggestion that these proposals be discussed only after the imperial economic conference had been held.

GAS MAN KILLS LATE CUSTOMER

Tupman Oil Worker Knocks at Station at 2 a.m.

Operator Opens Fire With Gun Through Window

Tragedy Laid to Fear from Recent Hold-up Incident

TAFT, Dec. 24.—J. A. Stanfill, 36 years of age, Tupman oil worker, is dead, the victim of a tragic shotgun killing that left a widow and two fatherless youngsters on the day before Christmas, and W. C. Davidson is in the custody of Sheriff Cas Walser pending investigation of a shooting at the Heck Service Station, six miles northeast of here on the Bakersfield-Taft Highway, at 2 a.m. today.

Stanfill, en route home from his work in the oil fields, stopped at the darkened service station for gasoline. He pounded on the door, officers learned, and awakened Davidson. The latter, fearing bandits, ordered him away and when Stanfill refused to leave, took a .20-gauge shotgun and, aiming through a window, shot the man in the neck. The wounded man staggered back toward his machine, but fell dead at the side of the highway.

Such is the story gleaned from Davidson and members of his family by Officer Joe Reynolds of the State Highway Patrol, and Officer Elsworth Geary of this city, who first investigated the shooting.

But back of the tragedy enacted in the fog is a plot that only diabolical fate could have conceived. It goes back a week or more when an unknown bandit held up the service station owner and gave him the "fright of a lifetime." A bandit knocked at the door of the Heck station and Davidson, thinking a stranded motorist was in need of gasoline, opened the door. As he did so a man jammed a revolver against Davidson's body and demanded money. Davidson refused and was ordered to "walk down the road with me." He thought he was to be killed, but a few minutes later the robber fled without obtaining any money.

Then this morning fate sent Stanfill, hard-working laborer, hurrying home to his wife and youngsters and caused him to stop under circumstances similar to those surrounding the hold-up. He never arrived home. Instead his body lies in the Taft Undertaking Parlor awaiting an inquest.

Davidson is quoted as saying he was badly frightened when Stanfill pounded upon the door, and ordered him away, but the motorist refused to leave. "Get away from that door or I'll fill you full of lead," he said he told the stranger. Then he is said to have taken the shotgun and fired through the window at the shadowy figure outside.

TOMAHAWK GIVEN SENATE CHIEF

Pages Believe Curtis Should Use Indian Weapon To Keep Peace

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Emblematic of his early life among the Indians, Vice-President Curtis today was presented with a tomahawk with which to keep peace in the Senate.

The presentation was made at the annual Christmas dinner given by the Vice-President to the eighteen Senate pages.

Dressed in full Indian regalia, Frank Kearney, a youngster from Pennsylvania, presented the tomahawk to Mr. Curtis with a statement that the pages believed there was need for a "more effective implement" to enforce order in the Senate.

MEXICO HAS NEW BEAUTY MURDER QUIZ

San Luis Potosi's Queen Held in Stabbing of State Deputy in Hotel Room

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 24. (AP)—Closely following the acquittal of Marie Teresa De Landa, "Miss Mexico" at the Galveston beauty pageant in 1928, on a charge of murder in connection with the shooting of her husband, another beauty queen, Sara Velarde, has been accused of a similar crime.

Miss Velarde, selected last year as the most beautiful girl in San Luis Potosi, was taken into custody following discovery of the body of Timoteo B. Guerrero, State Deputy, with a dagger in the heart, in a hotel room in the State capital.

Newspaper reports from San Luis Potosi said Guerrero took a room in a hotel there with Miss Velarde, and after his body was found the next morning the girl was apprehended trying to escape. She denied having killed him, saying he committed suicide.

A jury acquitted "Miss Mexico" early this month. She confessed she shot her husband, Gen. Moises Vidal, to death, but said she turned the pistol on him only when he attempted to prevent her shooting herself after she had learned he had another wife.

Chicago Holds Snores' Duet Peace Breach

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (AP)—David Kaaen and Walter Linquist were fined $5 each and costs yesterday for snoring, strange though it may seem.

There is no law against snoring but Mr. and Mrs. Arthur May felt there should be. Night after night, they said, their slumbers were disturbed by such snoring as is seldom heard. At last they had Kaaen and Linquist called before Judge Luster.

"There is no law against snoring," said Judge Luster, "but there is a law against disturbing the peace. The price will be $5 and costs. Furthermore I appoint each of you guardian for the other. When one hears the other snoring he shall punch him in such a manner as to cause said snoring to come to a sudden termination."

Seizing Alcohol Products Given Court Sanction

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 24. (AP)—The right of police to seize alcoholic products believed to be destined for illicit channels was upheld today by the Common Pleas Court which overruled an injunction issued by Judge McDevit, restraining the police from making such seizures on the highway.

The injunction was issued last July against Dist.-Atty. Monaghan and the bureau of police. The jurist held it to be illegal to seize perfumes, hair tonics and other toilet preparations containing alcohol which police believed were to be converted into beverages.

Arizona Plans New Highways

PHOENIX, Dec. 24. (AP)—A six months' road program, including expenditure of more than $400,000 in Southern Arizona and nearly $300,000 in the northern part of the State, has been announced by the Arizona Highway Department, which will spend $2,054,317.07 on construction and repair contracts over the entire State during the first half of next year.

ANCIENT HOME CALLS CHINESE

Residents in United States Leaving, Says Editor

Hopes of Own Republic Turn Thoughts Across Sea

American-Educated Oriental Talks on Country

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (AP)—The dream of a new China, where each man will be a sovereign citizen, as he is in the United States, is causing the Chinese in America to return to their homeland by thousands, Dr. Churchill T. Chiu, editor of the Chinese Times here, told the Associated Press today. Dr. Chi said that in the last ten years the Chinese population of the United States has been reduced from approximately 100,000 to about 60,000, and that in the not for distant future there will be only a handful left.

This new China, said the editor, is and will continue to be as different from the traditional China of pigtails, bound feet and pidgin English as anything it is possible to imagine. Chiu is recognized as an authority on his country by both Chinese and Americans here. He is only 32 years of age, but he has a career behind him as well as probably ahead of him.

Regardless of whether Chiang Kai-Shek and his right wing of the Kuomintang (Pople's party) survive and even regardless of whether the Kuomintang, which now controls the Nationalist government, survives, Dr. Chiu is certain that China will cling to democracy after trying it for nearly nineteen years.

The factions of China, the editor says, are agreed, regardless of partisan politics, that China must first of all become a strong, united democracy that will command respect in the West. Then, such questions as whether Barga or some other province shall turn soviet with Russian encouragement will solve themselves.

To gain and retain such a position the editor says it will be necessary to continue the work of reducing illiteracy. Unknown generally, he said, China has been acquiring a universal language, Mandarin. This is being taught everywhere with the result that all educated persons speak it and the Pekingese who meets a man from Canton in Shanghai no longer has to write his conversation, talk pidgin English or use an interpreter.

Santa Claus Makes Visit to Juvenile Hall

Santa Claus came to Juvenile Hall last night. The patron saint of childhood found a great tree all decked and made beautiful for his arrival, the work of the inmates themselves. A program was held and every child in the institution was given a gift. Early today Santa Claus and his friends will visit the children in isolation.

Numerous organizations aided in making the affair a success. Following a turkey dinner for guests the children and the staff, a group of children in costume under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Tarnutzer gave Constance Mackay's playet, "On Christmas Eve." Peter Pan, Wendy, Alice in Wonderland and other notables appeared. Christmas carols were sung by girls from the Juvenile Hall and then a 5-year-old told a Christmas story.

At 7 o'clock last evening the Ephebian Society went with Santa Claus and his pack, which contained a gift for each child in the institution. The Herald Carol Singers closed the day with Christmas music.

Early this morning Santa again will make his appearance at the hall and will visit the sick children. The following program will be observed today:

At 7 o'clock Catholic mass and song service; 9:30 o'clock, Swedish Tabernacle Choir; 10 o'clock, Catholic Big Brother's party and Christmas dinner at noon. In the afternoon there will be a Christmas play and a concert by carol singers followed by a weiner roast by all departments over bonfires in the garden.

Suicide Gas Wrecks House, Saves 'Victim'

John Kiley's attempt to commit suicide last night had an unexpected kick to it. According to police, just as things were getting along nicely via the gas route John lit a cigarette.

He was treated at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital for light burns about the face and hands and was booked on a charge of burglary and arson. The home of his asserted sweetheart, which he chose for the scene of his demise, was blown to pieces.

According to the University-street police Kiley, who gives his address as 906½ South Main street, forced his way into the home of Miss Marie Comby, 470 West Forty-fifth street. His romance was not going so good the police declare. He went to the bath room they assert, wrote two notes to Miss Comby, stuffed the cracks of the door with blankets, got into the bath tub and turned on the gas.

Apparently he did not think things were going fast enough and that he would have a last smoke. When he struck a match he was blown half way out of the house. One note said "Marie, I die for you. I love you, so help yourself in this world. Merry Xmas, Jno." The second note declared that he would see her in the next world.

RANCH HOME BURNS

HANFORD, Dec. 24.—The home of Robert Fincher, farmer, thirteen miles southwest of here, was destroyed by fire late yesterday. The origin has not been discovered. The property loss was about $3500 and it is said there was no insurance.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

A good old-fashioned Merry Christmas

Once a year it is our very pleasant privilege to pause in the hurry and rush of the last moments before Christmas—to extend to you, our friends, the greetings of the season.

We are sincere in this.

We wish we could speak to each of you personally. The next best thing is to speak through the columns of the newspapers.

We want you to realize that these are not mere words, printed here as a matter of course. They are a sincere expression of a genuine feeling.

This store is something more than a shopping place.

It is a great, human institution—there is a welcome in it, and a warmth of feeling that comes from sincerity of purpose.

The May Company is gratified to have been called on to give greater service to a larger number this year than ever before. We feel that this is a definite avowal of the confidence and good will of the Los Angeles public . . . and signifies their approval of May Company policies.

We shall endeavor always to be worthy of this trust.

Merry Christmas to All

THE SON OF TARZAN

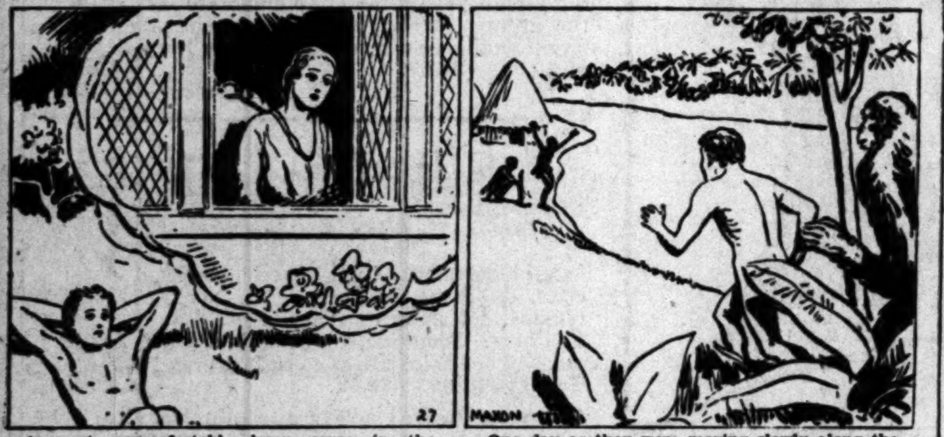
Copyright, 1929, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

After weeks of exposure came a toughening and hardening of his smooth, white skin, browning now beneath the sun and wind. He had removed his pajama jacket one one day to bathe in a little stream too small to harbor crocodiles. While he and Akut were disporting themselves in the cool waters, a monkey dropped down from the overhanging trees and scampered away with the boy's single remaining article of civilization.

For a time he was angry, but soon realized being half-clothed is more uncomfortable than being entirely naked, and he came to revel in the freedom of his unhampered state. Sometimes he would smile to imagine the surprise of his schoolmates could they but see him now. How they would envy him! He felt sorry for them even amid the comforts and luxuries of their English homes and happy with their mothers and fathers.



A most uncomfortable lump arose in the boy's throat as he thought of home and he saw a vision of his mother's face through a blur of mist that came unbidden to his eyes. Then it was that he urged Akut onward, for now they were headed westward for the coast. The old ape thought they were searching for a tribe of his kind, and the boy did not enlighten him as to his real plans when they would come to civilization.

One day as they were moving slowly along the banks of a river they came unexpectedly upon a native village. Some children were playing beside the water. The boy's heart leaped at sight of them—for over a month he had seen no human being. Even if they were black-skinned, were they not fellow-creatures? He started toward them. Akut laid a warning hand upon his arm to hold him back, but he shook himself free and ran forward with a shout of greeting.

'RIP VAN WINKLE' ASTOUNDED

Robert Harris After Thirty-two Years in Alaska Goes Back to Downey Hunting Old Friends, But They're Scarce in Bustling Modern Town

BY ROBERT HARRIS

[Robert Harris, who was reared in Los Angeles but answered the call of the gold lure in 1898, has just returned to Los Angeles after an absence of thirty-two years. Here are some of his reactions. This is the third article to appear in The Times.]

Yesterday I had my real Rip Van Winkle experience. I spent a few hours in Downey, where I lived for six years in the '80's.

It is hard to give a word picture of the old Downey I knew. Wooden buildings, dirt streets, very simple frame homes and a people wholly given to farming and catering to farmers' needs. Today I find it modern, with paved streets, pretty, up-to-date homes and carried on by an entirely new generation of people from the one I left behind.

A bitterness came over me when I first glanced at the main corners where saloons stood in the old days. Involuntarily I looked there for the sight of a familiar figure. A bank was on one corner and a mercantile store on the other. I stood a long time and gazed, conjuring from the past the teams and spring wagons that used to bring to these corners, with their badly gnawed hitching racks, the farmers and their wives to do their trading. Sometimes the wives did not come along, and it was not an uncommon sight to see teams at midnight gnawing at the rails and patiently awaiting the coming of their owners. Those teams knew the way home and only asked their owners to leave the lines alone and they would do the rest.

OLD-TIMER FOUND

At last I found an old-timer. He was loitering about a filling station that occupies the space where once stood a harness shop. I think this same old-timer was loitering in front of the harness shop the day I left Downey, forty years ago. I said to him, "Hello!" He looked at me a little suspiciously. "Don't you know me?" I inquired. He hiccoughed and blinked his eyes. "Are you a government agent?" he came back, trying the best he could to efface the signs of recent imbibing. "Let's go over to Dave Smart's and have a drink," I said. He blinked again. Dave Smart's body had lain in the grave for years, and I guess he was wondering just where we would go if we were to reach Dave.

But the old fellow was full of information. One after one he detailed the passing of those for whom I inquired, until he fairly emptied the old town of those I loved and with whom I played the game of life.

In those old buggy-riding days the principal events of our lives were the hiring of horses and buggies and taking girls for Sunday rides. The rubber tires had not come into use yet, and it was a great treat to have the keeper give you the one buggy that didn't rattle so badly that every other fellow in town would be telling you next day about hearing you drive along a certain street the night before.

NOTABLE EVENTS

Another event that was almost a milepost in our lives was the coming to Los Angeles of a theatrical troupe large enough for the railroads to run excursions. The trains would start from Santa Ana and pick up the folk along the way, carrying us back after the performance. One of these occasions in particular was the coming of Sousa's Band. It was a mark of distinction in the '80s around a small town to be known as one who patronized these affairs of culture, so many of us spent our money not wholly for the love of the classical but to be known as that kind of person.

I belonged to a brass band at the time and Downey was certainly proud of that band, so I felt it my place to absorb more culture and came with the crowd. I can't remember where the band played that night, but I do remember the classical music bored me terribly and I compared it very unfavorably with the tunes the Downey band was able to render. By the way, that Downey band came to grief on a night before a Fourth of July celebration at which it was to play.

POWDER SHOOTING

We had been practicing and along about midnight we laid our horns aside and breaking 'im Townsend's blacksmith shop open we carried the two anvils to the street and proceeded to shoot off some five pounds of powder Jim Reeves had bought during the day. (He afterward became a Superior Court judge of Los Angeles county.) The thing didn't work just right so we all gathered around the anvils to tell the other fellows how to do it when the whole five pounds of powder, carried in a paper bag, exploded. Old Dr. Smith, a great soul, worked over us all the rest of the night, swathing our faces and hands in linseed oil and lime water, but to no avail, for there were only three members of the band able to play next day and from that on the band slowly disintegrated, owing mostly to the girls of Downey taking up with new fellows during the period our skins were blackened. We quit the band to spite them.

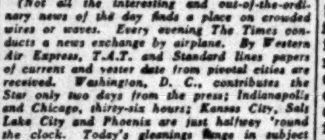
I was able to find in Downey only four persons who have survived the thirty-two years I spent in Alaska. The rest have gone the way of flesh or moved away. The new generation like that running Los Angeles, seems to me to be better fitted for its responsibilities than mine was. I think those doing things today have a larger vision than we did; certainly the girls are giving the men a larger vision.

While I have mentioned the girls I will try and give the impressions your modern young women make on a man who for three decades has seen very little of them, not counting Eskimo women.

Like Will Rogers, all I know about modern women is what I have seen in the pictures and as new pictures only come to my section of Alaska once a year, my education has been very slow. We have to go fifty miles from my section to reach a place where pictures are shown. To us they all are good and many an old sourdough is but awaiting the day when he strikes pay dirt rich enough to come out here and lay his wealth at the feet of his favorite star. Long ago he learned to love her secretly and worship her innocent self wholly for her self's sake.

From what I have seen with my own eyes of the modern girl, and I have been able to see much of her, she's all right. Of course, with her outfit on she'd freeze her legs off in my country. Your modern girl of today has much ruddier lips and whiter skin than the Los Angeles girl of forty years ago. She must be healthier.

AIRPLANE NEWS EXCHANGE



(Not all the interesting and out-of-the-ordinary news of the day finds a place on crowded wires or waves. Every evening The Times conducts a news exchange by airplane. By Western Air Express, T.A.T. and Standard lines papers of current and vester date from pivotal cities are received. Washington, D. C., contributes the Star only two days from the press; Indianapolis and Chicago, thirty-six hours; Kansas City, Salt Lake City and Phoenix are just halfway 'round the clock. Today's gleanings range in subject from an account of how the cold weather in Washington, D. C., has forced the closing of several schools and institutions, to a report of how the mountain regions of Arizona near Tucson are being restocked with wild turkey and Kaibab deer for the 1930 season.)

TOO COLD

Washington (D. C.) Star, Dec. 21.

One of the national capital's two schools for crippled children was closed for an indefinite period yesterday because of the cold.

The building's antequated heating plant, which District inspectors passed as adequate and in good condition at the opening of school in September, simply quit working and despite roaring fires in the grates of the furnace the maximum temperature which was recorded in the warmest rooms was 55 deg.

NO! NO!

Albuquerque Journal, Dec. 24.

Tom Hughes is going to be traffic solicitor for the highway department. All the traffic he can solicit or divert this way will be thankfully received, even if we have to hire a new traffic cop.

BAD LIGHTS

Salt Lake Tribune, Dec. 24.

State traffic officers were instructed Saturday to spend five hours each night ridding the highways of one-light automobiles and those with defective lights.

Motorists have complained that as many as one in every three automobiles had only one light going, the department of law enforcement said.

Although stating that this estimate was probably too high, the department said that the work during the next few weeks must be devoted mainly to correcting this condition and prosecuting offenders.

CHICAGO RHAPSODY

Chicago Tribune, Dec. 22.

"Will you be so good as to drive off the track?" asked the motorman; and the truck driver promptly pulled over to one side.

"Thank you, ever and ever so much," added the motorman with a smile. "You're a perfect dear."

"You're very welcome," said the truck driver, "but you must pardon my seeming carelessness; I really had no idea your car was so near. Aren't I the silly old thing!"

HOUN' DOGS

Kansas City Times, Dec. 24.

"Don't sneer at the houn' dog," says the Winfield Courier. "He's a producer. Houn' dogs earned $2,500,000 for their owners last year by catching fur-bearing animals."

Well, says Jack Harris, if the Courier will bring one fur-bearing animal caught by a houn' dog, we'll wipe off that sneer. Otherwise we'll stand by the statement that the city of Winfield isn't big enough to hold $5 worth of houn' dogs.

NO SPLASH

Kansas City Star, Dec. 24.

Percy Shivers, prominent Scandia contractor, was unable to go rowing Sunday after the Lens editor's wife whanged into a pair of oars Percy had sticking out from his brand-new Buick. But we feel it was worth the $2.50 to possess the only car ever to bust a pair of oars on the streets of Belleville.

SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

PANAMA MAIL'S PROGRAM TOLD

Details of New Mexican West Coast Line Given

Announcement Given Out by Freight Traffic Head

Inauguration of Service Set for Start March 1

BY WALDO DRAKE

Complete details of the new service to be established next March 1 along the Mexican west coast by the Panama Mail Line were brought back from Mexico City yesterday by Guy E. Buck, freight-traffic manager of the Panama Mail Steamship Company, arriving from Mazatlan aboard the company's liner Colombia. Mr. Buck's conferences with the Mexican government followed an adventurous surveying cruise of the entire Mexican coast from Guaymas to the Guatemalan border, on which he had several close calls with death.

GUY E. BUCK

Twenty-two west coast ports will be served by the new service on a fortnightly frequency, the service being inaugurated by the steamer Corinto and one other vessel to be acquired. The two ships will ply in coastwise trade exclusively, their cargoes being transferred to and from Panama Mail offshore liners at Mazatlan or Manzanillo. Negotiations with the Mexican government, in which final papers will be signed immediately after January 1, next, provide that the Panama Mail Line acquires the good will and concessions of the government-operated Mexican Navigation Line, with the proviso that the Mexican government agrees to establish no other service in competition. Ports of call will include San Jose del Cabo, La Paz, Muleje, Isla del Carmen, Santa Rosalia, Guaymas, Yavaros, Topolobampo, Altata, Santa Teresa, Mazatlan, San Blas, Puerto Vallarta, Chemela, Manzanillo, Sizuatanejo, Acapulco, Tecanapa, Minizo, Puerto Escondido, Puerto Angel and Salina Cruz.

Mr. Buck stressed the fact that establishment of the new line would make Los Angeles Harbor and San Francisco centers of distribution and dispatch for the entire commerce of the Mexican west coast and that industrial life of Western Mexico will be greatly stimulated thereby. Mexican exports via the new service will consist chiefly of grain, cotton, timber, beans and minerals.

Mr. Buck's successful negotiations for the new service were carried out with Secretary of the Treasury Montes de Oca and Secretary of Commerce and Public Works Sanchez Mejorada, with the assistance of United States Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow. In withdrawing its present coastwise service, the Mexican government has agreed to scrap or otherwise dispose of the four steamers of the Mexican Navigation Line.

DIMON LINE PLANS FASTER FREIGHTERS

Increase in the speed of its seven intercoastal freighters from eleven knots to twelve knots by installation of Oertz streamline rudders was announced yesterday by the Dimon Line in advices from New York headquarters received by Charles G. Krueger, district agent for the line.

The change has already been made on the steamer Pacific Oak, with complete success, a new rudder is being installed on the Pacific Spruce at a New York shipyard and the other five Dimon Line vessels will be equipped as they go to the yard for periodic overhaul. Dimon Line's action follows that of the Luckenbach Line in equipping its recently purchased steamers Neponset and Kelvinia, ex-Deerfield, with Oertz rudders.

Christmas greetings were received by port shipping men yesterday from George C. Tanner, veteran San Pedro ship supply man who is now living in London as the European representative of his firm. Mr. Tanner's address is 23-A Devere Gardens, W.-8, London.

Copies of the annual report of the Commissioner of Lighthouses, George R. Putnam, were received at the harbor yesterday. Outstanding feature of the report is the disclosure of the unusual development of electrical equipment in neutralizing the fog menace to shipping along American coast lines.

The United States Lighthouse Service will start the new year with 19,001 distinct navigation aids in operation, a gain of 394 for the year. During the present year the lighthouse service assumed the responsibility of lighting the airways of the nation and now has aerial aids to navigation over 10,183 miles of airways, has lighted 4200 miles and maintains this service over seventeen distinct routes.

Calmar Line officials yesterday announced the new names for the five Planet Line freighters recently purchased from the United States Steel interests. Ships and new names are Corvus, to be the Flormar; Clauseus, the Losmar; Centaurus, the Portmar; Eurana, the Alamar, and the Circinus, renamed the Vermar.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (AP)—The steamer Annette Rolph, formerly owned by Mayor James Rolph, Jr., and which is tied up at Antioch, may soon be sold to a Mexican company and be fitted for the carrying of passengers and cargo, J. B. McDonald, owner of the vessel announced here today. McDonald spiked reports that the Annette Rolph is to be dismantled, and said that when she is fixed up, she will be able to carry between forty and fifty passengers.

The liner Belgenland, largest of world-cruising liners and the only one to follow a westerly course, is due here on January 7 after making a stop at Los Angeles. The Belgenland has 400 passengers booked for the cruise, among the number being fifty Californians who will embark at Los Angeles. While in San Francisco the liner will take aboard sixty-five more passengers.

SEATTLE, Dec. 24.—Sale of the Rothschild Stevedoring Company of Seattle and its subsidiary, the Brown and McCabe Company of Portland, to the Jones Stevedoring Company of the Columbia River, is expected to be made soon, officials of the Rothschild company revealed today.

The deal is said to be one of the most important in stevedoring circles in recent years as the Jones company is a pioneer concern of the Northwest. This will be the first time that the Portland firm has extended its operations north of the Columbia River.

The Rothschild firm recently took over the Brown and McCabe concern on the Columbia River.

Crash Death of Woman to be Investigated

A Coroner's inquest into the death of Mrs. C. F. Gilmore, 67 years of age, of Audubon Park, Sierra Madre, who died at the Sierra Madre Hospital last Monday, is scheduled to be conducted today at 9:30 a.m. at the Turner and Stevens Mortuary, Pasadena.

Mrs. Gilmore, according to a Sheriff's office report, was injured in an automobile accident on the first inst., when a car driven by her husband is asserted to have collided with one driven by Elsie Stewart of Elsinore at Sierra Madre and Foothill boulevards.

Loubet Given Simple Rites

MONTELIMAR (France) Dec. 24. (AP)—Without pomp or ceremony, former President Loubet was buried today with the simplest rites of the Catholic Church from which the French state was separated during his term of office.

There was no music and no flowers and just one speech, by M. Maraud, who said: "President Loubet, a great, unemotional Frenchman, with staid and sober judgment negotiated the most difficult times the third republic ever faced outside of the great war."

MEXICANS DETAIN BOLIVIAN WRITER

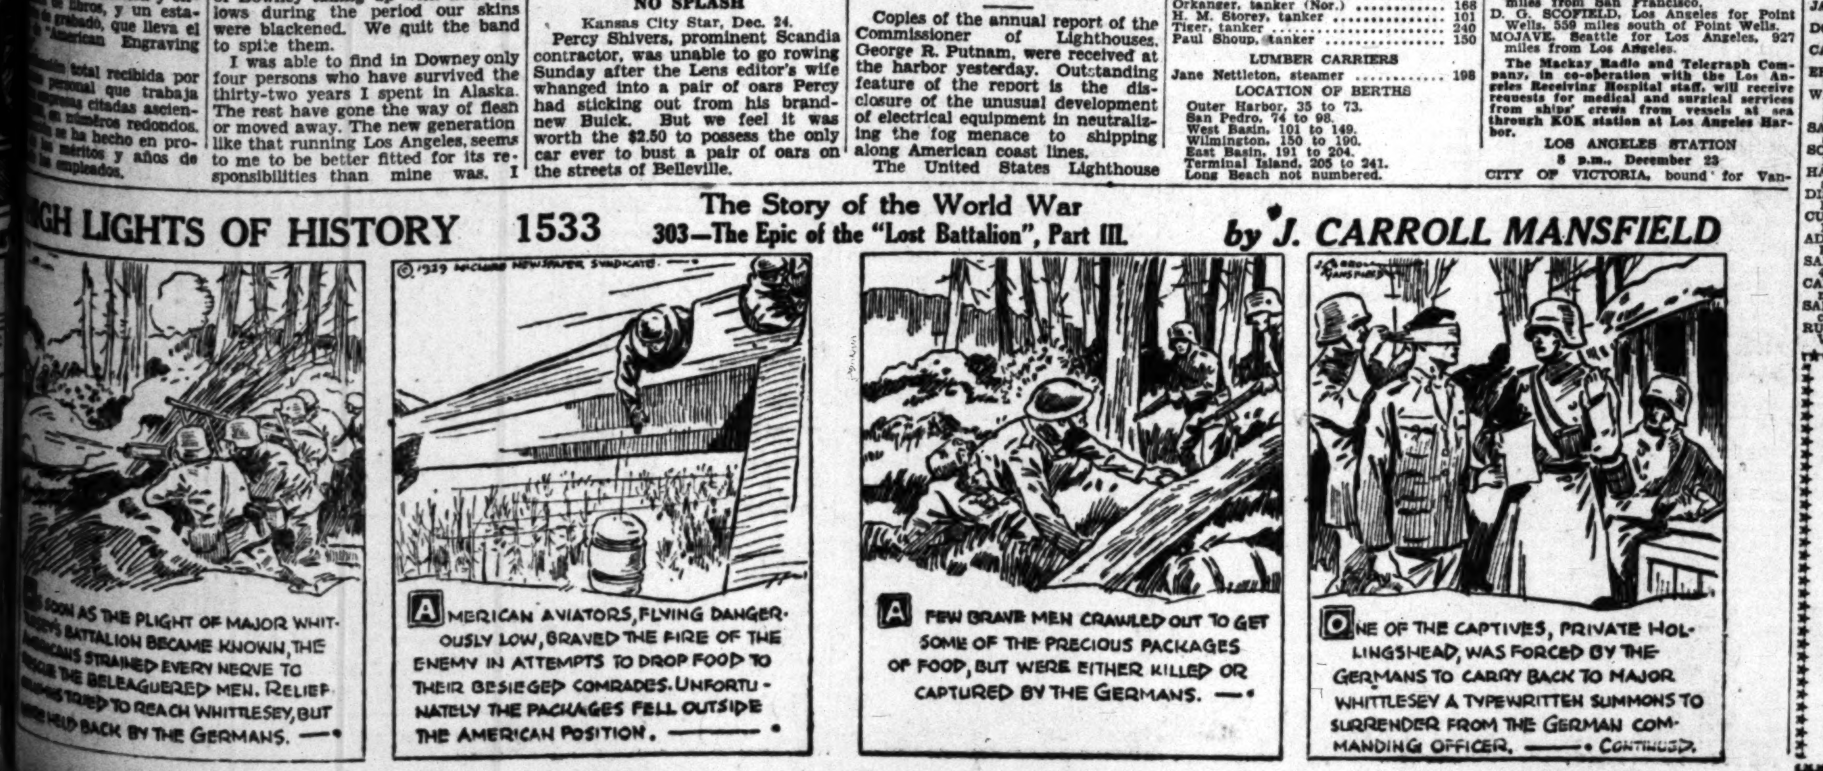
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY 1533

The Story of the World War
303—The Epic of the "Lost Battalion", Part III.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD



AS SOON AS THE PLIGHT OF MAJOR WHITTLESEY'S BATTALION BECAME KNOWN, THE AMERICANS STRAINED EVERY NERVE TO RESCUE THE BELEAGUERED MEN. RELIEF COLUMNS TRIED TO REACH WHITTLESEY, BUT WERE HELD BACK BY THE GERMANS.

AMERICAN AVIATORS, FLYING DANGEROUSLY LOW, BRAVED THE FIRE OF THE ENEMY IN ATTEMPTS TO DROP FOOD TO THEIR BESIEGED COMRADES. UNFORTUNATELY THE PACKAGES FELL OUTSIDE THE AMERICAN POSITION.

A FEW BRAVE MEN CRAWLED OUT TO GET SOME OF THE PRECIOUS PACKAGES OF FOOD, BUT WERE EITHER KILLED OR CAPTURED BY THE GERMANS.

ONE OF THE CAPTIVES, PRIVATE HOLLINGSHEAD, WAS FORCED BY THE GERMANS TO CARRY BACK TO MAJOR WHITTLESEY A TYPEWRITTEN SUMMONS TO SURRENDER FROM THE GERMAN COMMANDING OFFICER. — CONTINUED.

YULE TRAM LINE FARES INCREASE

Yellow Car System Reports Gain in December

Decrease of 11 Per Cent for Eleven Months Shown

Traffic Under New Schedule Drops in September

Traffic over the yellow car lines beginning on the 1st inst. and continuing for the ensuing two weeks showed a substantial increase each day over the corresponding day a year ago, but from the 14th inst. to date has decreased slightly, indicating that the holiday business activity in Los Angeles began two weeks earlier than last year, according to a statement issued yesterday by the Los Angeles Railway Corporation.

"This early increase," officials stated, "leads us to believe that a healthier Christmas business was experienced this year than last despite a number of supposedly unfavorable factors to curtail the purchasing power of the consumer. Our survey of the leading department stores substantiates this theory."

VOLUME OFF SLIGHTLY

Street-car traffic for the eleven months closed November 30, last, totaled 265,514,618 passengers. This is a decrease from the same period last year, when 298,887,328 passengers were carried, a decline of 33,372,820 passengers, or about 11 per cent. The fare increase was instituted in October, 1923. Traffic over the busses owned by the railway increased about 45,000 passengers, to a total of 13,762,397 for the same period.

Comparing traffic under the new fare basis with the old, officials have chosen the month of September as a fair and equitable contrast when business activity is brisk and the schools open, etc. During this month under the higher fare, 23,178,728 passengers were carried, against 26,087,731 under the cheaper fare in September, 1928, which represents a decrease this year of 2,909,003 passengers, or about 11 per cent. During the same month 1,234,311 passengers were carried on the busses, an increase of 133,151, or 11 per cent. No account is taken of the traffic over the bus lines of the Los Angeles Motor Coach Company which is owned jointly by the Los Angeles Railway and the Pacific Electric Railway Company.

PROGRAM OUTLINED

The Los Angeles Railway Corporation recently announced that it would spend approximately $41,000,000 during the next three years, of which $5,000,000 will be for track and trolley extension with new equipment, provided its application for a 7-cent fare is sustained. While the Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision favorable to the road, the city of Los Angeles has asked for a rehearing.

During the last year more attention has been paid to increasing the efficiency of the lines, officials pointed out, and a new record has been made in the speed of operation. Statistics of the company show that the average rate of speed this year has been increased from 9.95 miles per hour to 10.3 miles per hour and plans have been drawn up looking toward a still greater increase. In 1923 the normal run was 9.65 miles per hour.

Other data issued by the company reveal that nearly 100,000 miles are traversed each day by the yellow cars. Last year the daily average was approximately 92,000 miles. The bus system, which was inaugurated in 1923, now travels 15,000 miles per day, against 12,000 miles last year.

British Concern to Change Set-up

LONDON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Directors of the British Controlled Oilfields, Ltd., intimated today they would propose a reorganization of the capital structure of the company. The directors stated that in order to expiate payments of dividends a readjustment of the capital account is necessary and they hope to bring forward a plan in the near future.

The annual report for the year closed, June 30, last, shows a credit profit and loss balance of £1,244,675 derived almost exclusively from the sale of crude oil production. There are considerable losses in concessions however, which are included in concessions suspenses account which now total £5,161,000.

Paramount Buys Theater Houses

RICHMOND (Va.) Dec. 24.—Reports circulated here recently that Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation had acquired a number of theaters from the Shenandoah Valley Theaters Corporation, were confirmed today by I. Weinburg, theatrical manager of Winchester, Va.

Fifteen theaters of the Shenandoah Theater Company have been sold to Paramount through its subsidiary, the Publix Theaters Corporation. The consideration was not announced, but it is understood to involve about $2,000,000. Shenandoah Valley Theaters is a subsidiary of Universal Pictures Corporation.

London Market Trading Light

LONDON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—The stock market had a cheerful tone today with business on an extremely small scale due to the absence of many members of the exchange. Shares of trans-Atlantic interest moved irregularly. Columbia Graphophone, Swedish Match and the tobacco, oil and traction groups were easier, while rubbers artificial silks, textiles and mining shares were dull. Ford Motors, Ltd., was quoted around £2 1-4 and International Nickel around 30 7-8.

The gilt-edged division had a firm tone. Foreign issues were quiet. Home rails were easy and Argentine rails irregular.

ARGENTINE BILLS ON LONDON MARKET

LONDON, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—The Argentine government has placed £5,000,000 5 3-4 per cent bills in the London market through the Barings & Morgan, Grenfell & Co. The bills are payable December 31, 1930. The Financial News understands that the Argentine government has undertaken, if it should be necessary, to ship gold to London expressly to cover the repayment of the bills.

BROKERAGE CHANGES DUE

Mergers and Sales Affecting Spring-street Houses Scheduled for Announcement January 1

BY EARLE E. CROWE

If any credence is to be attached to the rumors afloat on Spring street, the turn of the year will bring a number of important announcements affecting the brokerage and the investment houses in this city. The gossip intimates that several consolidations and outright purchases of stock houses already have been arranged, and will be announced as soon as the necessary permission is obtained from stock exchange authorities.

Even prior to the big break in the market there were developments to indicate that the narrowing down process was under way in the brokerage business. Some of the New York houses were the first to see the writing on the wall and worked out mergers whereby larger capital was provided, overhead reduced and more efficient personnel obtained. These early moves anticipated the time when the volume of flush-time business would fall off and when efficiency would be the deciding factor in determining the survival of the fittest.

NEW YORK FIRST

Since the break in the market the consolidations and purchases in the brokerage field have been wholesale in number, particularly in New York. Several of the old and established houses have split up, possibly because of unsatisfactory developments arising during the critical period, or because of the realization that much of the extra machinery taken on during the active market of the last several years would be deadweight in the slower times ahead.

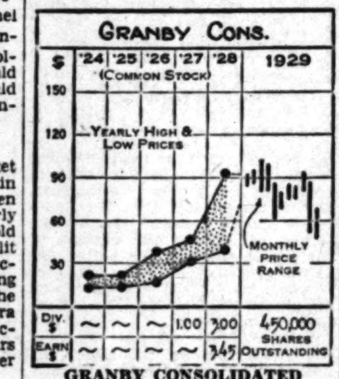
There is no doubt that the stock business will run along at a more even gait for the next year anyway, but at the same time it is also evident that the normal business expected for next year will be a much larger business that brokers even hoped to do in good times ten years ago. Two million and 4,000,000-share days should be the regular range of trading in 1930, while 1,000,000-share days were considered favorable not so very long ago.

In Los Angeles the stock houses have been slower to meet the new set of conditions. Relatively few changes have taken place to date, but it is likely that a number will be announced around January 1, all predicated on the idea that fewer and stronger institutions will give the best account of themselves in the immediate future.

One rumor mentions the outright sale of one New York Stock Exchange house maintaining head offices in Los Angeles. This concern has been one of the most successful in the last several years, but the managing partners, it is reported, are in a position to retire profitably. Another report states that a large investment house will dispose of the stock department it added a few years ago, having decided to confine its operations to the underwriting and distribution of bonds.

Several mergers of members of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange are reported, and several more local houses are mentioned in connection with absorptions by members of the New York Stock Exchange.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



GRANBY CONSOLIDATED

The Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company, Ltd., is engaged in the mining and smelting of gold, silver and copper, although copper is the most important of these. The principal properties are in British Columbia, where both mines and smelting plants are located. The Allenby Copper Company acquired in 1923 and later merged is now one of the company's principal producing interests.

Net income for the first nine months of 1929 amounted to $3,176,986 before depreciation, as compared with $2,196,213 for the corresponding period in 1928. Based on the present number of shares outstanding, this was equivalent to about $6.92 per share on the common stock in the 1929 period, as compared with $4.75 per share in 1928. The company is reported to be in strong financial condition, with working capital of more than $5,600,000 and reserve fund for depletion and depreciation of $2,368,000.

CAPITALIZATION

Funded debt	None
Capital stock ($100 par)	$45,000,065

Current Data: The quarterly dividend was recently raised to $2 per share, Chairman Amster stating at the time that the more liberal distribution was due to high current earnings and the fact that the company had practically completed its capital expenditures.

Nash President in Role of Santa

KENOSHA (Wis.) Dec. 24. (AP)—C. W. Nash, president of the Nash Motors Company, today personally distributed $815,000 in cash Christmas gifts among the employees of his company in the Kenosha, Racine and Milwaukee plants. Mr. Nash arranged to visit each of three plants and shook hands with each of the workers as he handed over their Christmas gifts.

No Nash employee was overlooked in the holiday distribution of money, the newest comers sharing proportionately with the oldest workers.

EQUITABLE TRUST PROGRAM RATIFIED

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) Stockholders of the Equitable Trust Company today ratified the plan whereby $25,000,000 in securities owned by the trust company, are to be transferred to the Equitable Corporation of New York. Equitable Corporation, in turn, will give its authorized capital stock to the amount of 2,500,000 shares no par value, to the trust company for pro-rata distribution among its stockholders.

DE HAVILAND AERO REPORTS EARNINGS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—De Haviland Aircraft Co., Ltd., reports net earnings for year ended September 30, 1929, were £49,000 or $238,358, equivalent to 58c per share on the total stock outstanding, or 79c per share on the average outstanding during the year. Regular dividend of 10 per cent was declared on old shares and 6 2-3 per cent on new shares. After payment of this dividend, both classes will share equally in dividends.

Foreign Bank Rates Lowered

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Bank of Denmark announced today a reduction of its discount rate from 5½ to 5 per cent. The previous rate had been in effect since September 26, last. The new rate goes into effect on the 27th inst.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Bank of Sweden announced today a reduction of ½ per cent in its discount rate. The reduction, which brings the rate down to 4½ per cent, will not be effective until February 1, next.

UTILITY EARNINGS SHOW SHARP GAIN

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) Commonwealth and Southern Corporation today reported for the twelve months ended November 30, last, consolidated net income of $23,353,265 after fixed charges and provision for retirement reserve, equal to 75 cents a share on 31,201,286 common shares outstanding at the close of the period, as compared with $18,186,602, or 58 cents a share on the same share basis in the 1923 period.

FORMATION OF WATER COMPANY APPROVED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—The California Railroad Commission has authorized the formation of the American States Water Service Company of California as the consolidation of approximately twenty independent Southern California water companies. Following the consolidation, the company is authorized to issue $3,001,400 of common stock.

FLORSHEIM SHOE NET EARNINGS POINT UP

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) Milton S. Florsheim, chairman of the Florsheim Shoe Company, stated today that the company would earn $5.92 a common share after all charges and preferred dividends for the fiscal year as compared with $5.25 a share for the previous year. The company's new plant for manufacture of women's welt shoes is beginning production.

ASSOCIATED GAS DECLARES EXTRA

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) Associated Gas and Electric Company today declared an extra dividend of 40 cents a share on Class A stock, payable in cash or in 2-125ths of a share of Class A stock. The dividend is payable February 1 to stock of record the 31st inst.

BOND MART ENDS YEAR FAVORABLY

New Offerings in 1930 Expected to Meet With Active Demand

As the new year nears, the bond market is in an exceptionally satisfactory condition as there are very few large issues in the market that remain to be absorbed and dealers have kept their inventories low, according to the quarterly review just released by Halsey, Stuart & Co. Consequently, it is pointed out, new offerings which are made in the early months of 1930 will not compete with any large amount of undigested bonds, while an active demand in the early part of the coming year will in all probability quickly clean up the best values.

The last two months of 1929 have seen the market for most classes of bonds growing gradually stronger, the review states. Lower money rates and the decline of speculative interest have been the principal factors in directing attention toward the attractive values in the bond market. Most of the buying has come from institutions and the more expert class of buyers. It is still possible to obtain many bonds which offer attractive combinations of security, liberal income and other desirable features.

Discussing the business situation the review says that "from a long-range viewpoint there can be little question that American industry and business are moving toward a greater future than anything we have yet seen. What has taken place during the latter months of 1929 has simply served to repeat the old lesson that sound progress cannot be made too rapidly.

Pointing out that ordinarily the public financing of corporations has been accomplished to a larger extent through bonds than through stock issues, the review in closing expresses the beleif that the usual relationship between bond and stock financing will probably be resumed in 1930.

Foshay Issues Statement on Utility Crash

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 24. (AP)—A detailed statement explaining phases of the affairs of the three companies he organized, which went into receivership November 1, was made today by W. B. Foshay of Minneapolis, in order, he said, "to clear up misunderstandings and rumors which have grown up since."

In particular, he referred to statements which he asserted have thrown him in the light of having been personally extravagant in conducting the business of the W. B. Foshay Company, the central holding company, the Public Utilities Consolidated Company, utilities operating concern and the Foshay Tower Corporation, owner of a recently completed building, the tallest in Minneapolis.

Mr. Foshay asserted that the records of his firms are complete and in good order and that they show clearly that except for inability to dispose of securities in October and reduced capacity for obtaining credit resulting from market conditions, the firm would have continued solvent. This, he declared, meets inferences he had privately gained from the company without sharing with the stockholders. He said that his personal fortune is tied up with the company.

Patrol Sent to Grapevine After Fog Takes Toll

Fog conditions in the vicinity of the Grapevine, a section of the State highway between Bakersfield and the Ridge Route, created a situation which required emergency action on the part of the State Highway Motor Patrol, it was revealed here yesterday. A fog area that spread over several miles made traffic conditions precarious and led to several serious accidents to motorists, according to word received here by Eugene Biscailuz, head of the motor patrol department.

More than a score of patrolmen assigned to duty in Riverside and Orange counties were dispatched to the Ridge Route and the territory north of that early yesterday by Biscailuz to assist motorists.

COFFEE CRISIS IN BRAZIL

Effort to Control Price by Financing Huge Surplus Faces Failure After Three-Year Test

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1929, by the North American Newspaper Alliance.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The coffee crisis in Brazil has been coming to a head for three years. Conditions have become so acute in South America that the Rio De Janeiro Coffee Exchange was closed. The Santos Coffee Bolsa also closed. This is the first time that the Bolsa exchange has closed in its history. The closing caused widespread depression among the coffee growers.

The carryover of coffee on the first of each month during the last three years has never been less than 4,000,000 bags. It has been up as high as 5,400,000 bags! On December 1, last, it was 4,978,801 bags.

United States coffee drinkers spend about $2.20 each year for raw coffee imported. And an additional sum to have it roasted, tinned and ground.

The great Atlantic and Pacific Company, which maintains not less than thirty coffee offices in South America, and sells approximately 2,750,000 pounds of coffee in the United States each week, recently reduced its coffee price by 4 cents a pound. This is a saving of $110,000 a week to those who purchase these brands. The Atlantic and Pacific is the largest coffee merchant in the world and sells more than one-tenth of all the coffee consumed in America.

If other merchants have done likewise, it means that American coffee consumers are paying $1,100,000 a week less for their coffee than they did six months ago.

Will the lower prices induce more to drink coffee? Brazil growers hope so. For more coffee drinkers mean more sales.

New York and London banks in the meantime have come to the rescue and advanced funds necessary to carry over the crop—without any wholesale coffee dumping on the world markets.

The situation is relieved but not solved.

Gold is leaving the country—plenty of it. Since November 1 the United States has sent out $85,000,000. This loss has had no effect on tightening credit yet. The movement, however, is much heavier than was anticipated. It was expected that some gold would leave the country. Perhaps $300,000,000 before June 1. With a fourth of that amount already lost, the total before the outward movement is over may exceed that figure.

But this is not a distressing situation. To the student who understands it, it is a very helpful factor. Some seem anxious over it because of its tendency to cause contraction of credit at a time when easy credit is needed. But we are a long way from that point today. No one need fear credit stringency because of any gold export which has taken place or which is likely to take place in the next six months.

European business needs the gold today—far more than the United States needs it.

A prosperous Europe reacts and makes a prosperous American foreign trade. The one aids the other. No nation can live unto itself any longer. Europe needs the gold which we can well afford to spare. The transaction is mutually helpful and profitable.

Distiller Unit Boosts Capital

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) Stockholders of National Distillers Products Corporation at a special meeting today ratified an increase in the authorized common stock from 200,000 to 276,000 shares.

This new stock will make possible the acquisition of American Medicinal Spirits Company through an exchange of stock on the basis of three-fifths of a share of National Distillers for each share of American Medicinal Spirits Company.

DECLINE IN PRICES OF AIR STOCKS TOLD

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive) H. L. Williams, president of Air Investors, Inc., stated today that the market value of thirty-three aviation companies whose stocks are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and the New York Curb Exchange declined from a value of $1,160,000,000 at their 1929 high to $284,000,000 at their low prices. The market value of all listed securities owned by Air Investors, Inc., on the 11th inst amounted to 56 per cent of their cost.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The cotton market was quiet today, with early advances on covering and trade buying followed by setbacks under preholiday liquidation. Much of the business consisted of further near-month liquidation or transferring from January to later months in anticipation of notices next Thursday. Active months were steady and about 5 to 8 points net higher around 2 o'clock.

Backus, Fordon of Detroit in Receivership

DETROIT, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Detroit Security and Trust Company has been appointed receiver for Backus, Fordon & Co., stock brokers. The following statement was issued by the latter concern:

"Due to the recent drop in the stock market, many of the customers of the company find themselves presently unable to meet their obligations and because certain of its assets are not readily convertible into cash, the company finds itself without sufficient working capital.

"In order to preserve fully the assets for the benefit of creditors and stockholders we have applied for a receiver, thus insuring an orderly liquidation of property and accounts."

DETROIT, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Resignation of Ralph Fordon as president of Detroit Stock Exchange was accepted at a meeting of the board of governors. Max Stringer was elected president to fill the unexpired term. Mr. Stringer is a partner in the house of Atling, Ichren & Hayes.

Rail Budget of Chesapeake at High Total

RICHMOND (Va.) Dec. 24. (AP)—J. J. Bernet, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, announced today that new equipment to cost $42,500,000 was provided in the 1930 budget.

An allocation of $20,700,000 has been made in the budget for the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, while $21,800,000 has been provided for the Hocking Valley and the Pere Marquette, other units of the Chesapeake and Ohio lines. The major part of the $21,800,000 is allocated to the Pere Marquette.

The budgets for the Nickel Plate and Erie roads have not been completed, but President Bernet said their appropriations probably would bring the total for the Van Sweringen system to $100,000,000.

Samson Holders Ratify Increase

Stockholders of the Samson Tire and Rubber Corporation at a special meeting held in New York yesterday ratified the proposal to increase the preferred stock of the corporation from 20,000 to 100,000 shares, according to a statement issued by the local office.

The new preferred shares will be convertible into common stock on the basis of one share of common for two shares of preferred.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Trading in futures on the local rubber exchange today was a typical preholiday affair with only 400 tons changing hands, the smallest turnover in about three weeks. However, a firm tone was maintained throughout and final prices were from 10 to 30 points above Monday's closes. There was no incentive to stimulate any aggressive action on either side of the market, but in the last hour of business the operator for an important upturn trade interest was a buyer of the December and March deliveries at the day's high levels. Sales amounted to 160 contracts or 400 long tons.

London spot rubber closed at 7¾d and unchanged in quiet market, while the January delivery in Singapore declined ⅛d to 7¼d. Both these markets will be closed until Friday morning. Outside spot here rose ⅛c to 15⅞c.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Buying Operations Check Decline and Bolster Local Stock Quotations Here

Despite the proximity of the Christmas holiday and the general uneasiness underlying security trading over the past week, a relatively brisk activity was manifested in the shortened session yesterday of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Operations were largely on the long side and were of sufficient volume to advance quotations fractionally, as well as to indicate that traders were keen to take advantage of present price levels.

Richfield Transamerica and Union Oil attracted the greatest following, the first two being traded in excess of 3000 shares each. Southern California Edison, however, made the sharpest advance with a spurt of 2½ points to a high for the day at 55½. Late selling brought this issue down to a close at 54 3-4 but up 1 3-4 points on the session.

Richfield which has held the spotlight in the last few days due to severe pressure of a bear attack advanced 5-8 to a top of 24 and eased back toward the end of the session to close at 23½, but up 1-8 point net. Transamerica continued to lead the activity of the market and added 3-8 to finish at 41 3-8. Union Oil crossed the board in a brisk fashion and firmed up 1-8 to 43 7-8 and Union Associates advanced ½ to 43½. Rio Grande held firm to 18 3-4.

Other issues to show a fractional improvement were Security-First National Bank, Pickwick Corporation, International Re-Insurance, Pacific Finance and Byron Jackson. Aero Corporation dropped 1-4 to a new low at 2 1-4.

Sales totaled 13,828 shares valued at $571,852; previous day, 31,443 shares valued at $1,121,142.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Kemper Radio featured trading on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday in a session in which the activity was largely confined to the stocks quoted under $5 a share. The Radio stock followed up an advance of $1 in the preceding session by adding another 45 cents to reach a high for the day at $3.45. The close was at $3.35, after 5800 shares had crossed the board.

Very little change took place among the major issues under a listless trading activity. Claude Neon Lights, the New York company, was knocked down 2 5-8 points to a new record low at 12 7-8. Fokker also slumped a point to a new bottom at 13. Claude Neon of Delaware fell off a point to 30½ while Gladding McBean, after being depressed for the last three days rallied ½ point to end at 56.

Among the shorter-priced issues, Kinner Aircraft Engine was second in activity to Kemper Radio but closed steady at 90. Fractional improvement was shown in Exeter Oil, Bach Aircraft, San Francisco Gold, Midway Northern and Occidental Petroleum.

Sales totaled 27,325 shares valued at $56,576; previous day, 34,470 shares valued at $135,746.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The day before Christmas found the bond market so dull that followers of the list were reminded of one of last summer's stagnant sessions. Total sales fell below the $8,000,000 mark for the first time in months.

In view of the limited trading, price changes had comparatively little significance. Considerable irregularity developed in all departments and the broad gains and losses that characterize an exceptionally thin market were apparent in numerous instances. The rails gave the best performance, manifesting an upward tendency as buying orders outnumbered offerings, but the turnover was far below the average. Industrials and utilities were highly irregular.

Expectations of firm money for the remainder of the year as banks and corporations prepare for the January 1 payments in regular and extra dividends, as well as in coupons, lead the belief that bonds will continue dull in the immediate future, although the outlook for 1930 is regarded optimistically. A large volume of new financing, especially by municipalities, is anticipated during the first few months of the new year and it would not be surprising if large customers of the market, who have been heavy buyers of short maturities, would shift to longer term issues, provided, of course, that money rates ease with the passing of the year end.

The more popular foreign loans again took a prominent part in today's transactions. The undertone of the European governments was firm. British 5½s, French and German 7s, and Norway 5s sold at little variations from their recent levels. Latin-Americans were irregular and Argentine 5½s equalled their 1929 minimum of 88. Rio Grande do Sul and Sao Paulo City and State listings weakened.

In the domestic industrial group Fisk Rubber 8s and Shubert Theater 6s sank to new minimums for the waning year on losses of 3 and 2 points, respectively. North American Cement 6½s were heavy. Utilities made fractional changes.

Convertibles lagged. American Telephone 4½s advanced less than a point on the unusually small volume of $362,000. Missouri Pacific 5½s lost a point, but Atchison 4½s rose 2 and Alleghany Corporation 5s of 1944 advanced 1¼. International Telephone 4½s picked up a full point on a movement on only $16,000, principal amount, one of the smallest turnovers ever recorded by this unusually active convertible.

United States governments shaded off in sympathy with the firmness of money, but neither buying nor selling was of impressive proportion.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (AP)—Christmas celebrations stopped the San Francisco Stock Exchange operations today. Early activity showed a slight seasonal tinge, but interest died out and prices staggered slightly under competition of numerous informal exchanges of greetings. Trading floor operations slowed so much that a ten-minute interruption for distribution of exchange gifts to employees caused no inconvenience.

Employees who will be required to present passes to get into the new stock exchange building, now near completion, were given black leather wallets with pockets for passports and pictures, embossed with the receiver's name. The $2,750,000 building will be formally occupied January 4.

Utility and oil groups gave best demonstrations during the four hours of trading, cut short at 1 o'clock by previous ruling of exchange governors. Pacific Lighting, quick, as usual, to rise on brightening of the general market picture, rose more than a point but failed to hold its gain. Pacific Gas went up 1¼; Pacific Service was up a small fraction, reflecting investment buying on prospects of natural gas business expansion.

Such oils as moved went higher, but when losses of about half the early gains produced irregularity, activity diminished. Closing figures found several fractional gains, but no movements of consequence.

Banks were irregular, Anglo California Trust losing 3 points, touching a new low at 472, but regaining the loss. Transamerica climbed unsteadily higher, closing up a thin fraction.

Industrials produced no group trend, only odd lot sales here and there taking place, apparently unconnected with news for the most part. Caterpillar appeared to reflect brightening of the outlook for farmers, gaining a fraction as wheat prices climbed in Chicago.

North American Investors slipped 2 points further on a few sales and Fireman's Fund lost 1¾. A few other stocks took minor losses, but the general trend was sufficient to show a slight gain on Sutro & Co.'s averages for twenty leaders of the general list, and also for bank and oil groups.

Sales totaled 23,188 shares at $9077. Bonds were unsold.

[illegible] Barnsdall Oil Company has [illegible] what promises to be a [illegible] present on the old Trust [illegible] in the westerly portion of the [illegible] field. Yesterday it was [illegible] excellent oil sand, having [illegible] from 5802 to 5348 feet [illegible] was reported as being a [illegible] promising formation. The [illegible] still going ahead in the sand, [illegible] is believed that the well can [illegible] within fifteen or twen-[illegible]

[illegible] piece of property, consisting [illegible] acres, lies just west of the [illegible] highly productive O'Dea [illegible] where there are many fine [illegible]. The Trust lease was idle for [illegible] years after the Union Oil [illegible], which originally had it [illegible], failed to develop produc-[illegible] depths about the same as [illegible] from which good production [illegible] obtained in the main part of [illegible] field.

[illegible] the Union gave up the [illegible] then the Petroleum Securi-[illegible] Company had it under consideration for a considerable time, but [illegible] decided to not tie it up. [illegible] or four months ago Barnsdall [illegible] the area for a deep test, [illegible] appears to have found what it [illegible] after.

[illegible] Increases

[illegible] average production for the [illegible] Fe Springs field took another [illegible] upward yesterday with the [illegible] of more than a half-[illegible] projects all from the lower [illegible] sand and placed the day's [illegible] far above the 150,000-barrel [illegible] figure established several [illegible] ago by the principal major [illegible].

[illegible] the 21st inst., the total out-[illegible] was 160,230 barrels and on the [illegible] inst. it had dropped to 152,851 [illegible]. On the 23rd inst., it slid to [illegible] barrels with indications of [illegible] rapid climb for the week-[illegible] because of the new completions. [illegible] new completions yesterday in-[illegible] the Texas Company's Weaver [illegible] and Standlee No. 5; Wilshire [illegible] Company's Peterson No. 2, Su-[illegible] Oil Company's Wardman No. [illegible] Petroleum Company's Brun-[illegible] No. 1, and General Petroleum [illegible] Santa Fe No. 237. [illegible] production figures on these [illegible] were unknown yesterday as [illegible] were just coming in.

[illegible] Elwood field has shown a [illegible] curtailment. There have [illegible] been fewer completions there [illegible] with. Yesterday's output [illegible] not exceed 24,500 barrels and [illegible] week may see a slightly lower [illegible], according to reports. No new completions are expected there for [illegible] weeks.

[illegible] Steady

Production reports of the Ohio Oil Company's Recreation Gun Club [illegible] at the southeasterly city limits of Venice, indicate that its flow [illegible] been comparatively steady since [illegible] completion last Thursday, and [illegible] the daily average may settle [illegible] at least 2000 barrels of 23-[illegible] gravity oil from a depth of 6199 [illegible].

[illegible] the construction of additional storage facilities, the flow has [illegible] turned into a 3000-barrel tank. [illegible] for at least 15,000 barrels [illegible] be constructed.

[illegible] Trouble

The Bolsa Chica Oil Corporation [illegible] located the water leak in its [illegible] No. 5 in the Ventura-ave-[illegible] field and will cement for a wa-[illegible] shut-off test within a week.

This project was brought in a [illegible] ago and initial flow was estimated at 4500 barrels of oil per day, [illegible] later output was placed at about [illegible] barrels daily from a depth of [illegible] feet.

[illegible] Showings

The General Petroleum Corporation's More No. 2 on the More [illegible] three miles southeast of Elwood has encountered considerable [illegible] pressure in its well, drilling be-[illegible] feet, and heavy mud has [illegible] pumped in to control the flow. General's More No. 2 is about half [illegible] mile from More No. 1, which [illegible] to 4832 feet within the past [illegible] months and now is idle. This [illegible] undertaking developed a crooked [illegible] and the company is planning [illegible] straighten it.

[illegible] Project Down

The General Petroleum Corporation's Bank No. 1, a tideland test, [illegible] down along the coast south-[illegible] of Elwood, is drilling below 550 [illegible] in search of deep production. A pier was constructed preparatory to spudding in this test and is [illegible] enough to permit construction [illegible] additional derricks further out [illegible] the ocean in the event oil is dis-[illegible].

Bank No. 1 is not far from General's More No. 1 and No. 2 drilled for deep production on the More [illegible] southeast of Elwood. Along [illegible] coast at Seacliff, the Ferguson No. 1, another tideland test, is drilling below 1600 feet.

[illegible] Gray Sand

The Ohio Oil Company's Smith No. 1 on the south dome at Kettleman Hills, is drilling below 7912 feet in gray sand and outcome of this test is rather doubtful, is the general belief of operators watching it. As the deepest undertaking drilled so far on either of the three domes at Kettleman Hills, it has [illegible] a fair test of the formation at that depth. Several months ago at a depth slightly below 7000 feet, Ohio's project was given a production test and came in wet. It was ordered to deepen.

[illegible] Continue

The Keystone Petroleum Company's No. 1, searching for an extension southeast of the Lost Hills district in Kern county, still continues to encounter showings of gas and is drilling below 3631 feet. Many tons of baroid have been pumped in to control the flow of gas, according to company officials.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—Prices moved irregularly higher in today's dull curb market. Short covering probably furnished the main impetus to the advance as brokers reported a continued lack of public interest. A late wave of profit-taking cut down many of the early gains. The day's sales fell just short of 850,000 shares.

Electric Bond and Share closed unchanged at 75½ after fluctuating within a range of 2½ points. Cities Service made further recovery, closing a point higher at 25⅝ after having sold above 26. American Gas and Electric ran up 7 points and reacted 2, while American Light and Traction dropped 13½ and rallied 4½. Most of the other active power and light stocks advanced a point or two.

Radio shares failed to attract much attention on reports of excellent holiday business. De Forest closed fractionally higher on buying presumably influenced by a favorable court decision in its suit again the Radio Corporation, involving the legality of the so-called "contract clause" in tube sales. Arcturus sank to a new low level for the year and Dubilier yielded fractionally.

Air Stock Investors convertible preferred advanced 3 points on the publication of a statement showing that market value of the company's security holdings on December 11 were 56 per cent of cost. Douglas Aircraft dropped below 14 to a new low level for the year. Ford of Canada advanced 1⅜ points on a small turnover.

Gulf Oil of Pennsylvania advanced 4 points and Standard Oil of Kentucky lost 1, with the other oils showing practically no change. Most of the investment trust, holding and trading corporation shares improved fractionally.

New low prices for the year were registered by Fajarro Sugar, Huylers of Delaware, Schulte Real Estate, National Shirt Shops and Mangel Stores.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

Total stock sales today, 841,000 shares; year ago, holiday. Total bond sales today, $1,020,000; year ago, holiday.

Wheat Futures Sharply Up on Bullish News

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (AP)—Prospective sudden scarcity of breadstuffs in Europe gave seven league boots to the Chicago wheat market today. Likelihood of a quick dearth of wheat supplies abroad was brought into sight by a surprise report from the government of Argentina indicating that the 1929 Argentine exportable surplus of wheat will be only 58,000,000 bushels to 79,000,000 bushels compared with 250,000,000 bushels actually exported from the latest previous crop; the immediate result was a frantic bidding up of wheat values here to a maximum rise of 5⅝ cents a bushel, with reports current that European millers were excited over inability to buy.

Big profit-taking sales toward the last shaved something from the day's top quotations for wheat in Chicago, and the market closed nervous 4⅜c to 5c above yesterday's finish. Corn closed ⅛c to ⅞c up, oats ⅜c to 1⅛c advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 15c.

Widely circulated reports that accompanied today's jump in wheat prices stated that European purchases of wheat today for shipment overseas from the United States and Canada amounted to as much as 4,000,000 bushels exclusive of huge buying of future delivery contracts in Chicago. Some authorities said the day's export business done by North America totaled 7,000,000 bushels. There were also reports current that relatively little of the new Argentine wheat crop will be available for shipment before the middle of February, and that world import supplies until then must come mainly from North America. Meanwhile, the Argentine official estimate of yield was generally taken to indicate need of about 32,000,000 bushels more wheat from this country and Canada than as a rule has been counted upon, with today's final quotations at Liverpool soaring higher even than the Chicago market and scoring in some cases 7½c a bushel net gain.

Few wheat traders anywhere seemed to have been prepared for the Argentine government crop report, the figures which not only gave official sanction to the most pessimistic forecasts received from private sources, but greatly outdid them by furnishing the lowest production estimates yet received from any source. The Argentine government's new estimate of 1929 wheat yield, 143,000,000 bushels implied an exportable surplus of but 58,000,000 bushels and was disputed in some quarters as being 37,000,000 bushels too low, but such assertions were without any market influence. On the contrary, all wheat tendered to Europe since yesterday was said to have been accepted at full prices, and the general buying demand here for future deliveries continued broad right up to the day's end.

Corn, oats and provisions owed their price gains largely to the sensational upward flight of the wheat market.

Staff of Fitts Honors Chief in Celebration

Christmas was celebrated yesterday in the District Attorney's office by an informal gathering in the investigation bureau of close to seventy deputies, investigators and other employees. With Dep. Dist.-Attys. Van Cott and Stahlman and Investigator O'Leary presiding, gifts were presented to Dist.-Atty. Fitts and several of his aides.

Besides Fitts, who was presented with an ornate smoking stand, others to receive gifts were Chief Deputy Stewart, Assistant Chief Deputy Jordan, Chief Trial Deputy Beecher, Chief Investigator O'Brien and Assistant Chief Investigator Matthews.

In an address to his staff, Fitts praised them for their co-operation and stated that whatever success was enjoyed by the District Attorney's office was due to their combined efforts.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—The Tuesday run was light, numbering only 300 head. Due to the impending holiday demand was limited, a few sales being made at about steady values. Three loads arrived from the intermountain region, the balance being from Arizona and New Mexico. Slaughter steers were scarce, a few loads desirable killing cows being included, the balance being cutter and common stock.

Steer sales consisted only of a few odd head lots extremely common steers at 7.50@8.50.

A part load fed Arizona cows and heifers realized 8.50, and a load 1093-pound intermountain cows, 8.35, the bulk cows going at 6.50@7.75, and low cutters and cutters including a few loads Southwesterns, 4.10@6.25. Odd lots bulls moved at 6.10@7.75.

CALVES—The market was slow, receipts consisting of three loads common and medium Southwesterns. Two loads 250 to 350 pounds sold at 10.50, a load 403-pound averages at 10.00, and odd lots at 9.50.

HOGS—The light run of two loads was disposed of at firm to 10c higher values. A load 211-pound New Mexicos made 10.60, and a load mixed weight Idahos averaging 158 pounds at 10.35. A truck load 220-pound Californias was taken at 10.25 and odd lots packing sows, 8.25@8.50.

SHEEP—None. Quotably steady.

Mother's Plea in Theft Case Earns Parole

There was too much Christmas finery on display in downtown stores for Mrs. Belle Young's sense of honesty, she told Municipal Judge Bullock yesterday, pleading guilty to a charge of stealing three dresses from a department store.

"Everything was so tempting I lost my head," she declared. "I didn't mean to steal when I went there, but I didn't have much money for Christmas and in a moment of weakness I picked up the dresses."

On recommendation of Minnie Barton, probation officer, Judge Bullock suspended a ninety-day jail sentence and placed Mrs. Young on probation. Mrs. Barton reported Mrs. Young is the mother of three children and never before was in difficulties with the law.

MEMORYLESS VETERAN STILL UNKNOWN SOLDIER

The "known unknown soldier" still is unknown! No recognition followed a meeting yesterday arranged through the police with a woman who thought him her long lost brother. Not only that—he was "on his way" again last night, memory gone—drifting to a new job and the eternal search of his lost identity, police say.

Charles J. Golding he calls himself, and declares that he awakened in a London hospital during the early months of the war with his memory gone. Lieut. Paul McGarry of the Los Angeles police force found him wandering aimlessly at Temple and Broadway a few days ago "looking for home."

Miss Marie T. Parys, 438 South Kingsley Drive, became interested in the man and called at The Times, declaring that the published picture looked very much like her missing brother, who disappeared in Belgium during the war.

Yesterday the couple met at Seventh and Figueroa street by appointment through the police.

A wistful face uplifted almost hopelessly, it seemed, scanned the face of the woman gazing intently at him with no sign of recognition.

"It is not he," she exclaimed sorrowfully as she bent closer to the unknown. "It is some one else," she sobbed.

Golding has suffered absolute loss of the memory from the time he was discharged from a London hospital. Otherwise his faculties are clear, he stated.

Papers found in his possession indicated that he had served in the fighting forces of the United States, Great Britain, Belgium and France and that he had received three medals for distinguished service.

Miss Parys said that her family was living in Belgium at the time her brother entered the service. "Golding" said that hospital authorities at London had listed him as a Belgian refugee.

Mrs. Youmans Given Alimony

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—Temporary alimony of $150 a week and $1500 counsel fees were awarded today to Mrs. Anne Youmans, wife of Vincent Youmans, composer and producer, by Supreme Court Justice Callahan, pending trial of the suit for separation.

She had asked $500 a week.

IOWANS TO CELEBRATE STATEHOOD SATURDAY

Hawkeyes in this city are to celebrate Iowa's eighty-third year of Statehood Saturday night at a dinner of the Iowa Association of California at the City Club. Judge Ralph H. Clock, president, has invited all Iowans in this region to attend, reservations to be made by Friday. A reception begins at 6 p.m. and dinner will be served at 7 p.m., he announces. Community singing will be led by F. B. Cruikshank, president of the Cedar Rapids Club, which has reserved a table for 100. Music, brief addresses and responses from various college, town and county organizations are to follow dinner.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: First signs of strengthening iron and steel scrap market in the Chicago district and an apparent halt in the downward price trend of scrap in other districts forecast an increase in steel making operations in the early weeks of next month, some steel trade authorities believe. Although current operations are exceedingly low, conservative optimism for the future is strong.

The holiday shutdown will be the most complete in six years. The seasonal lull in steel buying has brought no further indications that inventories of finished steel are anything but extremely light. In the sheet industry total supplies are equivalent to only about what would ordinarily be two weeks' requirements.

Valuable Gem Given Orphans

Santa Claus left a diamond-studded platinum brooch to the Kiddie Koop Home, where orphans and half-orphans are sheltered, and yesterday the officials decided to broadcast their predicament. None of the orphans has use for a platinum brooch, or at least, none would feel comfortable wearing it. The generous anonymous donor obviously intended that the brooch should be sold, and the proceeds devoted to the care of the orphans and half-orphans at the home.

Experts appraised the brooch and set a valuation of $1200 on it. The organization does not expect to sell it for that much, but would welcome bids, promising to devote the proceeds to the care of these children. The Kiddie Koop Home is a recognized institution supported mainly by the Community Chest. Inquiries regarding the diamond-platinum brooch can be made by telephoning GArfield 1554.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Maj.-Gen. William G. Everson, chief of the Militia Bureau, was among forty men and women who responded to appeals for a blood transfusion for Mrs. Rose Schutt, who is in a critical condition at a hospital. The general was unable to give the required blood when it was found his was of another type than that of the ill woman.

Mrs. Schutt is the wife of an unemployed carpenter, who previously had given two blood transfusions for his wife.

Youth Killed in Crossing Crash

SALINAS, Dec. 24. (AP)—Ernest Nabarrete, 9 years of age, was killed and John Behrman, 22, seriously injured today when the truck in which they were riding was struck at a crossing near Gonzales by the Southern Pacific "Daylight Limited," southbound from San Francisco to Los Angeles. The truck was demolished and carried in the train's path for several hundred yards. Behrman, driver of the truck, received a broken leg, scalp wounds and probable internal injuries.

Bank Pays for Bay City Bonds

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—The Bank of Italy played Santa Claus to the city of San Francisco today by turning over a $41,881,500 check for the Spring Valley Water Company bond issue, thus paving the way for the city's acquisition of the properties March 2, 1930.

MURDER INFORMANT COMMITS SUICIDE

STOCKTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—Jack Gfreorer, 31 years of age, of San Francisco, who gave the local Sheriff's office information regarding the hold-ups of the Riverside Inn and the Milk Bottle resort and the murder of Frank Prasher, resort owner, near here in October, committed suicide in the lobby of the Hotel Stockton early this morning. Gfreorer is said to have feared members of the gang that he exposed. He attempted to get his wife to leave town with him just before he shot himself.

Young Refuses Holiday Pardons

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—Gov. Young today announced there will be no Christmas pardons for convicts inside the State prisons or out on parole.

The Governor declared pardons should be granted on the merits of each individual case, and not as Christmas presents.

NORWEGIAN SCHOLAR BURNED TO DEATH

COPENHAGEN (Denmark) Dec. 24. (AP)—Prof. Alexander Bugge, of the history faculty at the University of Oslo, died last night from burns he suffered while resting in a police station. The professor, who was on a short visit here, was taken ill in a restaurant and was brought to the police station for aid. He complained of the cold and went into a corridor where there was a stove. He was found soon after with his clothes burning, apparently having fallen against the stove. He died in a hospital during the night.

NEW DREAM TELEPHONE SUCCEEDS

Leviathan Passengers Able to Speak to Persons 2600 Miles Away on Shore

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The ship-to-shore telephone service, which was tried out by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Leviathan on her just completed round trip to Europe, has proven so successful that the system is to be installed on other ships, it was announced today.

"In only a few months," J. L. R. Van Meter, head of the commercial traffic department of the A. T. & T., said today, "we expect to install the service on other ships. The experimental stage is over. It is now a matter of development. We will use the Leviathan's plant as a laboratory."

Van Meter and a staff of ten radio engineers made the round trip on the ship, and were in charge of the service. He said that conversations between the Leviathan and America were maintained up to a distance of 2600 miles on the outbound trip and on the inbound trip from 1800 miles on in. The ship was two days behind schedule and many passengers used the telephone to notify relatives.

Famed Pianist's Daughter Weds

AIKEN (S. C.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Miss Josefa Hofmann, daughter of Josef Hofmann, internationally known pianist, and Mrs. Marie Eustis Hofmann of Aiken, was married today to Howard C. Fair of Kingston, Ont., riding master of the Aiken Preparatory School.

The ceremony was performed on the porch of a tea cottage in the Hitchcock Woods, with the bride and groom in riding habits. They rode off on horseback after the ceremony.

Bells of Rome Ring in Holiday

ROME, Dec. 25. (Wednesday) (AP) The pealing of bells in most of Rome's 400 churches ushered in Christmas at midnight. Ranging from solemn and deep in tone to light and joyous, the chimes kept ringing for a good hour, while the chanting of the midnight masses began in the presence of great congregations, including many foreigners.

PROHIBITION OFFICIAL DEMOTED TO AGENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—John J. Quinn, former deputy prohibition administrator at Baltimore, who was suspended after complaints against him had been filed with the White House, has been demoted to the rank of prohibition agent. Prohibition Commissioner Doran, who announced Quinn's demotion today said the former administrator will be transferred to another district, but declined to say where. The charges against Quinn have never been made public and Doran would not discuss them.

SISTERS FOUND DEAD IN COTTAGE ON CAMPUS

GRAND ISLAND (Neb.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Miss Gertrude Lippelt, 50 years of age, a teacher at Grand Island College, and her sister, Mrs. Marie Kirby, 55, were found dead in their little cottage on the campus today by officers who forced their way into the building.

Indications pointed to either asphyxiation from a hard-coal burner, or a suicide pact.

Charley Saves His Ten Bucks and Goes Free

TAMPA (Fla.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Charley Long, negro, was willing to bet $10 that there's a Santa Claus, and Charley won.

Convicted in Police Court yesterday of gambling, he was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve ten days in jail.

He started to pay the fine but changed his mind.

"Why?" asked the judge, curiously.

"Cause they always turn folks loose from de jail house on Christmas Eve Day," Charley answered.

"But suppose they don't," replied the judge.

"I bet my ten bucks they do," Charley answered.

Today Mayor McKay ordered seventy-five prisoners in the city stockade released. Charley was one of the seventy-five.

California Cake Given to Hoover

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24. (AP)—A fifty-pound fruit cake bearing the inscription "Christmas greetings from California to President Hoover," was presented to the Chief Executive today by Representative Free of California.

The cake, baked by W. C. Baker of Ojai, had a white icing into which were forked figures of the American eagle, the Presidential shield and festoons of California poppies.

Arizona Lawyer Killed in Crash

TUCSON (Ariz.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Frank Curley, Tucson attorney, former president of the State Bar Association, president of the Pima county Bar Association and chairman of the State Board of Legal Examiners was killed in an automobile accident on the Nogales highway this afternoon when his car overturned while en route to Nogales, where he was to spend Christmas with his daughter.

Thousands of Workers Given Extra Compensation

Money, Stock and Insurance in Christmas Stockings

Many Organizations Await Closing of Year's Books

A great number of Los Angeles concerns who prospered during the year just closing have been moved by the spirit of the yuletide to share a measure of their profits with their employees and the homes of a host of workers are gladdened on Christmas Day by the liberality. In most instances the gifts already have been distributed and will add their cheer to the pile of household Christmas packages.

In some instances distribution will not take place until the books actually are closed next Tuesday night. Many conditions, such as nature of the business, number of employees, profit margins and the like entered into the methods so that there is a great [illegible]

TURKEYS FOR GAS MEN

The Los Angeles Railway Corporation has distributed more than [illegible] on the basis of its system of merits won by employees during the year. Approximately twelve and a half tons of choice turkeys were distributed among employees of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation and today will grace their tables after a thirty-five-year-old custom of the corporation. The [illegible] Title Insurance and Guaranty Company has increased from [illegible] per cent the amount of insurance it provides free to its employees.

The Western Union Telegraph Company will increase the salaries of its employees who have achieved certain merits in the course of their twelve-months' work. E. F. Hutton & Co. has paid a month's salary to all its regular employees and a month and a half salary to its managers. The [illegible] Hotel has given gold pieces to principal employees. The Los Angeles Soap Company distributed [illegible] among its employees, who have been with it two or more years.

TIMES OBSERVES CUSTOM

For the tenth consecutive year the Times-Mirror Company, publishers of the Los Angeles Times, yesterday distributed extra compensation to approximately 1100 employees of the company and its subsidiaries, the Times - Mirror Printing and Binding House and the American Engraving Company. The extra pay given yesterday amounted roughly to $126,000, distributed according to merit and length of service.

The Weber Baking Company distributed $2000 among about 300 employees at a Christmas party. The [illegible] Hotel had a Christmas tree from which $5000 was distributed to employees. The Pacific Mutual Building and Loan Association and the Seaboard Dairy Credit Company distributed $2000 each. Each employee of California [illegible], Inc., who had been with the company ten years, got a gold watch; each employee of a year's service got a turkey and short-term employees received boxes of candy. There were a party and gifts for truck drivers. Silverwood's as is its annual custom paid for its employees the life, sick and accident insurance premiums on policies which it carries for them. The Ford Motor Company at the beginning of the month increased the pay of its workers.

BANK GIVES STOCK

The Bank of Italy will distribute to its employees 40 per cent of its profits during the last six months in the form of stock with [illegible] of the stock after [illegible] years. Between 5000 and 6000 will share in the distribution which will amount to considerably more than $1,000,000. Both the Los Angeles Stock Exchange and Curb Exchange gave bonuses of, respectively, 8 per cent and 8 3-4 per cent to employees.

The Bank of America gave 5 per cent of a year's salary to its employees, as did also the Guaranty Building and Loan Association of Hollywood, and the United States Building and Loan Association of Hollywood. The National Bank of Commerce awarded to its employees a bonus amounting to 2.5 per cent of each one's salary for the year.

The [illegible] Oil Company at the beginning of the year will give its employees a percentage of the net profits. Cash bonuses of various amounts were awarded to the principal employees by Haas, Baruch & Co., the Broadway Depart-

Maj. Lanagan Makes New Report on Breakwater to Board in Washington

Maj. Lanagan, United States Army engineer for the Los Angeles district has submitted a supplementary report to the Federal Board of Army Engineers on the proposed Los Angeles-Long Beach breakwater extension situation, in compliance with the board's request, he said yesterday. Details in connection with the proposed breakwater construction recently were presented to the board by representatives of both cities.

It is expected that the board's decision will be announced about the middle of next month. If favorable, preliminary steps in the construction of the breakwater may be taken next year, it is understood

Santa Doffs Fur Coat for Journey Here

After a short conference with the Weather Bureau last night, Santa Claus discarded his fur coat, ordered rubber tires for his sleigh and annexed a ladder to scale chimneys with

"Fair and warmer," was what Col. H. B. Hersey, government meteorologist, told old St. Nick, when the latter inquired as to the weather outlook. "In fact, it's going to be about 10 deg. warmer than normal Christmas weather for Los Angeles, which means a mean average for the day of about 67 deg."

"Snow?" The weather man chuckled. "Low temperature yesterday was 55 deg. at 5 a.m., and it was 82 deg. maximum during the day," he told the astonished old gentleman from the North Pole. "Today will be as warm or warmer. The humidity will be low and the fire hazard high."

RESEDA FIRE STATION APPEAL MADE AGAIN

The North Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce yesterday again appealed to the City Council to construct at once a fire station in Reseda. The Council attached the request to the file now in the hands of the Special Allocation Committee, where many similar petitions rest.

YULE "MESS CALL" BUGLED

Salvation Army's Christmas "Chow Line" Contains 15,000 Persons in Los Angeles Area

From far and near they came, hundreds of men, women and children of all races and colors, some on crutches and in wheel chairs and many almost in rags but all of them with clean faces and neatly combed hair, all hearts baptized with the light of Christmastide and all eyes shining with expectation of the receipt of the well-filled baskets waiting for them in the basement of Salvation Army Temple at 832 West Ninth street.

Preceding presentation of the baskets by Brig. J. C. Bell of the Los Angeles and South Coast Division, Joseph B. Dabney of the army's advisory board, and many volunteer assistants, an interesting program was given in the chapel, featured by community singing in which no voice was silent. Christmas carols were sung by Albert Vincent, "singing janitor of the temple;" Mrs. Maude James, stenographer, and other talented members of the army. The program also included piano numbers by James Fraser, a cadet from the Training College at San Francisco, and Adjt. Lloyd Doctor, whistling selections by Elmer Rudeen and a recitation by Arline Hanna.

DABNEY SPEAKS

Brig. Bell introduced Mr. Dabney whose personal contributions and assistance had played a large part in making the army's annual Christmas party a success. Modestly, Mr. Dabney greeted his smiling audience, many members of which were seen to weep as the white-haired man told again, in a simple yet effective way the story of the Nazarene who was lowly born and who lived a life of pain and died at the hands of persecutors, yet who was the greatest Friend of the poor and distressed of all time.

"My greatest ambition is to walk in the pathway He pointed out to us," said Mr. Dabney. "I want Christmas in my heart every day of the year and I want you, my brothers and sisters, to remember that you always are in my thoughts and that I stand ready to help you in any way that I can."

BASKETS DISTRIBUTED

Distribution of the baskets, each of which contained every item that goes to make up two or three good dinners, began at noon yesterday and will be continued for the next three days. Those who are unable to go to the temple for their gifts will receive them from the army's "Santa Claus Special," a bus which will visit the homes of hundreds of needy families in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. It was estimated that at least 15,000 persons will be fed by the army in the Los Angeles area and that 5000 others in the South Coast Division will

WEDDING OF SIMPLICITY SOLEMNIZED

Mrs. Claire Evans Finlay and James Donahue Wed at Bride's Parents' Home

Marked by the strictest simplicity was the marriage yesterday at 4:30 p.m. of Mrs. Claire Evans Finlay, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Charles Frazer Evans, to James Donahue at the home of the bride's parents, 1351 Alta Vista street, with Municipal Judge Blake, a close friend of the bridegroom, officiating.

The bride, who wore a gown of blue taffeta and lace embroidered in pink roses and carried a bouquet of pink camellias and orange blossoms, is a graduate of Harcourt Seminary in the East. During the World War she served in an evacuation hospital in France with the American Red Cross and still is engaged actively in welfare work among ex-service men.

Donahue, who has a wide circle of friends in Los Angeles, also served in the World War as a pilot with the United States air forces, with the rank of first lieutenant.

Following the ceremony, which was attended only by members of the two families a wedding supper was served, after which the couple left by air for a month's honeymoon in Canada. After that time they will make their home at Playa del Rey.

Railway Board Aide Promoted

Frank V. Rhodes, a veteran telephone engineer in the employ of the State Railroad Commission, who, for several years has been assigned to duty with the Los Angeles offices of the commission, has been placed in charge of the local offices, it was announced yesterday.

Mr. Rhodes was promoted to fill the vacancy made by the promotion of Claude C. Brown, gas engineer, who has been transferred to the San Francisco offices of the commission as gas administrator.

COUNCILMAN RECEIVES GIFT

Constituents of the Twelfth District yesterday presented Councilman Williams with an onyx desk set surmounted by a broncho buster. The presentation was made by James F. Elwood.

NEWSIES IN DINNER COATS

Fred Solomon Takes Young Friends to Biltmore for Christmas Feast This Year

Three thousand newsboys will not be dreaming when they roll up to the entrance of the Biltmore in taxicabs today and, after handing their caps to servitors, sit down to Christmas dinner in the main dining-room at noon. Besides scores of roasted turkeys, hundreds of bowls of cranberries, oodles of gravy and great scoops of "stuffing," they will be greeted at the table by a dozen notable citizens and officials of Los Angeles. And it will all be real.

The affair will be the sixteenth annual banquet tendered to the newsboys of Los Angeles by Fred Solomon. The banquet will be preceded by a parade through the streets of the city in which the Firemen's Band of sixty pieces will participate. Leading the taxicab parade will be Chief Scott of the Los Angeles Fire Department.

IN ROYAL STATE

Taxicabs have been chartered to pick up the newsboys and a score of women who also sell newspapers, at the circulation department of each newspaper in the city at 11 a.m. They will all be assembled an hour later at First and Broadway, where Chief Scott and the Fire Department band will start the procession toward the Biltmore.

Mayor Porter, Chief of Police Davis, Dist.-Atty. Fitts and other city officials have been invited and most of them have promised to appear to speak a few words during the course of the dinner.

SOLOMON'S WISDOM

Mr. Solomon, who originated the idea of the penny dance, arrived in Los Angeles shortly after his discharge from the United States Army following the Spanish-American War. He earned his first meal in Los Angeles by selling newspapers. Shortly afterward he saw the possibilities of a better livelihood in

CHEST AGENCIES DISPENSE CHEER

Thousands of Poor Persons to Be Aided Today

All Manner of Gifts Will be Presented to Them

Dinners Will Be Provided at Number of Places

The poor, the sick, the orphan and the rest of society's band of unfortunates in Los Angeles who derive aid and comfort from the agencies of the Community Chest throughout the year, are to be well remembered today.

At the Children's Hospital, Santa Claus will call in every room and deliver presents for which the children, for weeks past, have written him. The Santa Claus of the Children's Hospital is Leroy Edwards, Potentate of Al Malaikah Temple, in private life. He and fellow-Shriners have been reading the letters for some weeks past, and in every instance have arranged to give the sick and crippled children exactly what they asked for. The hospital itself is serving a turkey dinner to all its patients and employees.

At the Children's Hospital Society, Santa Claus, despite his white whiskers and red coat, is none other than Mrs. Felix Hughes, who once upon a time was Ruth Stonehouse, film player. Mrs. Hughes also is giving the children a Christmas party at her home. Many gifts of toys, food, candy and fruit have been received from individuals and from the Elks.

OTHERS HELP OUT

At the Orthopaedic Hospital, the children will be presented with gifts during the day by Shriners, Altrusians, Elks and many friendly individuals. From 4 to 6 p.m., the children will listen to music furnished by the Shriners' Band. During the evening they will hear carols sung by the choir of the First Congregational Church.

The Red Cross is giving Christmas gifts to all members of families of disabled veterans who are unemployed or do not have adequate compensation at Christmas time. It also is supplying Christmas dinners to about thirty-five families. It has contributed money, a great variety of Christmas decorations, favors, candies, warm clothing, ets., to the patients in the Veterans' Hospital at San Fernando, as well as 400 Christmas gifts, besides bathrobes, bed jackets, etc., for the veterans of the Sawtelle Soldiers' Home.

The Catholic Welfare Bureau will provide Christmas gifts for more than 500 needy families, in addition to 1000 stockings filled with personal gifts. The Children's Aid Department is making Christmas happy for children placed in foster homes, supplying gifts for approximately 250.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, in co-operation with the bureau, will distribute more than 12,000 large Christmas stockings among the children in Maravilla, Belvedere, Watts, Lincoln Heights, Rose Hill, Boyle Heights and other districts.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will deliver treats to the inmates of Olive View Sanatorium, then will entertain at the County Hospital with music, ice cream and various dainties, and will distribute fruit, candy, pastry and tobacco at the County Farm.

ORPHANS TO BE HAPPY

The children of Los Angeles Orphanage, after emptying well-filled Christmas stockings, will make a special trip in busses from Boyle Heights to San Pedro and thence on launches to the battleships U.S.S. Colorado and U.S.S. Mississippi. There each child will be taken in charge by a sailor and shown all over the ship, after which the sailors will be hosts of the orphans at a turkey dinner. The entertainment will be climaxed by Santa Claus alighting from a seaplane onto the decks of the respective ships and distributing gifts. Then the children, in charge of Sister Cecilia, will return home.

Santa Claus, reindeer team and all, will visit the Assistance League, presenting candy and gifts to the children.

The children at the Kiddie Koop are faring exceptionally well. The Electric Club is supplying shoes for each child. The Elks and the Junior Girls of the Beverly Hills Woman's Club are giving a jam shower, to be followed by a supper given for the children, and gifts of new bedroom slippers, socks and candy.

Christmas cheer will be distributed by the Episcopal City Mission Society at Olive View where fifty children and four adult wards will receive presents. A pony and saddle will be presented to the children. Gifts also will be distributed at the General Hospital, Los Feliz and the County Farm. There will be a Christmas tree at St. Barnabas House.

TURKEY STOLEN FROM BOY RETURNS HOME DRESSED

Extremes of Christmas gloom and joy were experienced by Miles C. Snyder, school-boy, of 1407 Federal avenue, West Los Angeles, when his nineteen-pound live turkey gobbler, fattened for the Christmas feast, first was stolen from its roost during the night, then returned in the morning by police of the West Los Angeles division, according to a report.

When the theft of the prize gobbler was reported the officers, uniting in a Santa Claus role, identified it as the fowl assertedly plucked by five men arrested on intoxication charges during the night at 1271½ Federal avenue. Some one had just finished dressing the turkey.

"And so," this police bedtime story goes, "Miles not only got his turkey back, but got it back all nicely plucked and ready for Christmas dinner. He didn't even have to chop off its head, which probably saved him a large gulp of remorse."

The sequel to Miles's Christmas story was reported in a dirge which had no happy ending. Harry Zied, proprietor of a poultry market at 1223 Bundy Drive, lost six turkeys, thirty red roosters, a Muscovy duck and some cases of eggs when thieves entered his store at night after smashing a window. But the police Santa Clauses have not recovered the poultry, dressed or undressed.

HELEN SHOWS FAST RETURN

Tennis Star and New Husband Back from Cruise in Half-Hour for Dry Land Christmas

Mrs. Frederick S. Moody, Jr., nee Helen Wills, world's woman tennis champion, who started on a yatching honeymoon at 4 p.m. yesterday, changed her mind at 4:30 and decided to spend Christmas Day on dry land. The tennis champion and her husband arrived at Los Angeles Harbor in a motor car from San Francisco yesterday afternoon and were taken by officials of the California Yacht Club to the yacht Galatea, which was riding at anchor in the harbor.

The yacht, owned by Cyril Tobin, had been loaned to Moody. It had been fitted up for a two months' cruise which the newly married couple expect to take in waters around South America.

Escorted aboard the yacht by numerous friends from Los Angeles and the yacht clubs of the harbor, the former Miss Wills and the bridegroom, smiling, thanked them and waved what was supposed to be an adieu.

Thirty minutes afterward a small boat put off from the Galatea and in it were Frederick and Mrs. Moody. They were landed at the pier and fifteen minutes later had entered a roadster they had parked in a garage and were headed north.

The captain of the Galatea asserted he had been instructed to be ready to sail "sometime Christmas night."

"They just said they were going to celebrate on dry land somewhere in Hollywood," he asserted.

When the newlywed couple was taken to the Yacht Club upon their arrival in Wilmington the bride evidenced reticence to interviewers.

She admitted plans were in her husband's hands. In fact, she could not remember exactly where they had lunch yesterday but admitted it was a perfectly lovely place. Her face was radiant.

The bridegroom of two days—they were married at Berkeley Monday—set about dragging half a dozen traveling bags, a portable radio and a typewriter out of the back of their car and went off to the yacht to counsel with the skipper, Capt. Ed Watson, a capable navigator and a former wrestling champion of his weight.

The yacht and crew of three has been standing by since the 21st inst. It was well laden with ship's stores, which foretold a trip of some magnitude.

"We really don't know when we will be back," beamed the bride. "I haven't any engagement of any kind until April, when I am to be permitted to exhibit some sketches

FOUR HAVE CHRISTMAS BRIGHTENED

Police Commission Takes Action Favorable to Three Men and Woman

Christmas has a better aspect to four persons today as the result of action taken by the Police Commission yesterday.

The commission yesterday voted to drop the charges against Policewoman Mary Ross at the request of Attorney S. S. Hahn, on his showing that she had nothing to do with giving information to an afternoon newspaper on the parole of Mae Bishop Tanner.

District Attorney Fitts had asked for her dismissal on the ground that she divulged the information and thereby balked his office from ascertaining clews to the murder of David Antik, witness in robbery case. Fitts did not press the charges against her.

Officers S. S. Wylie and Cornelius N. Bradford, dismissed following their indictment in the Harry D. McDonald bribery and extortion charges, but who were acquitted in court on the 21st inst., were ordered restored to duty without loss of pay with the proviso that the commissioners may look over the transcript of the trial and later take action if they see fit.

Barnes F. Knapp, who resigned more than two years ago under fire, after serving fifteen years on the department with a fine record, was ordered restored to the civil-service police eligibility list on the showing by Attorney Paul Taylor that Knapp while grief-stricken over loss of his wife, had taken several drinks for the first and last time in his life and had resigned when taken to task over it. He gave his word that he would never drink.

CHURCHES WILL CELEBRATE

Numerous Services Scheduled For Today; With Special Music Listed on Programs

Although musical programs and Christmas parties for children have been featuring services at hundreds of Los Angeles churches for the last four days, Christmas today will not be without festivities at scores of churches of all denominations which have arranged excellent programs of songs, sermons and pageants for this morning and evening.

Christmas morning programs are becoming increasingly popular in the city of eternal springtime, and many of the churches have prepared programs for as early as 6 a.m. Services at the Catholic, Episcopalian and Lutheran churches always are exceptionally impressive, and thousands of churchgoers are expected to attend these services today to do honor to the Babe of Bethlehem.

PROGRAMS LISTED

Among programs of interest today will be one at St. Matthias Episcopal Church, beginning at 10:30 a.m., when the Christmas Eve music will be repeated and when Gounod's "Noel" also will be sung. The music will be by the choir of men and boys, directed by Ernest Douglas. The sermon will be by Dr. Irving Spencer.

The choir of men and boys of St. Paul's Cathedral, under direction of Dudley W. Fitch, will give a program at the cathedral at 10:30 a.m. today and the concert will be followed by an address by Bishop Stevens. Another service will be conducted at 7:30 a.m. Decorations for the church are in charge of the altar guild, under chairmanship of Mrs. Colin M. Gair.

At St. John's Episcopal Church, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7, 8 and 10 a.m. today, with Dr. George Davidson, the rector, officiating.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

WHEN the college boys come home for Christmas I am always curious to see what new ideas they will bring.

To our house this year they come shouting Mexican folk songs. They are different from anything I have ever heard—and I have heard many . . . songs of the market place—of the war trail.

"Que el Yaqui sabe morir"—the Yaqui who knows how to die.

Another is the song of a lone immigrant who wants to return to "Mexico de mi amor." And who tells—perhaps prophetically—of the fantastic cities that will rise—built by "the bronze race which knows how to die."

GREAT DRAMA

These songs mean much to any thoughtful mind.

A great drama is going on in the world. Underneath the tinkle of the light guitar you can hear the throb and beat of the Aztec drums—the pulse of the Mayan chants—

With the steady relentlessness of the glacier the Indian blood of Mexico is surging up—and overwhelming. The wonderful, lost culture and strength of the submerged people are pushing their way back to the sun.

The tide has turned in Mexico. It faces a future immeasurable in its potentialities.

The Spanish cavalier who stood in his retreat and on his guitar played a tune, dear, is being swept aside by "La raza de bronce que sabe morir"—by the bronze race that knows how to die.

GRAMMATICAL PRAYERS

A speaker at the ministerial association seemed to be very much disturbed because the prayers in the churches are not always in very good English.

I guess it doesn't matter Up There about the grammar. I imagine that the faltered prayer of a little ignorant, tortured soul is listened to just the same. The Great Heart isn't very fussy about split infinitives.

SIC 'EM

I have learned from my wounds not to have any opinions about birth control; but the plans of Mrs. Margaret Sanger indicate that some high excitement in the way of controversy is coming; and I'm unanimously for that, anyhow. Don't pull your punches, orators!

PANTAGES

It would seem as though an epidemic of heart trouble had seized the Pantages family. It got Mrs. P. out of jail, and now prison life is becoming a trifle cloying to papa.

A STRONG TEAM

Japan threatens to take a hand in the troubles of the Orient—as between Russia and China. What China needs is the stabilizing force and discipline of the Japanese military spirit. But it is not a prospect upon which the world can look with much comfort. The unlimited man power of China in control of the experienced militarists of Japan would contribute a team that no nation would hanker about tackling.

MAYOR'S STAFF UNBENDS

Gathering after office hours yesterday, the Mayor's staff surrounded a Christmas tree and had an impromptu party which included the newspaper men covering the City Hall. Miss Marion Voss, one of Mayor Porter's secretaries, wrapped the presents, and W. J. Mosher, executive secretary, enacted the role of Santa Claus.

KERR COMPILES ELECTION DATA

New Registration Begins January 1

House-to-House Canvass to be Conducted

Calendar for 1930 Given in Detail

The election calendar for 1930 and pertinent facts and dates pertaining to the registration of voters, filing of nomination papers for prospective candidates and other data bearing directly on the primary and general elections for the forthcoming year were announced yesterday by William M. Kerr, registrar of voters.

Registration commences on January 1, and in that connection Kerr's statement follows:

NEW REGISTRATION

"All present affidavits of registration expire on the 31st inst. and the new biennial registration of voters begins January 1. The customary house-to-house canvass will be conducted in January, giving voters an opportunity to register at home. Upon the completion of the canvass deputy registrars will be stationed at the principal street corners, in banks, and at the City Hall. As before, during this season the registrar will have branch offices at the City Hall in Long Beach and at the old City Hall at Pasadena.

"In this county the voter is given a receipt when he registers, which is not a requirement of law, but a courtesy on the part of our office. A special request is made that each registrant examine his receipt to see if the information is correct, and save it. An American woman who married an alien between March 2, 1907, and September 22, 1922, has lost her citizenship and can regain it now only by being repatriated, even though she be divorced or her husband dead.

TOTAL PRECINCTS

"In 1930 there will be 1850 Los Angeles city precincts and 1571 county precincts, a total of 3421 precincts in this county, while this registration period which now is closing had 1490 Los Angeles city precincts and 1268 county precincts, a total of 2578.

"The two State elections to be held in 1930 are the State and county primary elections on August 26, and the general election on November 4. The following sixth-class cities will hold their regular elections on April 14 for which the closing date for registration will be March 14, 1930:

"Arcadia, Avalon, Azusa, Bell, Beverly Hills, Claremont, Covina, Culver City, El Monte, El Segundo, Glendora, Hawthorne, Hermosa Beach, Huntington Park, La Verne, Lynwood, Manhattan Beach, Maywood, Monrovia, Montebello, Monterey Park, Redondo Beach, San Fernando, San Gabriel, San Marino, Sierra Madre, Signal Hill, South Gate, South Pasadena, Torrance, Tujunga, Vernon, West Covina and Whittier."

In regard to political affiliations in connection with the registration of a voter, Registrar Kerr quoted the State law as follows:

DECLARATIONS

"At the time of registering and of transferring registration, in all places where the primary election law is in force, each elector shall declare the name of the political party with which he intends to affiliate at the ensuing primary election or elections, and the name of such political parties shall be stated in the affidavit of registration and the index thereto. If the elector declines to state the fact, the fact of such declination shall likewise be stated and no person shall be entitled to vote the ticket of any political party at any primary election, by virtue of such registration, unless he has stated the name of the political party with which he intends to affiliate at the time of such registration. Nor shall he be permitted to vote on behalf of any party or for delegates to the convention of any party other than the party so designated in the registration.

CLOSING DATES

On February 25, according to Kerr's calendar, registrations will close for county school district trustee elections, and on March 14 the registration will close for the sixth-class city elections. The elections will be conducted March 24 and April 14, respectively.

May 22 will be the last day to leave with the Registrar of Voters for examination petitions circulated in Los Angeles county for a new political party to participate in the August primary, while May 18 to 23, inclusive, are the dates on which candidates for judicial offices where more than one is to be elected must make declaration of intention as to which numbered court they will file a declaration of candidacy.

From May 28 to June 21 are the dates to leave nominations with the registrar for examination, certification and filing of declaration of candidacy by candidate, declaration of candidacy by sponsors declaration of acceptance by candidate, of declaration of sponsors, sponsors' certificates and appointment of verification deputies.

The last day to be naturalized or to take up residence in Los Angeles county in order to be eligible to register for the August primary is May 28, according to the calendar.

NEW PARTIES

In the week beginning June 7, Kerr transmits to the Secretary of State statement of total registrations by political party and those who decline to state. This statement is as of June 2. From that statement of all counties the Secretary of State by June 12 determines if there is sufficient registration throughout the State to qualify any new political parties, and that date also shall be the last of which new political parties desiring to participate in the primary may file. By June 17, the Secretary of State notifies all registrars of the eligible parties.

The last date of registration or reregistration after changing residence for the voter to be eligible to vote at the primary is July 26.

Initiative petitions to be submitted at the November election must be filed with the Secretary of State before August 5 and twenty days prior to that date must be left with the registrar of voters for examination.

August 26 is the day of the State primary election. The general election is November 4. Petitions for independent nominations may be circulated August 31 and the petitions filed with the registrar between September 5 and 25.

Candidates at the primary election must file statements of receipts and expenditures by September 10 and the candidates in the general election must file such statements by November 19.

All registration closes on October 4, prior to the general election November 4.

OFFICES TO BE FILLED

Kerr's provisional list of offices for which candidates are to be nominated for State and district offices include Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, member of State Board of Equalization of the Fourth District, Congressional Representatives in the Ninth and Tenth districts, State Senator for the Thirty-eighth District and members of the Assembly in the Fifty-first to Seventy-second districts, inclusive.

The provisional list in the judicial offices include two associate justices of the Supreme Court, an associate justice of the District Court of Appeal of the Second Appellate District, Division One; eleven judges of the Superior Court in positions now held by Judges Archbald, Bishop, Collier, Crawford Fleming, Guerin, Hanby, Hardy Hazlett, Keetch and Shaw.

A Justice of the Peace is to be nominated in Pasadena and in the townships of Alamitos, Antelope, Arnaz, Azusa, Belvedere, Beverly Hills Bixby, Burbank, Calabasas, Catalina, Chavez, Compton, Covina, Dominguez, Downey, El Monte, Fairmont, Franklin, Gardena, Glendale Inglewood, La Brea, La Crescenta, La Rambla, Lomita, Malibu, Monrovia, Montebello, National Home Norwalk, Pasadena, Redondo, Rowland, San Antonio, San Dimas, San Fernando San Gabriel, San Jose Santa Monica, Signal Hill, Soledad South Pasadena, Talamantes, Universal, Venice and Whittier.

In school offices a superintendent of public instruction is to be nominated and in county offices Sheriff Assessor and Supervisors for the First and Third districts.

The provisional list of offices for which candidates are to be elected, according to Kerr's calendar, includes members of the county central committee in the Fifty-first to Seventy-second districts, inclusive.

Nothing New in Comedy

Sketches show Charlie Murray, old-time Irish comedian and film actor, and some of the sure-fire humor stuff of years ago.

HISTORY doesn't record the exact date on which the first comedy pie was hurled, and the present generation will never live to see the last one. So predicts Charlie Murray, former stage comedian, whose Irish characterizations are known to millions of screen fans. Murray has been playing Irish parts since long before Mother Machree started going with the boys and he is still going strong. It would seem, therefore, that a few inside facts from him on what makes audiences laugh should be authoritative. The comedian would be delighted, he said, and he sketched the history of laugh-making for thirty-odd years back.

"There's nothing new in the comedy line," he said, after a brief period of reflection. "The only difference is that, nowadays, we are doing the old gags in a new dress. In other words, we've gotten away from the low-comedy make-ups and tendency of the times is to 'clean up.' For instance, twenty-five or thirty years ago, my old partner, Ollie Mack and myself used to do a lot of knockabout business, in which one of our best gags was my sticking a hatchet in Mack's scalp and leaving it there. This required a specially constructed wig. A heavy steel plate, covered with a layer of cork, protected his head and the hatchet was made of wood with three sharp prongs, which made it look as if it was actually buried in his skull."

"I remember on one occasion the late Barney Ferguson and his partner were doing this piece of business, only they used a heavy cane instead of a hatchet. One night Barney forgot to switch wigs and suddenly remembered his mistake just a few seconds before time for his partner to sock him with the cane. They were singing a comedy song and Barney tried to warn his partner not to hit him. Getting up close to his ear, he sang:

"I fergot t' change th' wig,
I fergot t' change th' wig—
Fer hivven's sake don hit me—
I fergot t' change th' wig!

"In the light of subsequent happenings, I shall always believe that his partner failed to gather his meaning because, at the regular time, he socked Ferguson over the head with the shilalah and he was out for more than an hour. The wigs looked just alike—but what a whale of a difference a steel plate makes!

"A few of the old gags that used to make people laugh were the breakaway pants, the nose that lighted up at intervals, the comedy falls, the comedy pie, the seltzer bottle, and the hatchet-in-the-head business. The seltzer bottle was always sure-fire and it would go just as big today as it ever did. Hokum has been defined as 'darned good material' and every comedian has a few stock gags which he can always call into service at an instant's warning if he feels the necessity."

"Then you don't think, Mr. Murray, that there is anything new under the sun of laughter, so to speak?"

"Don't THINK so?" echoed the comedian, "I KNOW there isn't."

DR. SWAYZE'S RITES TO BE TOMORROW

Friend of Many Officials in Mexican Government Will Rest in Forest Lawn

Funeral rites for Dr. Winfield S. Swayze, retired physician and a personal friend of many high Mexican government officials, will be conducted at 10 a.m. tomorrow at White Memorial Chapel, 304 North Boyle avenue. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Dr. Swayze and his wife, Mrs. Alice M. Swayze also a physician, came to Los Angeles from the East in 1886. Ten years later they went to Guadalajara, Mex., where they remained for twenty-five years, practicing medicine and maintaining a free clinic and dispensary where thousands of persons were treated. They went through two serious revolutions, including the Pancho Villa insurrection, and each time rejected offers that they seek safety in the homes of government officials. Dr. Swayze also laid out and subdivided a forty-acre suburb outside of Guadalajara.

Returning to Los Angeles eight years ago Dr. and Mrs. Swayze had been residing at 130 North Townsend street. Death came to Dr. Swayze at 81 years of age. French & Son are in charge of funeral arrangements.

BOTTLES PILE UP ON POLICE

So Commission's Going to Hunt Safe Place for Storing Seized Supplies of Bootleggers

President Thorpe of the Police Commission yesterday appointed Commissioners Drake, Wehn and himself a committee to investigate where to store the large number of barrels, bottles and other paraphernalia of bootleggers seized in liquor raids by the police department, following the adoption of a resolution ordering the department not to dispose of the seized paraphernalia except by order of the court.

The department heretofore has sold to second-hand dealers bottles and barrels seized from bootleggers and turned the money over to the Police Relief Association fund. Deputy City Attorney Kitzmiller yesterday held this is illegal and that the money should go to the police pension fund.

Commissioners Thorpe and Drake, who seek to file charges against Chief Davis, asserting "inefficiency and neglect of duty," went into the matter at considerable length and quizzed Chief Davis on the procedure. The Chief explained that lack of storage space was the reason for disposing of the paraphernalia as quickly as possible. Otherwise, he said, it would pile up and become a real problem.

Thorpe read part of the transcript of a court case in which a Superior judge questioned the right of the police to dispose of such material summarily, without a court order. He held that the Federal Court procedure was to order it destroyed and not to sell it, otherwise it is liable again to get into the hands of bootleggers for use in further law violations.

Chief Davis pointed out there are 150 supply houses in the city able to furnish all the barrels and bottles needed by bootleggers.

Commissioner Coe wanted to know what the department is to do with all the bootleggers' junk pending a court order.

The motion for a committee to investigate and make a recommendation as to where the material can be safely stored until it is released by the court in future cases was made by Thorpe and seconded by Drake.

CHECK DAMS TO BE PUT IN PARK REGION

Fear of Flood as Sequel to Griffith Park Area Flames Causes Council's Action

After Fire Chief Scott had addressed the City Council and pointed out the danger of debris flooding down Vermont and Western avenues as a result of erosion following the fire in Griffith Park, Council issued instructions to the Board of Public Works to start immediately to construct check dams in the burned-over area.

Chief Scott recounted the experience of Burbank two years ago, when debris chocked streets in the city at the first heavy rain following the Sunset Canyon fire.

Council also asked the County Flood Control District and the Park Department to co-operate in the construction of the check dams.

Dealer Robbed of Christmas Tree Receipts

Robbed of his Christmas tree sales receipts on the day before Christmas was the sad experience of B. H. Tuttle of 1532 Wilshire Boulevard yesterday. At dawn he was taking home $196 which he had received for Yule trees sold at his stand, Beverly Boulevard and Alvarado street. With him was Betty Shirley, his assistant, whom Tuttle was escorting home.

Three men with revolvers confronted Tuttle and Miss Shirley and robbed him of all his Christmas tree money.

STOCKING HOLDS COLLEGE COURSE

Novel Christmas Present Of S.C. Branch Tuition Made by Santa

In somebody's stocking this morning is a novel Christmas gift, a card entitling the recipient to a quarter's course at University College, downtown night division of the University of Southern California. Santa Claus donned collegiate cap and gown when he made that particular visit last night.

This unusual present was revealed when Miss Elizabeth Hill, assistant to Dean Ernest W. Tiegs was asked over the telephone if it would be possible for a person to present a friend with a prearranged registration as a Christmas gift. The request was unique, but it could be done. And was.

Gary Cooper's Mother Hurt in Auto Collision

Gary Cooper's mother, Mrs. Alice Cooper, was injured severely in an automobile crash last night when her car collided with another at Hollywood Boulevard and Hayworth avenue. The film actor's mother, who is about 50 years of age and lives at 7511 Franklin avenue, was accompanied by Mrs. Marion Schultee, 38, of 1521 Marmont avenue. Their car was struck by an automobile driven by Harry Cording of 2034 North Argyle avenue, according to the report of Officers Pearson and Kavanagh.

Mrs. Cooper received a possible fracture of the right shoulder, as well as lacerations of face and scalp. Mrs. Schultee's back was sprained and she received possible internal injuries. Ambulance Surgeons Johnson and Tinker took the women to the Dickey & Cass emergency hospital for treatment.

WHAT THE POLICE ARE DOING

(For the purpose of acquainting Los Angeles citizens with the working of the city police department, and the results of police here, The Times is printing herewith the sixth of a short series dealing with the subject.)

ounce of prevention is worth pound of cure, is another old saying that could be applied aptly to work of the emergency and squads which operate out central detective bureau.

squad, under the command Acting Captain of Detectives L. Justin, consists of two and forty-nine patrolmen plain clothes. The monthly re disclose that during the five between July 1 last and the the squad has responded calls, made 131 investigations, 110 suspects for felonies ninety-two for misdemeanor crimes, and recovered $10,005 worth of stolen property.

Out of the arrests, the reports show fifty-five convictions, fifty releases, sixty-five releases to other squads for investigation, and thirty-two cases pending at the time the reports were made.

Outside their regular patrol duty, members of the squad spent 3868 hours in policing parades and other civic entertainments, 2000 hours on stake-outs for other divisions, and 3500 hours as bodyguards to State witnesses.

Now, if Mr. Average Citizen has had any experience in a section of the city where the gas and light companies have been tearing up the streets, he may take a chance on his rheumatism and find the quarters of the vagrancy squad. They are located in two small rooms on the top or third floor of the old Central Station Building. They were once the chambers of a police judge.

There he will find a squad of twenty-one detectives under the command of Acting Captain of Detectives "Tommy" Learnihan. Despite the lack of elevator service, the monthly reports show that the members have reached the streets often enough to answer 307 calls, make ninety-four investigations, arrest 2845 suspects, and recover $1404 worth of stolen property in the same five months. Of the arrests, forty-two were felonies and 2803 misdemeanors.

And here's another instance where figures prove significant. The reports show that 2617 convictions were obtained, thirty suspects released, eighty-three dismissed, sixty-six found not guilty, and there are forty-seven cases pending. This is a high percentage of convictions.

The squad spent 1660 hours in court on duty and 530 off duty.

Today's Bible Text

"Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man." James 1, 13.

REAL SPEECH

The talkies provide the fans with what they may well call a speaking likeness of their favorite.

IN THE FOG

The fog was so dense in London the other day that a funeral procession got lost. At last accounts the pallbearers were nervously feeling about for the hearse.

NO SUCH PERSON

People who are curious as to what Mrs. Grundy will say in Washington are advised that there is no Mrs. Grundy. The new Senator from Pennsylvania is mentioned as being unmarried.

IN THE FOG

The East has been having the densest fogs that most of that section has known. Possibly this is another thing that may be safely blamed upon Congress. Washington seems to be the parking place for the big blind fogs.

TERRORS OF TRAFFIC

A Missouri man had to pay $100 for riding his horse into an auto. It seems that some of these motor cars are not properly protected against the hazards of the road. An irate and impetuous horse is something to be reckoned with.

WHAT PERCENTAGE?

According to the annual report of the registrar of traffic in Massachusetts, the percentage of pedestrians killed in that State is "much too high." This naturally raises the question, just what percentage of slain pedestrians would be about right?

NEED MORE JAILS

So far as the office of Atty.-Gen. Mitchell is concerned the greatest need of the nation is $8,000,000 worth of new Federal prisons. If we don't have bigger and better hoosegows some of our naughtiest criminals will continue to run at large.

HEART DAMAGES

A Michigan woman of 43 years has just been awarded $450,000 damages in a breach-of-promise suit. This is a noble valuation of the affections of a spinster and should give a lot of chorus girls a thrill. The wonderful thing is that the judgment is thought to be good.

AN ASTUTE AUTHOR

He's publishing a novel bold,
Of nature more erotic
Than average stories that are told,
Domestic or exotic.
Reviewers' knocks will not help much;
Here's what he counts the most on—
For whacking sales in great big bales—
He'll have it banned by Boston.

THE LIE DETECTOR

Prof. August Vollmer, who is now head of the department of criminology at Chicago University, has found a young inventor who has further perfected the famous lie detector which was a feature of the police equipment here during the regime of Vollmer as chief. There are a series of spun steel tambours or elastic drums which register and record the very faintest of human pulsations. When the machine is connected with the blood current the slightest blush may be recorded as the beating of a rug.

A SOCIAL QUERY

We may not be having government by commission, but we are having government advised by commissions. The President has named another of his favorite groups of fact-finders. This is made up of authorities who will seek to compute and classify the changes that have been wrought in the social life of America. They will determine the causes and see what influences can be brought to bear for their improvement. Very happily the expense of this inquiry will be born by the Rockefeller Foundation, which carries on a sleepless vigil on behalf of humanity. Therefore, the public can make no complaint over the possible cost of this particular commission. The fact that it is named by President Hoover will give it an important and official standing.

THE NATIVITY

History is the warp and woof of a few transcendental lives woven on the shuttle of man's common everyday experiences. A certain deathless few have strung bright colored and indestructible threads into the fabric of the garment worn today by the nameless and unknown many. We honor them because—as the saying goes—they made history. And by common acceptance we perpetuate their memories by celebrating in divers ways the day of the year on which they were born into the world.

In this way we have red-lettered certain dates on the calendar in honor of those who have wrought well in the cause of human happiness. Some of these dates are restricted to benefits won for one race or nation at some turning point in their fortunes. Some include a large part of the human race and have crossed international boundaries. The more any one individual has achieved in bringing the greater good to the greater number, the more widespread is his natal recognition.

Anniversaries, birthdays unerased by the angel of death, are high lights in the cone of history and they grow brighter as the pyramid ascends. At the apex of the cone gleams one clear date that eclipses all others, even those that most nearly approach it. On that shining point there is no room for another such memory; there never has been, there never will be. It stands alone, illuminating the world.

Other birthdays are but birthdays, other anniversaries are merely anniversaries. To this one day we have given a name ungranted to any other birthday or anniversary to commemorate the leaders and messiahs of the race. On this one day alone, December 25, has the world universally conferred the distinguishing title of THE NATIVITY.

Those who approach nearest to the sublimity of the heights occupied by the Babe of Bethlehem are still so far away from the Light of the World that their rays are but those of candles in comparison. Of Abraham Lincoln we may say with truth that possibly God could have created a better man, but that certainly he never did. Yet February 12 is celebrated for one day only and in any large way almost entirely by his own countrymen. February 22, July 4 are notable dates. Shakespeare is acknowledged to be the world's most inspired poet. Yet not one person in a thousand recalls the date of his birth. The birthday of no temporal King long survives his passing.

There is only one anniversary universally honored by all, irrespective of race, nationality, creed, color or religious sentiment. There is only one anniversary for which preparations are made weeks before the event, that absorbs the attention of so vast a multitude, that awakens emotions in so many breasts and leaves so indelible a mark on our common civilization. And that anniversary is Christmas Day, the Nativity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

It matters nothing that pragmatists tell us with solemn assurance that there is no record of proof that a child was born to Mary in Bethlehem on December 25, that the date was decided upon by ecclesiasts long after the Gospels had been translated into three different languages. It matters nothing for heavy-browed mathematicians to assure us that the Star of Bethlehem has no place in the study of the sidereal system. Even the most cold-blooded stickler for the facts in the case is carried away by the rush of enthusiasm of the Yuletide season and joins with the faithful and sentimentalist in the celebration of Christmas Day.

Such evidence might have weight in writing the histories of earth's celebrated men and might call for closer research. No one is going to search the archives in Jerusalem to find the birth certificate of the Babe, born in a manger because there was no room for the mother in the inn. No one cares to work out by long tables of figures the problem of a possible conjunction of planets that might have accounted for a supernal star appearing in the sky on December 25 during the reign of Herod the Great.

Millions of men and women for 2000 years have accepted the Bethlehem story of the Gospels. They have accepted no other event in the history of the human race on such unsupported evidence. And therein lies the difference between a passing birthday or anniversary, and THE ETERNAL NATIVITY.

VICTORY FOR GOOD SENSE

Eight members of the City Council having demonstrated that they cannot be intimidated, the city obtains for the Board of Water and Power Commissioners a man who should be a highly useful member. The confirmation of Frank H. Brooks will no doubt be a disappointment to Dr. John R. Haynes and to the Los Angeles Record, but a majority of the voters of the city, who want their department run on business-like lines and not made a political plaything, will approve it.

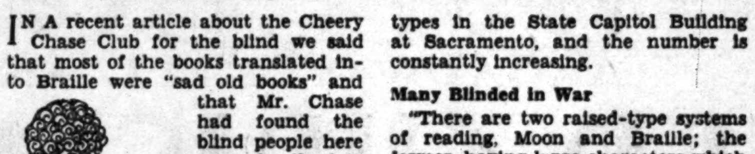
Commissioner Brooks as a member of the Water and Power Board may not be able to block all the political schemes that are being engineered within it, but at least he will be in a position to insist that a great deal of the waste and inefficiency of the Power Bureau be done away with.

Not one of his opponents in the City Council was able to say a word against his character or his ability. The only argument advanced against him was that he had not bound himself to "harmonize"—in other words, that he had not delivered his vote and voice in advance to Dr. Haynes. Harmonize, of course, is a polite word for "program." It is unnecessary to define "program;" Los Angeles has had abundant examples of it in the past.

Threats of The Record to have recall proceedings started against Councilmen who voted for Brooks are as silly as the rest of the campaign it waged against him.

BUSINESSLIKE WAYS

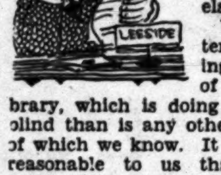
It took President Hoover about seven seconds to sign the measure which provided the administration's cut in the income tax. It was Santa Claus stuff, but the Chief did his task without any fuss and feathers. There was no ceremony and even the fearless cameramen were absent.



The LEE SIDE O' L·A

BY Lee Shippey

IN A recent article about the Cheery Chase Club for the blind we said that most of the books translated into Braille were "sad old books" and that Mr. Chase had found the blind people here eager for the latest prize stories or best-seller novels.



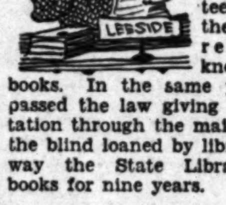
We had no intention of reflecting on the efforts of the State Library, which is doing more for the blind than is any other State library of which we know. It merely seemed reasonable to us that only those books which have stood the test of at least a few years can be transcribed into Braille, and that such sturdy old classics as "Pilgrim's Progress" naturally are transcribed first. But Miss Catherine Morrison, home teacher for the blind in this territory, is an intensely loyal young woman who wants the world to know how much California is doing for its blind. So she makes a mountain out of our careless statement—and forces us, in fairness, to quote the following statement, prepared by her.

We really think she's putting one over on us. But what can a poor columnist do when a woman who is doing one of the finest jobs possible comes in and pretends to be grieved to the heart, and then submits a carefully prepared statement which is darned interesting?

So here's the statement:

State Library's Work for Blind

"A department of books for the blind was opened in the California State Library at Sacramento in 1904 by James L. Gillis, then State Librian. This was done at the instigation of Miss Kate M. Foley, a blind woman of Los Angeles, who had done volunteer teaching of the raised-type reading, and knew the need for books. In the same year, Congress passed the law giving free transportation through the mails of books for the blind loaned by libraries. In this way the State Library circulated books for nine years.



Ranks Third

"In 1914 the teaching of the blind in their homes became a part of library extension work, for the purpose of increasing circulation. Miss Foley worked for three and a half years in Los Angeles, giving free instruction to many blind people. In 1917 she was transferred to San Francisco and vicinity and I succeeded her in the southern territory. As a result of fifteen years of home teaching, the State Library now serves 2500 readers with an average circulation of 2900 books a month. With this record, the California State Library now ranks third among libraries in the United States circulating books for the blind. There are 23,000 volumes in the raised types in the State Capitol Building at Sacramento, and the number is constantly increasing.

Many Blinded in War

"There are two raised-type systems of reading, Moon and Braille; the former, having large characters which are more readily learned by old people. Because of this type it has been possible for several Civil War veterans at Sawtelle to enjoy the books. One man, who learned to read at 75, counted his books to 700, and then lost track of the number. He read biography, travel, poetry and fiction, and enjoyed novels by Mitchell, Fox, Bacheller, Brady and Jack London One pupil, who learned to read at 81 said to me, 'I don't believe you ever had a pupil who enjoys the books more than I do.'

BRAILLE
LEESIDE

"There are many more books in the Braille type, since smaller space is required to print them. More than ten years ago a club of ladies in Oakland began transcribing into Braille up-to-date articles and stories from the current magazines, and sending them to the State Library for binding. The return of many blind soldiers from France has been an impetus to Braille printing.

Helpful Organizations

"The Red Cross has now 1000 transcribers all over the country putting up-to-date books into Braille. The Lions' Clubs are financing the printing of many Braille books throughout the country. Two presses are active in this city. The Ziegler Magazine in Braille has been bringing current events to blind readers for the past twenty-two years. In the library catalogues are listed books by Willa Cather, Ferber, Cobb, Curwood, Zane Grey, Rinehart, Tarkington, Kyne and Terhune."

Any blind people who wish to learn more may do so at the Los Angeles Public Library or from Miss Morrison, who lives at 951 South Kenmore.

Christmas Trees for Blind

We attended the annual Christmas party of the Cheery Chase Club the other day, and came away wondering at the cleverness and courage with which these blind people carry on. It was a fancy-dress party, for folks who, we sighted people would say, could not see. But they did "see" every costume, when it was described to them and sometimes when they felt it. They also "saw" the lighted and decorated Christmas tree, and Santa Claus. They "saw" everything as beautiful and perfect, not observing any of the flaws we sighted persons sometimes find. And they seemed happier in their Christmas party than most of us are in ours.

MERRIE CHRISTMAS

THE MINNEWA BELL CASE

In its finding that there was no criminal carelessness on the part of Miss Minnewa Bell, daughter of Alphonzo Bell, the grand jury has cleared up a distressing situation, resulting from what had every appearance of spiteful persecution of the Bell family by the Hearst newspapers. The automobile accident in which Miss Bell was involved was investigated with considerable thoroughness by a Coroner's jury, which found no evidence of blame. The grand jury has given emphasis to that verdict, by a unanimous report.

There is a deplorable number of automobile accidents resulting in death or injury, but it is not to be reduced by selecting some victim for extraneous reasons. An example thus set would be worse than useless, since it would lack ever-handed justice and probably would produce a revulsion through which really guilty persons would escape punishment.

This is not to be taken as a criticism of the District Attorney for presenting the matter to the grand jury. His action was the best way to still clamor, and was entirely proper under the circumstances. The general public will regret, a regret he presumably shares, that such action was made necessary. There also will be general sympathy with Miss Bell and her family, who have gone through a trying experience which there was no reason to make worse.

A MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY

Fiction has become reality in the life of Leon Trotsky of Russia. Sending others into exile in the days of his power, he is expatriated today. Not only driven out by the Communists, he is not wanted in America. He joins the long list of undesirables at home in the history of the world.

Former Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany is peeved at Doorn. Manuel of Portugal is living in a villa at Twickenham, near London, without a crown. Aga Khan, an Indian Prince, is persona non grata with his folks and is trying to while the time away in Paris. He has made a fortune in the stock market. The former Sultan of Turkey is still in Switzerland. King George II of Greece is wandering about Europe with no permanent place to lay his royal head. And Prince Carol of Rumania is absent in his amours in Paris and his boy is wielding the scepter on his throne.

However, this is not the only age of exiles. Napoleon spent his later life on the Island of St. Helena. Hannibal, one of the greatest generals of ancient days, died in a foreign land estranged from countrymen.

Among great writers who have been banished, Victor Hugo stands pre-eminent. Dante died in exile and Ovid, the ancient poet of Rome, wrote some verse that was displeasing to Emperor Augustus and had to forsake his own shores. Vicente Blasco Ibanez died in distant parts because his opinions did not suit the powers of Spain. Voltaire lampooned the Duke of Orleans and was forced to fly from Paris. It proved to be an endurance flight.

While Leon Trotsky may not be worthy of the illustrious company he keeps as a man without a country, he is listed with Aristides, Themistocles and Thucidides. Once the tiger of France, Clemenceau, was banished, and even former Premier Nitti of Italy in order to live at all, is living in France. Grand Duke Nicholas died an alien and Trotsky is reaping what he has sown.

THE WATCH ON THE STAIR

By James J. Montague

What's this—a step upon the stair
Before the break of day—
A little figure standing there
To watch across the way,
To catch the sound of pattering hoofs
And bells that tinkle clear
While over hills and trees and roofs
A shining sleigh draws near?

How can it be that any child
In these progressive times
Is still deluded and beguiled
By ancient tales and rhymes?
How, in the name of common sense
Can we let tender youth
Place such abiding confidence
In such a great Untruth?

Some day, when reason buds and grows
He'll see with clearer eyes,
And then what will he think of those
Who told him wicked lies?
And let him rise at break of dawn,
On many a Christmas Day,
To watch across the shadowy lawn
For Santa Claus's sleigh?

But somehow I take no alarm
Lest that small person there
Will suffer spiritual harm
While waiting on the stair.
I may of reason be bereft,
Yet I rejoice because
There still are hordes of youngsters left
To watch for Santa Claus!

Call For Adjuster

CORONADO BEACH, Dec. 19. [To the Editor of The Times:] The prosperity of seven States is delayed and imperiled by the Boulder Dam controversy.

Why not requisition the services of Mr. Owen Young to attempt conclusion of the dispute.

His prestige as a settler of large negotiations should weigh with Arizona and California.

Compromise and concession under fair arbitration beat all the lawsuits in existence.

IRVINE W. BIGGAR.

A Loyal Churchman

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In paying high tribute to the memory of the late J. M. Elliott and in recounting his distinguished services to the community, there are many who gratefully recall his loyalty to the cause of religion in this community. Mr. Elliott came to Los Angeles a young man of 26 in 1870. He at once took his part in his church, singing in the choir and becoming superintendent of the Sunday-school. This was in the little Episcopal Church which stood at the corner of Temple and New High streets, the first non-Roman church in Los Angeles. In 1872 he was elected to the vestry. In 1885 he was elected treasurer of St. Paul's Church (now St. Paul's Cathedral) and held this office until his death. This record of over forty-four years is notable.

HARRY BEAL,
Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral.

Some Discrepancy

SANTA PAULA, Dec. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The mental gymnastics of that fearless champion of righteousness, "Bob" Shuler, are always a matter of interest and wonder. We now learn that, under oath, he made two contradictory statements as to who owns radio station KGEF. In one he declared that he is the sole owner of the property, but in the other he solemnly swore that it belongs to the Trinity Methodist Church and should, therefore, be exempted from taxation. Which statement is correct? In any event, the taxes which he, or the church, evades on this property—which was very conservatively assessed at $6500—are paid indirectly by every taxpayer in the city; even the many victims of Brother Shuler's more or less irresponsible tongue cannot escape. It is a subsidized station.

Forgotten War Heroes

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23.—[To the Editor of The Times:] As my small daughter and I stood on the corner of our wonderful city yesterday amid the lovely Christmas decorations a man came toward us, hobbling or rather wabbling. How he managed still to walk I could scarcely understand, he was so disfigured.

"What is the matter with him?" my little 6-year-old girl asked. "He was crippled in the war," I answered. "Didn't he know better than to go?" she said. I did not tell her that he was drafted—forced to go—and be maimed—to have his body wrecked until it is a torture to have to live in it.

I know a large number of soldiers forced to live in misery within their crippled bodies, unable to earn a living wage. A Christian gift we owe our veterans is a permanent pension.

Dog Lovers

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 21.—[To the Editor of The Times:] "The Life of Riley" has found such a tender spot in our hearts we wish we might preserve the inimitable expressions of dogdom in Riley's life, hence as a gratis and unsolicited suggestion, hope you can see your way to make a little book of them for distribution. Have discovered there are many dog lovers in this world.

Trusting Riley will have a Merry Christmas.

MISTLETOE

BY W. L. Y. DAVIS

The mistletoe will catch you, if you don't watch out. It hangs seductively from the archway; it sways defiantly from the chandelier. It knows no sex and offers no immunity to age or youth. Nobody is safe from its sacred snare.

It grows high in the naked sycamores in the washes and offers little hope to the weakling. Like success, you have to climb to get it.

But its rich green is embossed by the gray of autumn. It is a parasite and feeds on the life of others. However, youth is happy for its predatory nature and emulates it in the theft of kisses

When everything else has surfeited at the Christmas dinner, when the goose no longer hangs high, when all the stale jokes have been cracked along with the other nuts, when all the games have begun to pall and every zest has lost its quest; then hangs the mistletoe waiting for its quarry.

Some brazenly seek its sanctuary and others evade its sweet influences. However, it hangs over all and offers opportunity for all. Even the fearful sooner or later get a chance.

It may be nothing but a succulent growth; but custom has loaded it with possibilities. It is one of the self-starters of the race.

CAROLS AND PEACE

BY CHARLES COKE WOODS

Nothing has done more to keep faith and hope and love alive than the Christmas carols. And more than anything else these three experiences make life worth living. If these were but dreams we might well fill our eyes and ears and hearts with them. Agnosticism has no constructive contribution to human need. Let it be buried, it has long been a dead issue. Doubt pulls downward on every load and backward on every forward moving chariot of progress. Faith has dug the canals, tunneled the mountains, sailed rivers and seas, and set alight the lamps of civilization. Faith is a great intellectual and spiritual affirmation that shouts its victories in song. Hope is the other member of the triumphant trio. Nothing is so helpless as a hopeless heart.

So much of the world is dying for "a little bit of love." Love is not the fruit of human genius, but the gift divine. It is not a problem, but a solution. It is not an explanation, but an experience. One of the world's best thinkers and singers said, "Love is as real as a brick." The chief apostle of the Gospels declared, "Now abideth faith, hope, love, but the greatest of these is love." The Christmas carols stress these three greatnesses once a year for several golden days and starry nights. At such times the dimmest eyes catch a gleam of light and the dullest ears the joyous strains of a new music. It is well that the world's old "shouting and tumult dies" at least a little while to give place to the symphonies of the carols. The carols at Christmas will sing laughter into the hovels and huts and into palaces and mansions where joyous laughter comes none too often. The carols sing to everybody, rich and poor.

When the carols sing they awaken memories of hurt hearts which we would like to help heal. The rush and rattle of business made us forget, and we have needed this reminder of the carols. Our own ecstasies of health and success threw a glamour over our eyes till we failed to see the drawn faces of poverty and suffering where the daily ration is the bread of sorrow.

The Christmas peace has never before meant so much to our world. The pacts of peace have been signed by the leaders of the nations. In January of the New Year the five great powers, Great Britain, the United States, France, Italy and Japan, are meeting in London for another Peace Conference. And the carol written by Edmund H. Sears with music by Richard S. Willis sounds a note of prophecy at such a time as this in the world's history. It is one of the most beautiful of all the Christmas carols. In a thousand schoolrooms, halls and churches, and over the radios, this carol has been singing to usher in our Christmastide of 1929. It has a peculiarly happy start in the first familiar lines beginning, "It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old." Little children are caught by the magic of it as much as adults.

The third stanza of this carol sings as if its authors might have been inspired by the Hoover and MacDonald meeting in front of the Virginia fireplace, or by the signing of the Peace Pact in Paris or by the advance news of the "Five-Power" meeting to be held in London January, 1930. What a fine start it would give to that conference to open with the words of this carol

"Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world hath suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love song which they bring—
Oh, hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!"

President Hoover, in accord with England's Premier, is saying, "It is time, even if war should come, to cease the slaughter of mothers and children." He declares further as a statesman of the seas that food ships and hospital ships must be immune from military ravages. It is the utterance of statesmanship grown to greatness by the largest humanitarian ministries. It is the living echo of His voice, the voice of "The newborn King," who said long ago, "Let the children come unto me," and who said, "Put up thy sword. They that draw the sword shall perish by the sword." It is the sunrise of the new day with the clarions of Peace calling around the world.

"Too good to be true?" No, just good enough to be true. The largest hope is nearest right. The farthest pessimism is the farthest wrong. Nations recede by destructive negatives. They make progress by constructive affirmatives. War has always been the world's most insane negative. Good will has always been humanity's most rational affirmative. "Peace on earth, good will to men," that is what the carols sing and the chorus that sings with them was never so large as it is now in this year of our Lord.

YOUTH-BUILT UNIVERSITY

The University of Chicago is thirty-eight years old. Its new president, Robert Maynard Hutchins, is 30 years of age. When William R. Harper was called as its first president at 34, he accepted on condition that he be permitted to go out after a $1,000,000 endowment from John D. Rockefeller if possible. The board had thought of asking John D. for $100,000. Harper got $600,000 from him on condition that the people of Chicago raise the other $400,000, which they did. Now President Hutchins at 30 steps in to run an institution with assets of approximately $90,000,000, with an annual budget of more than $6,000,000, a faculty of 750, and 14,500 students. Quite a showing for thirty-eight years and a monument to a man who had an idea and believed in it hard enough.—[Capper's Weekly.

Americanism: Sinning in secret; kidding yourself with the theory that hypocrisy is a virtue because you are a good example in public.

Of course good people who go to heaven can't come back. You know how good people act when they get away from home.

And we read about a lady who bought an electric horse, without consulting her husband, in order to exercise her initiative. Ho, hum.

Farwell, old year! As you depart, to let your blithe successor start upon its promising career, I think you've been a good old year. But nearly everyone I know is earning good and ample dough; few are so poor they cannot drive their cars with pistons four or five; few are so poor they do not know the blessings of the radio. The coin he lost he never had, and so his plight was not so bad. But men of sense and judgment fine, who put their kopecks down in brine and bought good bonds and things like those, avoided all such grievous throes. 'Tis true hot weather hurt the corn, and farmers wished they were not born; some cornfields shriveled in a night, but other crops came through all right, the cows gave milk, the hens laid eggs, enough to fill the farmers' kegs, the apple trees were loaded down with fruit they marketed in town, and in the end, most everywhere, things turned out right side up with care. "SEA APOSTLESHIP" PURPOSE REVEALED

Rev. J. E. Rockliff

PRIEST ON MISSION TO ALL PORTS

He Arrives Here on Tour of World Founding Group of Religious Centers

Rev. J. E. Rockliff believes he is the world's most sea-going dominie. He was an arrival yesterday aboard the Panama Mail liner Colombia from New York, on the Pacific Coast for the first time in his herculean task of establishing branches of his Apostleship of the Sea in every seaport around the globe.

Father Rockliff for two-score years was a British shipmaster, later adopting the cloth when his inspiration of aid for Catholic seafarers came to him. The Apostleship of the Sea, of which he is the founder, is an agency for promoting the spiritual welfare of Catholic seamen throughout the world. Father Rockliff's immediate mission on the Coast is to establish a branch of the order at San Francisco.

"When I started going to sea as a boy a half century ago, there were but scant opportunities for a devout sailor to keep touch with the faith," he explained. "It is my hope to bring the Catholic Church into intimate touch with every Catholic seafarer in the world, a great advancement over the old days of the windjammers."

CHURCH RITES SET FOR TODAY

celebrated at 11 a.m. today at St. Mary's Liberal Catholic Church, 710 West Adams street. A healing service will be conducted Friday evening.

Members of Highland Park Lutheran Church will meet for a special service at 6 p.m. today.

Services at St. James' Episcopal Church will be conducted at 8 a.m. today.

PARTY FOR CHILDREN

Jay Wellington, in charge of the Mission Garden, Mt. Washington, announces a party for children and a musical and speaking program at the garden this evening. A service in charge of Swami Yogananda will be conducted at 8 p.m. today at Mt. Washington Center. Selections will be rendered on musical instruments from India. At Mt. Calvary English Evangelical Lutheran Church services in English will be conducted at 6 a.m. and 11 a.m., and a sermon in German will be preached at 9 a.m.

Services in the Norwegian language will be conducted at Our Savior's Evangelical Lutheran Church at 10 a.m. today, while the services at 11 a.m. will be in English. Services at 11 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. today will be conducted at Angelica Lutheran Church, Fourteenth street and Burlington avenue. Sunday-school Christmas festivities will feature the program at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Rev. Charles T. Murphy of Amanda Chapel, Carthay Center, announces services today at 7:45 a.m. and 10 a.m. A community Christmas program will be given at the church Friday evening.

Dudley Buck's cantata, "The Coming of the King," given at First Methodist Church Sunday, will be repeated at that church Friday evening and Sunday evening.

CATHOLIC SERVICES

With special music, and a ritual of unusual sublimity, Christmas midnight mass was celebrated in nearly all the ninety Catholic churches of the city. At St. Vibiana's Cathedral the regular choir was augmented by an ensemble of twenty voices both for the solemn high mass at midnight and that at 10:30 a.m. this morning. Low masses at the cathedral will be said at 6, 7, 8:30 and 9:30 a.m., and 12:15 p.m.

Rt. Rev. Bishop John J. Cantwell will preside at the 10:30 o'clock mass as well as the vesper services at the cathedral. At 8 p.m. there will be a sermon and special benediction services.

CHARMING HOSTESS AT TEA

She Entertains Noted Woman Flyer

[Mauray studios]

Mrs. J. R. Maddux

ONE of the charming hostesses of last week was Mrs. J. R. Maddux who entertained Friday afternoon with a tea at her home, 49 Fremont Place, honoring her house guest, Miss Amelia Earhart, who is leaving shortly for the East. Christmas motif was charmingly carried out in the decorations and appointments.

Society

by JUANA NEAL LEVY

Merry Christmas to everybody, and all the blessing of a prosperous New Year—such is the greeting between friends and even among casual acquaintances, for at this season and especially this day of days all hearts are joyous and all are filled with the spirit of giving.

Many large Christmas parties are given today, among them that of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant, their daughter, Miss Susanna, and son, Ernest Albert Bryant, Jr., whose Christmas tree parties each year are among the loveliest of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin Rogers are having their usual Christmas buffet luncheon at their lovely new home in Beverly Hills, where they moved a little more than a year ago. Their guests include old neighbors from the old St. James Park home, where they lived for so many years, and the new members of the Crescent Drive home in Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Godfrey Holterhoff is having a Christmas dinner and tree this evening, the guests singing Christmas carols around the great fire in the library, while the lighted Christmas tree is set in the solarium adjoining.

Last evening charming Miss Narcissa Wrenn, daughter of the Harold Brent Wrenns of Pasadena, gave a Christmas Eve dancing party at the Valley Hunt Club, when the special guests of honor included Miss Gabriel Wright, Miss Catherine Burnham and Miss Katherine Armstrong, while the young hostess was assisted by her parents and her brother, John Henry Wrenn.

Tomorrow evening Miss Helen Hunter, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter of Pasadena, is giving a dancing party at the Valley Hunt Club, coming home from the Westover School in Middlebury, Ct., last week to pass the holidays with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O. McLaughlin of South Figueroa street are also having a Christmas dinner for their family, including Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tracey St. John, and their son, Eugene McLaughlin St. John, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cunningham and their son, Howard, Jr., while the son of the house, Edward H. McLaughlin, and Mrs. McLaughlin and their three children, Mary Cecile, Edward, Jr. and Edith Agnes, are in San Francisco, where they motored to pass the holidays with Mrs. McLaughlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Brehm and their daughters, Miss Margaret Huntington and Miss Harriet Huntington, are giving a dancing party tomorrow evening at their home in San Marino, while Miss Mary McArthur, who has come home from the Sarah Lawrence College in Bronxville, N. Y., was the charming hostess at a dancing party Monday evening at the Biltmore.

Mrs. Albert C. Bilicke is giving a dinner party at her West Adams-street home this evening, her guests including Dr. and Mrs. John Moore Schmoele and their daughter, Joan Bilicke de Roulet, Mr. and Mrs. Constant Bilicke and Archie Bilicke.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murphy and their daughter and sister Miss Bernardine Murphy and Miss Sue Sinnott are remaining in town for Christmas, although they had planned to go to their lovely home in Pebble Beach, but will not go up until New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gephart Mayler of St. James Park are to be hosts at breakfast New Year's Day, later motoring over to the Rose Bowl in Pasadena for the football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Porter Graves (Katherine Banning) are giving a family dinner party at their Madre-avenue home in Pasadena today, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brent Banning, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Brent Banning, Mr. and Mrs. William Phineas Banning and their daughter, Evangeline Victoria Banning, and the children of the house, Francis Porter, Jr., Jane Banning and Selwyn Jackson Graves.

Christmas at Yosemite

The merry family of Squire Bracebridge, an old English gentleman described in the story, "Christmas," written by Washington Irving, will preside over the Christmas dinner today at the Ahwahnee in Yosemite. The story will be produced by Ansel E. Adams, a talented young musician, while Dr. Don Tresidder will take the part of the squire, and 400 costumed diners will be the guests of the Bracebridge family.

Among the Southern Californians expected for dinner are Mrs. Frank Meline, Edward Malcolm Bryant of 2415 East Second street, Long Beach; E. P. Consigny of Beverly Hills, Miss Lelia Kaufman of 234 South Norton avenue, Mrs. E. S. Ringeman of 221 South Lucerne Boulevard, Mrs. F. M. Harding of 429 North Larchmont Boulevard, Ludwig Erb, J. E. Coberly, William Moeller, Owen B. Churchill, L. W. Eley, Harry C. Gifford of 415 South Serrano avenue, Mrs. W. F. Howard, W. Reinhardt, William C. MacDuffie, Mrs. John Hughes of 1009 North Stanley avenue, Mrs. George E. Naylon of 301 North Rockingham Road, Dr. Anders Peterson of 1136 West Sixth street, and Mrs. E. C. Hamilton and V. R. Wilbur of Long Beach.

Acord's Woman Friend Convicted in Liquor Case

Mrs. Marian Morrell, arrested with Art Acord, film cowboy, on liquor charges at her home at 652 North Vermont avenue, was found guilty of possession by Municipal Judge MacCoy yesterday. She will be sentenced January 7. Police still are searching for Acord, who jumped his $500 bail and failed to appear for trial.

The pair, according to Deputy City Prosecutor Avery, were arrested after Milton Moore, taxi driver, complained that he had been thrown out of Mrs. Morrell's apartment when he attempted to collect fare from them. The officers entered and reported finding Acord with a bottle in each hand and several more in the apartment, Avery said.

Beverly Hills Trees Twinkle

More than 1200 growing Christmas trees were ablaze last night in Beverly Hills's yuletide display, which also included 1,000,000 electric lights. These displays twinkled and beamed Christmas cheer in the town and on 100 estates of noted motion-picture folk.

R. Ellis Wales of the Chamber of Commerce, in making this announcement, estimated that 50,000 automobiles drove through Beverly Hills last night while their passengers viewed the display, reaching from 200 to 1000 feet above sea level.

SPOOKY PECK OUT A NEW HOME

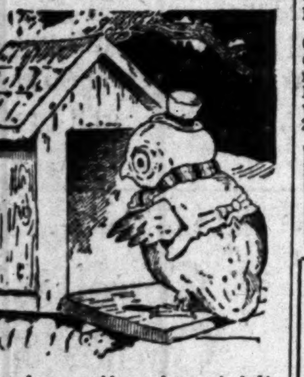
Who is he who knows his mind;
Alas, 'tis seldom such you find.
—Spooky the Screech Owl.

Spooky the Screech Owl was a busy little Owl this night. He had made up his mind that he had got to find a new home. He meant to find it before morning. He wanted to be able to move right into it as soon as daylight should appear. So Spooky was looking over all the likely places for a home.

"I don't want to leave the Old Orchard," said Spooky. "No, sir, I don't want to leave the Old Orchard. I've lived in it ever since I came here and there is no reason for leaving it now if I can find any kind of a house. I can go over to the Green Forest, but I don't want to go over there. I wish Farmer Brown and Farmer Brown's Boy didn't take such good care of their trees. When I first came here there were plenty of holes. Now it's hard work to find a hole big enough for Jenny Wren."

Spooky looked everywhere through the Old Orchard. He couldn't find a single hole big enough in any of the trees. He was getting discouraged. Yes, sir, Spooky was getting very much discouraged. It was beginning to look as if, whether he wanted to or not, he would have to move over to the Green Forest. Spooky flew over to a big maple tree in front of Farmer Brown's house. He hadn't been over there before because he knew that there were no holes in that Maple trees. "Hello," exclaimed Spooky, "what is this?"

"This" proved to be a house. It was a very nice house. It was a very well built house. It had an opening plenty big enough for Spooky. That house could not have suited him better if it had been made for him. He went inside. The first thing he discovered was a handful of nuts. He guessed then that this house had been built for Happy Jack Squirrel. His guess was right. That house had been put up in the maple tree that very day. It was the Christmas gift of Farmer Brown's Boy to Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel. Happy Jack had discovered it late in the afternoon. He had gone inside and inspected that house thoroughly. He had decided that he would move in the next day. You see, it was just before dark that he had discovered the house. It was too late to move in that night, so Happy Jack had eaten two or three nuts, then hurried off to his old house and planned to return early the next morning to take possession of his new house and build a comfortable bed in it.



That house could not have suited him better if it had been made for him

Of course, Spooky the Screech Owl knew nothing about all this. But he did know that here was a warm, comfortable house so near the Old Orchard as to be almost the same as in it, and he took possession. He threw out the nuts. He doesn't eat nuts. He didn't want them in the way. Then, having settled this matter, he went out to hunt for mice. It seemed as if good luck was with Spooky, for, having found such a nice house, he now found several mice in quick succession. In fact, he had all he could eat and was soon back in his new house, settling himself to sleep in comfort. Of course, he didn't know that this was Christmas. But it was and Spooky was getting his share of Christmas joy.

Meanwhile over in his old home Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel was dreaming of the new house he had found and how he would move into it and how fine it would be to be such a near neighbor to Farmer Brown's Boy. And Farmer Brown's Boy, who had seen Happy Jack when he had found the house, and had seen him when he left it for the night, was wondering if he would return the next morning and move in.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

A HOLIDAY GREETING TO MY READERS

If I can't send each of you a Christmas card, or grasp each one of you by the hand, within this printed message I can send each of you a Merry Christmas.

Many of you have written me often and have expressed your kind and friendly feelings toward me so that none of you seems like a stranger. As one friend to another then I hope truly that each of you is spending a happy Christmas. Sorrow has no place on this day; it must be pressed out of sight so that our companions need not be made conscious of the incongruity of their own happiness.

If presents haven't been as many or as magnificent as each parent would wish to give, remember that the actual money value of any present is the least consideration. Thoughtfulness and the spirit of true happiness in giving make the smallest gift priceless.

The spirit of happiness and cheer should be maintained all day long. Sometimes it wears out about 4 in the afternoon. By that time the children's noise and excitement may bring parental tempers to the boiling point. What a shame! Before that point is reached, bundle the children up and send them outdoors to scamper off some of their excitement in the open air. Let the house quiet down for a temporary period and toys will look more alluring, fatigue will have vanished, and small stomachs will have had a rest period that is bound to bring back the cheery spirit worn ragged under fatigue.

We hope that the poor confused child who has been wondering how there could possibly be so many Santa Clauses has had this tangle straightened out. One on each street corner, one in every department store, some over the radio and apparently one for each home offer a subject for endless, puzzled questioning. If we are to keep this bright, mythical spirit in its proper place in the children's understanding, make it plain to them that these various Santa Clauses are just ordinary men dressed up to represent St. Nick. Tell them of the patron saint of children called St. Nicholas, who lived long, long ago, and who is remembered for his eternal kindness to children. We call him Santa Claus and tell his story at this time each year. When children find their stockings plump and their inmost wishes gratified, they will know that the spirit of unselfish giving and good will is still abroad, working hard to make them happy. Tiny children may feel this jolly spirit very real and the older child will know that he is just a spirit, the essence of all the happy giving with which the day is associated.

And so, again "Merry Christmas!" —from the heart for each of you.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

Greetings and best wishes for a happy holiday season to all my readers and class.

GERMAN STUFFED TURKEY

Singe and clean the turkey, chop the liver, gizzard and heart fine, and add to it, one cupful of finely chopped veal, and one cupful of finely chopped lean pork, one chopped onion, two cloves of garlic chopped, and three tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley, mix with this four cupfuls of fine bread crumbs, and two well-beaten eggs, mix all together, and season with salt and paprika; stuff the turkey with this, sew up, rub the turkey all over with butter, dredge with flour, place in the baking pan, breast side down, add half a cupful of water to the pan and season with salt and paprika when the turkey has been in the oven one hour. Cook twenty minutes to the pound, when done remove from the oven, and garnish with boiled beets and serve.

COFFEE PARFAIT

Dissolve one tablespoonful of gelatine in two tablespoonfuls of cold milk, pour over it one cupful of strong black hot coffee, stir well, and add one and one-half cupfuls of sifted XXXX sugar, and one teaspoonful of vanilla, stir until cool, and fold in two cupfuls of whipped cream, pour into mold, cover tightly and pack in fine ice, and salt, let stand for four hours, serve in tall glasses and garnish with a spiral of whipped cream.

POTATO CAKE

Beat to a cream one-half a cupful of butter, and one cupful of sugar, cream well, then add two well-beaten eggs and half a cupful of hot mashed potatoes, beat the mixture for three minutes, sift one cupful of flour with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, half a teaspoonful each of cloves, cinnamon and nutmeg, and half a cupful of powdered chocolate. Add the flour mixture alternately to the other mixture with half a cupful of milk, beat well, then add half a cupful of finely chopped blanched almonds, place in a loaf cake tin that has been oiled and floured, bake in a moderate oven for forty minutes.

CREAM WAFFLES

Sift two cupfuls of sifted flour with one quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, three level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and one tablespoonful of sugar, add the well-beaten yolks of three eggs, one and a quarter cupfuls of milk, four tablespoonfuls of melted butter and beat until smooth. Lastly, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the three eggs, bake in a hot waffle iron, and serve with strawberry jam and whipped cream.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

NEWS OF THE CAFES

A capacity crowd attended the grand opening last Saturday evening of the Volga Boat, formerly the famous Ship Cafe, Venice Pier, remodeled and redecorated in typical Russian style. Dancing to Boris Kramarenko's Russian Balalaika Orchestra was enjoyed by the guests until the break of dawn.

A diversified program of entertainment, which consisted mainly of Russian, Egyptian and Hawaiian dance novelties and song numbers by well-known entertainers, was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. George Lloyd acted as master of ceremonies and Rue Shepard as hostess. A noted chef prepared an excellent dinner of Russian and French cuisine and, according to the management, he has been permanently retained to supervise the culinary department.

ELK'S SQUADRON DINED

Cort Fox, proprietor of the Cliff Dwellers' Cafe, Beverly Boulevard at Virgil street, entertained the entire mounted squadron of the B. P. O. E. No. 99, of which he is a member, with a banquet last Thursday evening. The affair was one of a series of "get-together" parties held for the purpose of finding ways and means of increasing the efficiency of the squadron.

The Frigidaire Corporation also held a banquet recently in the popular cafe, which features squab, steak and chicken dinners.

YULE MENU AT ROOSEVELT

Christmas Day a special dinner will be served in the Blossom Room of the Roosevelt from 12 noon until 9 p.m. Arrangements are being made to handle a larger crowd than has ever been present at a similar event in the hotel. Also, in the College Inn of the Roosevelt, a Christmas dinner will be featured. George Olsen and his orchestra will play appropriate music in the Blossom Room during the afternoon and evening.

TURKEY HARMONY FEATURE

The Harmony Cafeteria, Hollywood Boulevard, just east of Vine street, opposite the Pantages Theater Building, now under construction, will be open Christmas Day from noon until 8 p.m. and serve young Tom turkey with all the trimmings. The French apple pie, for which the cafeteria enjoys an enviable reputation, will be featured, together with many other tempting desserts. That the Harmony is a favorite dining-place for families is attested to by the large number of family gatherings seen there each day.

PERROT'S TO CELEBRATE

In celebration of Christmas, Paul Perrot announces one of the finest holiday dinners in Los Angeles at his cafe opposite Westlake Park. An appetizing turkey dinner, served in real family style, will be an all-day feature, with dancing added.

TEA ROOM ATTRACTS STARS

Occupying a small cottage facing Hollywood Boulevard and completely surrounded by height-limit office buildings, the Bottom of the Cup Tea Room, opposite Grauman's Egyptian Theater, offers one a quiet and rather unique place to have either luncheon or dinner. Because of its seclusion and fine home-cooked foods, it is often patronized by prominent film stars. One of the chief attractions is a free reading with cards of tea leaves given the guests by the hostess, Nantien Basten.

SANTA CLAUS HEAD WAITER

The Yuletide spirit will be carried out at the Montmartre Cafe, Hollywood, tonight and thereafter until New Year's night, with Paul Howard's Black Birds, famous Victor recording orchestra, playing special holiday dance selections as well as current popular numbers. Santa Claus will act as head waiter this evening, serving dinner to the many film stars and other notables who will entertain there, it is said.

Funeral Rites Conducted for Mrs. Hamilton

Friends and relatives paid their last respects yesterday to Mrs. Faye Landreth Hamilton, wife of Charles B. Hamilton, vice-president and managing director of the Alexandria. Funeral rites at the Little Church of the Flowers, conducted by Dr. Robert Freeman, pastor of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, were followed by interment in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Mrs. Hamilton, who was 41 years of age, was well known for her charity work in Los Angeles. She died Sunday at her home, 703 South Manhattan Place from a cerebral hemorrhage. Besides her husband, she leaves her mother, Mrs. Annie F. Landreth, a brother, Harold B. Landreth, secretary to Gov. Young, and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Landreth Kelleher.

CHRISTMAS CUSTOMS

Christmas is one of our oldest holidays. The name is a shortening for "Christ Mass," or a mass in honor of the Christ.

Most of the customs of Christmas are hundreds of years older than Christmas itself. In fact, the Christmas holiday has been called by historians "a mingling of heathendom and Christiandom." In spite of its antiquity, Christmas still remains our greatest, kindest and most eagerly awaited holiday.

The fact that the Christmas spirit has endured for so many hundreds of years shows that the wish to make others happy and to be open-hearted is firmly nurtured in the yearnings of men, and we are never quite as happy as when bringing happiness to others.

The one figure which outranks all others on Christmas Eve is Santa Claus. This name, as well as the chimney myth, is thought to have first found root in America among the Pennsylvania Dutch, who heartily admired the fat old gentleman who could scramble through the soot of the chimney without soiling his white whiskers.

It is said that Saint Nicholas, who was the Bishop of Myra, once heard of an old man who could not get his three daughters married because they had no dowry. Wishing to provide the old man with money, the bishop secretly dropped it down the old man's chimney, where it obligingly fell into one of the daughter's stockings, hung there to dry. From this, the custom of hanging up a [illegible] on Christmas Eve originated.

The Christmas tree was [illegible] to America first by the [illegible] German soldiers. The [illegible] originally traced back to [illegible] Teuton legend of a giant [illegible] which held the heavens [illegible] mighty branches, and in [illegible] feasting the Teutons used to [illegible] rate small trees with candles [illegible] represent the heavens; [illegible] and candles representing the [illegible] and stars were hung on [illegible] branches, and long strings of [illegible] corn were coiled around the [illegible] represent the dragon, [illegible] who writhed about the base of [illegible] great tree. From this we have [illegible] custom of the Christmas tree [illegible] the long strings of popcorn or [illegible] sel, and the candles which are [illegible] often replaced by miniature [illegible] lights.

The mistletoe custom came from the Druids of ancient Britain. [illegible] was called magic mistletoe, and [illegible] held as a charm against evil [illegible] darkness. When brought [illegible] the custom originated that [illegible] maiden passing under it could [illegible] kissed forthwith. It seems that [illegible] mistletoe is no longer necessary [illegible] this purpose.

The beginning of the custom of giving presents during the Christmas season probably carries a deeper significance to those who [illegible] the One who was born long ago under the Star of Bethlehem, [illegible] they realize that the first Christmas gifts were those of the Three Wise Men who came out of the East, bearing gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

In Water

Are you keeping the lovely bittersweet that you gathered in water? If you do so the berries will stay red all winter.

Home-Made Bandages

Sterilized bandages can be made at home by tearing a clean old sheet into strips, rolling them and then placing in an airtight jar. Suspend the jar in water and allow it to become boiling hot.

A Gas Saver

Water that is boiling hard is no hotter than water that is boiling gently, so when your vegetables or soups start to boil, turn down the burner until they are boiling gently and save gas while getting the same results.

Overstocked

When the youngster seems to have a great number of toys it is wise to take a few and put them away for a time until the number is lessened. When they are brought out again they will be greeted enthusiastically as new toys and in the meantime there is not so much for mother to take care of.

The Wooden Handle

When placing the coffee percolator over the gas flame, be careful to keep the wooden handle out of range of the flame itself. Then you will have no trouble regarding burned handles that have warped from excessive heat.

Efficiency Squibs

Petroleum ointment will remove mildew from leather furniture.

Place a warm flatiron on the top of an obstinate fruit jar for a minute and see how easily it opens.

A careful selection of mirrors and placement of same will add a great deal of space to the small house.

If boiling water is poured through the fruit stain as soon as the accident occurs it will remove the stain—but it must be applied at once.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

An international exchange of amenities will begin at 8 a.m. when a musical program, interspersed with talks in Dutch and English, will be broadcast by the New York studios of the National Broadcasting Company, relayed through the short-wave transmitter at Riverhead, Long Island, received by the Chelmsford short-wave station in England, and rebroadcast by the British Broadcasting Corporation. Short-wave apparatus in Holland will in turn relay the program to the audience of the low countries.

Germany will send out her Christmas greeting at 9:45 a.m. sending the program through virtually the same channels with the exception of the Chelmsford unit. England, reversing the order of transmission of the American greeting, will send her own yuletime program at 11:30 a.m. for half an hour. All three of those programs, 8 a.m., 9:45 and the 11:30 greetings crossing the seas will be released locally by KFI.

This will be America's first radio Christmas greeting to Europe. Phillip Carlin, veteran N.B.C. announcer, and Christian Kriens, special Dutch announcer, will be the voices heard in the announcement. A large orchestra under the direction of Nathaniel Shilkret; the New Yorkers quartet; Gladys Rice, soprano; and an orchestra group directed by Andy Sannella; Muriel Pollock and V. Lawnhurst, pianists; Elizabeth Lennox, contralto; the Utica Jubilee singers; Eva Taylor, crooner, and Robert Simmons, tenor, will be heard in this Christmas Day program for England and Holland, representing Uncle Sam's greetings. A Sousa medley will open the program and a medley of popular dance tunes will close it.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DAY

At 8 a.m. KHJ will release from the Columbia Broadcasting system a program depicting Christmas in an American home, originating in New York, and at 9 o'clock, Christmas Day services from Washington, D. C.

At noon the Don Lee station will duplicate the solemn but simple services which are to be conducted at high noon under the nation's Christmas tree in the General Grant National Park. Because no telephone lines are available in the park the actual program cannot be broadcast, but it will be reproduced in detail by the local station. Included will be a message from President Hoover, an address by Gov. Young of California, Christmas carols and an invocation.

NEWSBOYS ON AIR

A happy feature of the morning will be the broadcast between 11 and 12 o'clock by remote control from the Biltmore of the actual proceedings of the newsboys' dinner where 2500 juvenile venders will make merry.

Another morning feature will be the singing of the University of Southern California Glee Club from KFWB between 10 and 11 o'clock.

PROMOTER NEWSBOYS' HOST

Hundreds of Pasadena newsboys will be guests of Morrie Cohan at Hotel Greene at 11 a.m. today, when a Christmas party will be given in their honor.

Funds for the dinner, toys and candies were derived from sale of tickets to an entertainment given by Cohan last Thursday at Pasadena Arena.

This is the third Christmas party given the youngsters by the fight promoter, who announced that several motion-picture actresses will be present today to entertain the guests with songs and dances.

PLAYLETS FEATURED

"By Starlight," a dramatic sketch portraying the birth of the Christ Child in Bethlehem, will be heard over KFI at 4:30 p.m., with Joseph Granby, Florence Malone and Richard Jordan in the cast. A second sketch, "Some Counted Blessings," will follow, enacted by Allyn Joslyn, Josephine Hill, Virginia Gardiner and Humphrey Whitney. From the same station at 6 p.m., will come a special program by the Chicago Little Symphony Orchestra.

Following Hank Simmons's Showboat, which will be on at KHJ from 8 to 9 p.m., the Don Lee station will present a dramatization of William J. Locke's "Our Christmas Mystery." The radio rights for this have been purchased by Don Lee and extended preparations have been made for presentation of the playlet. It concerns three learned, successful and soul-soured wise men who set out in an automobile for a Christmas gathering. Their machine is wrecked and they are plunged into storms, violence and disaster, which, however, terminates happily.

Another playlet will be launched at 8 o'clock tonight from KFWB, which is to have a serial run of eight weeks, known as "Who Is Marion?" and written by Johnson McCulley. This will feature Maurice McCulley, who made a radio hit in "Who Killed the Caretaker?" Other members of the cast will be Brady Kline, Ralf Belmont, Herman Cripps and George Drayne.

The summary of the day would not be complete without mentioning Mary Lewis, Metropolitan Opera soprano, who will sing a concert of traditional Christmas solos at 8:30 p.m. over KFI.

Bathroom With Tricky Doors Proves Nemesis

A bathroom with three doors, all with trick locks, was described by Police Officers Hamilton and Graves as the "plant" of Alberto Chavez, accused before Municipal Judge MacCoy of possession of fifty gallons of alcohol.

The officers declare that after they waited outside the bathroom, which was in the vacant part of a duplex house at 4829 Staunton street, all day, Chavez, who occupies the other part of the house, approached with three empty jugs and opened the bathroom door. Chavez told the judge he was given the alcohol in part payment of a debt. He was fined $400.

Police Asked to Search for Missing Girl

Appeal was made to the police yesterday to search for Florence Montgomery, 15 years of age, of 3671 Arlington avenue, who has been missing from home since last Friday.

Her mother, Mrs. A. Montgomery, told police of the missing-persons bureau that her daughter left the home of friends in Beverly Hills, where she was visiting Friday and that she never reached home.

JUDGMENT FOLLOWS BARNES

Iowa Man Wins Suit Begun as Boy for Injuries Suffered in Circus Parade in 1916

A law suit against Al G. Barnes, former head of the Barnes Circus, begun at Des Moines, Iowa, ten years ago, for personal injuries asserted to have been caused when a steam calliope wagon owned by the show ran into two boys during a street parade, ended here yesterday when Superior Judge Gould allowed the sum of $3524 in an action brought on a foreign judgment.

The plaintiff in the action is William Boylan, who when the suit was started was a minor. He is now of age. The accident occurred during a circus street parade in Des Moines in 1916. Young Boylan and his brother Carl were the ones injured. Attorneys handling their cases waited for five years, or until the Barnes show returned to Des Moines, to get service on Barnes. Later, on June 15, 1926, a judgment was obtained against Barnes in the sum of $3524. Recently efforts were made to collect the amount here on a complaint on a foreign judgment heard several days ago by Judge Gould.

During the hearing of the action, prosecuted for Boylan by Attorney George W. Adams, the former circus head said he had never been served with papers in the suit. H. S. Tyler, former manager of the circus, testified that he, and not Barnes, was the one who had been served while the show was performing in Des Moines.

Another suit, one begun by Carl Boylan, who is still a minor, asking $1500, is still pending.

Police Captain for U.C.L.A. Campus Named

Chief of Police Davis yesterday was directed by the Police Commission to appoint Officer W. A. Ross an acting captain and to assign him to the University of California, Los Angeles, as captain of a police department to be formed for the policing of the campus, at the request of Supt. A. P. Davie of the university grounds and buildings.

The appointment becomes effective January 1 and is for six months, after which it is expected the university police, maintained and paid by the State, will be able to operate its own police force.

The selection of Ross was at the request of Davis, who explained that Ross particularly is fitted for such work and has the acquaintance and confidence of the faculty.

ELKS GIVE JOY TO LITTLE ONES

Inglewood Antlered Herd in Christmas Eve Party

Santa Claus, Tree, Gifts and Program Provided

Committee Provides Dinners and Clothing for Poor

INGLEWOOD, Dec. 24.—Christmas Eve was made a happy time for several hundred youngsters who otherwise might not have had a Christmas tree, when the local Elks' Lodge entertained children of this community of Lennox, from sections of Los Angeles, and other areas adjoining this city, at the Elks' Hall at 113 South Market street.

In addition to a generous supply of candies, nuts, oranges, apples and other things to gladden the hearts of the little ones, the lodge presented a jolly program of songs, dancing and recitations enjoyed by young and old.

Exalted Ruler Gail S. Hamilton called upon talented youngsters present in the audience to come forward and many of them obliged with clever numbers.

Through the Christmas committee, headed by Ed Lamel, and including members of service clubs, American Legion, Woman's Club and all other civic organizations, baskets of Christmas dinners, bundles of clothing, shoes, and other necessaries were distributed today and this evening to homes where Christmas cheer otherwise would be lacking. As usual, the Salvation Army was active in supplying and distributing Yuletide blessings of a substantial nature.

Inglewood business section as well as the residential districts are decked with outdoor Christmas trees in profusion as well as many inside happy homes, most of the latter, however, being set in a window where their cheerful brilliance might be shared with passers-by. Even the postoffice lobby had a Christmas tree and holiday greeting to the public.

All the local service clubs have had Christmas trees for children during the week and the churches have had their usual holiday cheer for the children. Tonight an impressive midnight mass was said in St. John's Catholic Church and a beautiful program of Christmas music was rendered. The Episcopal Church of the Holy Faith also had a Christmas Eve service this evening.

SANTA BARBARA'S OLD BELLS TOLL GLAD TIDINGS

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 24.—As Old Mission bells tolled and the chants of praise and thanksgiving rose from a choir of fifty brown-robed padres at midnight in the 150-year-old church, Santa Barbara welcomed Christmas and paid homage to the Christ child.

It was the usual colorful gathering, Protestant and Catholic alike, which assembled in the auditorium of the mission, overflowed onto the aged stone steps and into the graveled court yard. Nearly 1000 people saw and heard the ancient ceremony.

When the mission bells began tolling, three fathers announced the birth of Christ and unveiled His image on the altar, brilliant with the flickering lights of a hundred candles. Long shadows flickered back and forth, danced merrily on the crowds as the celebration of the most blessed sacrament was performed by the Rev. Father Augustine Hobrecht, pastor of Old Mission.

Midnight masses were held in other Catholic churches of the city while the Trinity Episcopal Church observed the anniversary of the birth of Christ with a festival of music, song and organ.

The Protestant observance was carried out by some 100 young folk of the County Christian Endeavor Society who sang Christmas carols all about the city, serenading the homes of their pastors, the various hotels and the downtown district.

BOUNTIFUL CHRISTMAS FOR REDONDO RESIDENTS

REDONDO BEACH, Dec. 24.—Entertainments and the general holiday spirit which prevailed today gave evidence of a bountiful Christmas for all residents of this district tomorrow. At the Salvation Army headquarters under Capt. Kittle preparations were being made for the distribution of food and clothing in co-operation with the City Welfare Board.

At the Elks' Club the annual Christmas charity preparations were unusually heavy and were in charge of C. E. Adams, leading knight, and Secretary Tim Larson. A Christmas tree and party to which all children of the district were invited was a part of the lodge's activity tonight.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN GIVE TORRANCE CHRISTMAS TREE

TORRANCE, Dec. 24.—In a community-wide program sponsored by the Volunteer Firemen's Association, children and elders gathered for the annual community Christmas tree here last night. A fifty-foot tree brilliantly lighted centered the festivities, which included a pageant and program followed by the distribution of candy and other goodies. Several thousand persons were in attendance.

CAROL SINGERS IN TOUR OF BAY CITIES ENJOYED

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 24.—With bands of carol singers visiting every nook and cranny of the bay district, and with special services in churches, Christmas Eve was observed at the beaches and in West Los Angeles, Culver City, Palms and the other communities. At the Venice, Ocean Park and Santa Monica amusement piers the warm weather brought out thousands, giving the scene a midsummer, rather than a December atmosphere. Santa Claus and synthetic snow prevailed as the decorative motif, however. At one Venice home on the south beach the entire building, lot and fences were covered with cotton to give a back-east snow effect.

CHRISTMAS TREES USED TO BROADCAST CAROLS

GLENDALE, Dec. 24.—Christmas carols, emphasized by a loud-speaker system installed in four giant Christmas trees at the intersection of Brand Boulevard and Broadway, entertained the crowds of last-minute shoppers who thronged the streets of Glendale. Two concerts were presented, one last night and the second one tonight, the artists being selected from the choirs of the various local churches. Tonight the carol singers are covering the entire city, certain groups being assigned to definite districts into which the city has been divided by the city parks and recreation department. Shut-ins also enjoyed the Christmas hymns tonight, when special singers visited them and chanted the carols outside the homes where they are confined. Special services were held tonight in many of the churches, and others will be held Christmas morning. Through all the social welfare agencies, service clubs, churches and lodges provision has been made to insure that all needy children in Glendale will receive a generous share of Christmas cheer.

"DANSE A LA FRANCAISE"

LONG BEACH, Dec. 24.—The Franco-American Club of this city will give a dinner-dance on New Year's Eve in St. Anthony's Auditorium at Sixth and Olive streets. Preparation has been made to entertain 500 French-speaking Southland residents on this occasion.

JURY CHARGE TO BE AIRED

County Supervisors Will Ask Inquisitors for Basis of Insinuation Against Sheriff

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 24.—The unfortunate situation arising out of the mention in a Sheriff's committee report to the 1928-29 grand jury concerning asserted neglect on the part of Sheriff Sweeters to prosecute a county Supervisor for possession and transportation of liquor, will be aired before the session of the Board of Supervisors on January [illegible], provided the members of the committee will talk.

This became a certainty today when the board decided to "invite" the members of the committee to reveal the information upon which the investigation and subsequent refusal of the grand jury to act were based. It is understood letters will be written to A. P. Hurley, Victor C. Stumpf and F. V. Wright, asking them to confer with the board.

"Some action is incumbent on this board," said Chairman Jameson when the matter was brought to the Supervisors' attention. "All are under more or less unfavorable light and to call the committee before us as private citizens, as is the only possible way now that they are not grand jurors, seems the best solution."

Superior Judge Freeman, who is in charge of the grand jury's court affairs, and who dismissed the jurors last week after they had filed their annual report, was understood to have notified the board today that the three committeemen are no longer grand jurors and having no official capacity cannot be compelled to report. This was believed to have thwarted the announced intention of Supervisor Moore to ask the Superior Court for an order requiring the committeemen to divulge in court their information. Just how much the grand jurors can tell regarding the investigation of the case mentioned in their report and of which the Sheriff and Supervisors disclaim all knowledge is a point undecided.

PLANTER OF DEODARS LIGHTS MILE OF TREES

ALTADENA, Dec. 24.—As darkness signaled the illumination of Christmas trees throughout the world tonight, Thomas Hoag, who forty years ago planted the seeds which germinated this community's "Mile of Living Christmas Trees," closed a switch and instantly 6000 bulbs converted the lane of giant deodars into a varicolored fairyland.

A preliminary check made by members of the local Sheriff's substation indicates that more than 40,000 persons occupied automobiles which coasted in a double traffic line down Santa Rosa avenue from Foothill Boulevard to Woodbury Road.

The deodar seeds planted by Hoag were imported from India by the United States government for the owners of the old Woodbury rancho. They were set out in hothouse beds to test their growth in this climate, and are believed to be the oldest trees of the species in this country.

They were planted in the year that followed the rainiest season ever experienced here, in the course of which ugly ditches were washed on both sides of Santa Rosa avenue. Hoag and the Woodbury brothers, for whom he worked, decided to hide these ditches from persons approaching the ranch house, and the planting of the seedlings was the result. Illumination of the trees will be continued each night, including New Year's night.

GARAGE OWNER IN WRONG

Man Who Failed to Notify Police of Rental, Required by State Law, Fined in Police Court

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 24.—W. L. Frazer, owner of a private garage at 1301 C street, in which was found stored Sunday night a stolen automobile used by the bandit trio who perpetrated the $25,000 MacNarr money car hold-up and robbery here, November 12, was fined $50 in Police Court today. The fine was imposed by Judge Claude L. Chambers after finding Frazer guilty of a charge of failing to report to police the rental of his private garage as required by law. Judge Chambers suspended payment of the fine on condition that Frazer refrain from violating any provisions of the California Vehicle Act for six months.

The car, stolen from Joe Flax, La Mesa, three days before the robbery, was found in Frazer's garage. In the car was $20,000 in checks, part of the loot taken in the robbery, a loaded shotgun and some clothing.

The car and its contents are the first definite clew police obtained in their search for the bandit trio.

Detective Sergeant Herbert Hill, who pressed the charge against Frazer, announced similar prosecutions will follow in cases where owners of private garages fail to report the rental thereof to police.

MONEY CAR CASE MAY GO FURTHER

Criminal Deputy Says He May Reopen it if Dellan, Held for Slaying, Freed

LONG BEACH, Dec. 24. (AP)—Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff Joe E. Myers of San Diego said today he would reopen the inquiry into the Agua Caliente pay roll hold-up of last summer if Marcel Dellan, held here for the fatal shooting of Edward Ames, is released.

Myers said he would take Dellan to San Diego, in the event he is freed here, on the belief that he has not divulged all he knows concerning the robbery, in which two guards were killed. Dellan at one time was connected with the robbery but was set free because of insufficient evidence against him.

Dellan asserted that in shooting Ames, he acted in self-defense after the latter had attacked him because he feared that "I would squeal on him for the Agua Caliente job." The slaying occurred here last Saturday. Police have established that Ames was involved in a clandestine love affair with Dellan's wife.

Authorities have been unable to learn from Dellan what information he held which made Ames fear him. Mrs. Dellan admitted that on the night Ames was killed, he left her house to "get my husband."

In the hold-up, some $75,000 in checks and $5000 in cash were obtained by the robbers who looted the money car of a gambling house after slaying the two guards, who were accompanying it from Agua Caliente, Mex., to a San Diego bank. Two men were tried and convicted. They were J. H. Cochrane and Marty Colson. They are serving life prison terms.

Famous Singer Guest of Hotel

PALM SPRINGS, Dec. 24.—Among the many distinguished visitors to Palm Springs is Miss Lucy Gates, one of America's really great singers. Miss Gates is here prior to a concert tour, commencing in New York next month. As coloratura soprano, she often appeared with Enrico Caruso in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, and is well known in all the great opera houses of continental Europe, where she had most of her early training.

Miss Gates is one of six great American vocal artistes, being selected for a place of honor in the Hall of Fame now being constructed in New York as a national institution in which to enshrine the fame of those chosen as the finest exponents of the arts and sciences. Among them are Geraldine Farrar, Mary Garden and John McCormack.

Guests of the hotels and residents of Palm Springs have been entertained almost every evening by impromptu concerts given by Miss Gates, her presence and graciousness charming all equally as much as her wonderful voice thrilled her listeners.

WAR'S SUBSTITUTE FOUND, SPEAKER SAYS

ONTARIO, Dec. 24.—So long as no substitute is found to take the place of wars, there will be wars, according to Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal of Chaffey Union High School, in an address before Ontario American Legion Post last night. But a substitute has been found, Dr. Hill said, and if the world will put it into practice, there will be no more wars. That substitute is the American method of arbitration. Dr. Hill foresees the time when the entire world will adopt this principle of settling differences and guns, bombs, cannons and gas will be thrown on the junk pile.

SHE WRITES YULE GIFT FOR CHILDREN

Muriel Nixon Steele

INGLEWOOD, Dec. 24.—A Christmas present for all the children of California, the State which she loves, is the volume just published by a popular and talented Inglewood young woman, graduated from Inglewood Union High School only a few years ago, Miss Muriel Nixon Steele.

"Animal Capers" is the name of her first venture in volume form, although Miss Steele has had wide recognition in periodical publications with her stories for children.

The present volume is illustrated by clever and characteristic illustrations by Bud Smith, also a recent graduate of the Inglewood school. Miss Steele knows children and has great success with them in her private kindergarten. Her volume, which has found a wide sale, is dedicated to "the Children of California." It is published by the Hickman Printing Company of this city.

Youth Asserted Fugitives From Road Camp Held

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 24.—Robert Conrey, youth accused of having escaped from the county road camp in Borego Valley, must face trial in Superior Court on the charge, a felony, Township Justice Arthur L. Mundo ruled today. The court remanded Conrey to County Jail in lieu of $5000 bail.

Acting Superintendent H. R. Wilson of the camp, together with Guards H. H. Ozaun, M. E. Farris and L. H. Blaine, appeared against Conrey. All said the youth had taken advantage of the honor system, in use at the camp, to run away. Ozaun said that he and two prisoners tracked Conrey across two miles of rocky desert and captured him less than two hours from the time he was missed.

Conrey originally was sentenced to the camp for one year on a failure-to-provide charge. Justice Mundo, who pronounced the sentence, ordered that the county pay $1 a day during the term for maintenance of the family.

Lessened Need for High County Courts Studied

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 24.—Possibility of abandonment of the third division of the Superior Court of this county was discussed today by the Board of County Supervisors and recommendation to that effect may be made to the State Legislature if a study of the matter during ensuing months justifies it.

Probable lack of need for the third department is seen in the recent Appellate Court ruling raising the jurisdiction of the local Justice Courts to cases of high misdemeanors and civil actions involving sums up to $1000. This ruling is expected to lighten the Superior Court calendar to a marked degree.

The third division of the Superior Court was created by the Legislature last year and F. A. Leonard of Redlands was chosen to preside.

DEATH DASHES NEW HOPES

On Way to Arizona, Automobile Dealer Hits Stalled Milk Truck and Dies; Body Badly Burned

ARTESIA, Dec. 24. (AP)—The Christmas hopes of W. R. McNabb, 32-year-old Long Beach automobile dealer, for success in a new business venture in Phoenix, Ariz., were snuffed out here early today. Instead, sorrow on Christmas Eve was brought to his young wife, Grace. She was left a widow by her husband's death in an automobile collision here, the tragic ending of McNabb's hopeful trip to his new business field.

Speeding away from Long Beach at dawn, McNabb crashed into a stalled milk truck outside of Artesia. Flames instantly enveloped the machine and he was burned beyond recognition. Teel McClanahan, truck driver, told Sheriff's deputies that McNabb was driving at a furious pace when he hit the truck.

Tentative identification of the body was made as that of C. W. Waterman, also of Long Beach, through ownership of the license plates. Investigation disclosed that McNabb bought the car from Waterman only last Saturday to go to Phoenix.

NEW ROAD TO DESERT OASIS BEGUN

Direct Link Between Stove Pipe Wells and Old Death Valley Rancho Under Way

STOVE PIPE WELLS (Death Valley, Cal.) Dec. 24.—Tractors have started work this week on a road to be built connecting this point and Death Valley Rancho in the Grapevines, thirty-five miles distant as the crow flies. The only route heretofore has been via Beatty, Nev., a distance of eighty-five miles.

The new road, which is being built as a private enterprise of H. W. Eichbaum co-operating with Walter Scott famed as "Death Valley Scotty" will open the long-hoped-for direct access to the latter's estate in the heart of Death Valley, where a $1,000,000 mansion that has been eight years in the building is nearing completion.

The new and shorter road to "Death Valley Scotty's," heretofore practically inaccessible retreat, will doubtless bring to this section a rush of motorists who, during the past twenty years, have been admirers of this famous desert character.

The road to Scotty's will go straight as an arrow across the floor of Death Valley and open up to tourists travel that is probably the most interesting section of this weird valley, named by the "forty-niners" the "Valley of Death" and until recent years the most shunned spot on the American continent. The road will also open up the Ubehebe country with its gigantic crater and rich copper deposits.

Official Doubts Triple Shooting Story of Wife

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 14.—Plainly dissatisfied with the results of the early inquiry into the asserted slaying of R. W. Hunt of Yermo by his wife, Lenora, and the shooting of William Fountain last week, Dist.-Atty. Johnson announced today that he will continue his investigation until he learns more of the facts.

Hunt was shot through the brain and heart by his wife, she said, after he had three times wounded her. Fountain was shot by the enraged husband. Neither Mrs. Hunt nor Fountain will discuss the shooting, the District Attorney said. There are several angles in the case, the prosecutor added, that indicates that the whole story has not been told. In fact, he added, the story of Mrs. Hunt in the light of subsequent investigation is questioned.

Mrs. Hunt maintains that her husband, from whom she was estranged, opened fire upon her and Fountain. After being three times wounded, she said, she ran into the house and returned with her own gun, shooting him to death.

Jury Battle in Case of Camp Reds Develops

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 24.—The hearing of seven Reds who are charged with illegally holding a public meeting in the streets here has developed a battle over jurors and today was continued until Thursday. The case was called last Saturday and a jury is not expected to be selected before next Saturday. Up to the time of adjournment today 141 veniremen had been examined. The defense has exhausted thirty-five of their forty-five pre-emptory challenges and the prosecution eighteen of their forty-five.

Practically all of the prospective jurors declare that they had formed opinions in the case and immediately were excused.

Business Houses Give Out Bonus to Employees

REDLANDS, Dec. 24.—Employers of this city dipped down into their money bags and poured Christmas gifts into the hands of their employees today to make it one of the happiest Christmas times Redlands has ever had. For it is estimated that no less than $10,000 was distributed by merchants among their employees tonight.

The banks always give gifts to their men and women. One of the banks gives 5 per cent of the yearly salary, another gives according to the years of service of the employee, those in service the longest getting more than $200. The business houses of Redlands follow the years-of-service plan, givin those who have been with them the longest the largest gifts.

Those who are unfortunate were not forgotten this year for tonight the charities organizations of the city distributed stockings filled with toys, candy, and things to wear, to the children, great baskets and boxes of food for the families and thousands of garments to both men and women.

The business among the merchants of the city for the holiday season was not up to standard, according to reports, but this had been expected and prepared for. The fact that here is a light orange crop has had its effect on business here.

HUNTINGTON PARK BANKS GIVE EMPLOYEES BONUS

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 24.—Each of the banks in the local district gave substantial presents to their employees for Christmas gifts. The City National Bank presented each employee with a week's salary. The Bank of Italy gave each employee a bonus of a certain per cent of the net profits of the bank for the year, according to length of employment of each person connected with the bank.

The Bank of America gave 5 per cent of salary each had received during the year; the Security-First National Bank gave bonuses according to the length of employment; the Walnut Park National Bank also gave bonuses according to the length of employment of each, and the South Gate National Bank gave each of its employees substantial cash present, each receiving the same amount.

Boys in Fatal Wreck Jailed

REDLANDS, Dec. 24.—Three local boys who were being held in jail following an automobile accident in which Joseph Story of Stuart avenue was killed, probably will be permitted to spend Christmas at home, although they will have to return to Los Angeles Thursday to give testimony at the inquest. They are H. S. Fair, 610 East Stuart avenue; Edwin D Hinchman, 716 East State street, and F. Stewart, 507 East Stuart avenue.

The youths started from here at an early hour yesterday morning, headed for Long Beach. Shortly after leaving San Bernardino county the machine, it is asserted, skidded on loose dirt and overturned.

Story was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Story. Besides his parents, he is survived by a brother, Fred, and four sisters, Neva, Dorothy, Stella and Daisy. He was born in McAlester, Okla.

An older brother of the victim of the fatal accident, it was recalled, was killed in a cave-in of an excavation in Los Angeles a year ago.

OCTOGENARIAN WOMAN VICTIM OF SPEEDER

UPLAND, Dec. 24.—Identity of a speeding motorist is being sought for having caused Mrs. Elizabeth C. Welch, prominent aged Upland resident, to suffer fracture of both legs. Mrs. Welch, riding with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Dougherty, Euclid avenue, was thrown violently forward when Mrs. Dougherty found it necessary to drive her automobile into a pole when crowded from the highway by a speeder. One leg was fractured above the knee, the other below the knee. Last year Mrs. Welch, who is 80 years of age, fell and fractured hip, from which she was just recovering.

POSTOFFICE RECORD MADE

HUNTINGTON PARK, Dec. 24.—New records are being established at the local postoffice for both incoming and outgoing mail, according to Postmaster Walter L. Cleveland, who states that 76,200 pieces of first-class mail were canceled in one day at the office here, beating last year's big day record when the largest day was 64,000 pieces of first-class mail. The week-end brought in 120,000 pieces of first-class mail for distribution in this territory.

CANYON HIGHWAY ROUTED

Riverside County Supervisors Order Survey of Proposed Road to New Fish Hatchery

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 24.—Ordering a survey of the road right of way into Snow Creek Canyon, located between Banning and Palm Springs, the Board of Supervisors inaugurated a road improvement project expected to expedite the construction of the $30,000 California Fish and Game Commission rearing ponds at the site on Snow Creek. Work on the undertaking will be begun by the State as soon as the county makes the canyon accessible to materials trucks.

County Surveyor Fulmer was instructed to begin as soon as possible on a survey of the canyon road route. He will estimate the cost of improving the road and removing huge boulders that lie along the probable route of the roadway.

Manifesting his interest in the project, Supervisor Johnson of Banning has promised $1500 from his district road fund, Lee D. Childers, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and justice of the peace there, who led the successful movement, revealed. Childers expressed the belief, however, that eventually they will be compelled to seek further county aid for the work as the task of blasting a roadway through the field of boulders that carpets the canyon may prove costly.

"The State is making a very creditable investment in the county in establishing the rearing ponds here and we feel that the board realizes the value," said Childers. "When finished, the ponds will institute a new system in the planting of trout in streams, that of rearing the fish in captivity to a size large enough to care for themselves before liberating them. Fish experts believe this will reduce the heavy percentage of loss to a negligible figure. Figured over a period of years, the State's investment in the county will total many thousands of dollars over the initial appropriation."

Childers was accompanied by Mayor D. H. Gates, D. A. Innes, C. S. Holcomb, Charles D. Hamilton, former County Supervisor, and R. J. Little.

WAR ON ART PERGOLA IN NEW SORTIE

Riverside Man in Plea to Superior Court for One More Injunction Hearing

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 24.—B. B. Bush, Seventh and Lemon streets property owner, will take probably his last chance to prevent construction of the imitation-wood pergola in front of his house on a plea to the Superior Court for a new trial of his recent unsuccessful application for an injunction against the Spanish Arts Society.

Through Attorney C. H. Benshoof Bush has filed at the Courthouse notice of intention to apply to the court for a new trial, the document asserting that the evidence introduced by the society was insufficient, that the decision was against the law, that there were errors of law during the trial to which the defendant objected, and errors in evidence. No date for the hearing of the application has been fixed, but it appears certain the arguments will be heard by Superior Judge Morton next Monday.

The plea for a new trial was filed on the last day of the period allowed by the court for the defense to decide as to an appeal to the Appellate Court. Attorney Benshoof's action yesterday was taken as indicative that the appeal recourse was abandoned.

Bush's bitter fight to prevent erection of the colonnade in front of his residence reached a ludicrous climax last week when Mrs. Bush, knowing that the period allowed by the court had not expired, drove off workmen with a hose as they attempted to prepare for extension of the pergola past her house. That same day the arts society, through its attorney, H. L. Thompson, demanded of the Superior Court an injunction to prevent Busch or Mrs Bush from further interfering with the work on the arcade. A hearing is yet to be held on this application.

Marshals, Aides, for Tournament Parade Chosen

PASADENA, Dec. 24.—Marshals and aides for the 1930 Tournament of Roses parade were appointed today by Capt. J. W. McCall, Jr., chief-of-staff under Grand Marshal James Rolph, Jr., Mayor of San Francisco. The appointments were announced by Capt. Robert M. McCurdy, who will serve as parade adjutant.

Mayor Rolph's personal aides will be Capt. A. W. Anderson, Wellslake Morse and Arnold E. McCord.

Col. George H. White will head Division 1 as marshal, with Cadet Majors Ned Sterling and Roy Hoskins and Cadet Capt. Lee Magee, all of the Pasadena Junior College R.O.T.C., as aides.

The Division 2 marshal will be Capt. Harold C. Schaffer, with Lieut. Charles W. Paddock, William D. McAllen and John Thurman as aides.

Maj. Carl J. Ballinger of Santa Barbara, will head Division 3, with Lieut. Clyde Warren, John H. Waldo and Charles McManus as aides.

Col. Joseph Matson will lead Division 4, with Lieuts. Frank Hodgdon, M. C. Brunner and Joseph Matson, Jr., as attaches.

Division 5 will be headed by Lieut. Arthur P. Ormund, with Capt. Jackson W. Kendall and Clarence O. Barton and Lieut. V. R. Bush as aides.

Col. L. J. Mygatt of San Marino will serve as Division 6 marshal. He will be assisted by Col. Louis R. Ball, Capt. Kenneth Hodgdon and Lieut. Donald G. Cathcart will be his aides. The seventh and final division in the line of march will be headed by Capt. George Hester, who will be assisted by Maj. John T. Kaye and Capt. J. R. Harris.

SECOND ALLIGATOR LEFT BY ST. NICK

SANTA ANA, Dec. 24.—Earl Morrow, manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, was the recipient of a unique Christmas gift yesterday, the second of its kind to be received by Santa Ana persons, a baby alligator shipped from Florida.

Charles Kelley, owner of the Kelley Drug Company, received a similar present recently. Both Kelley and Morrow are in ignorance of the Santa Claus who sent the alligators but suspect H. T. Duckett and Elmer B. Burns, who recently returned from a trip to the East and South.

WARM YULETIDE RECORD BROKEN

San Diego Has Warmest [illegible] of December in Years

Thermometer at 76 [illegible] Noon, Official Report

Second Dryest Season [illegible] Record in County

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 24.—All [illegible] weather records for December for the past twenty-nine years [illegible] San Diego were broken by [illegible] dications are that tomorrow [illegible] one of the warmest Christmas [illegible] here on record.

San Diego is now experiencing [illegible] second dryest season on record.

With the thermometer standing at 76 deg. at noon today, all [illegible] weather records here for this [illegible] since 1890 were broken and the maximum temperature of December 24, 1890, the highest on record [illegible] was equaled, according to report [illegible] the office of Dean Blake, [illegible] Weather Bureau meteorologist.

Tomorrow's forecast is for [illegible] weather, with no material change in temperature, according to Blake. The warmest Christmas on record occurred four years ago, when a maximum of 83 deg. was recorded. Since 1875 there have been [illegible] years in which the Christmas maximum temperature was 70 deg. or above, and forty years of the fifty-[illegible] year period in which the maximum temperature on Christmas day [illegible] 60 deg. or above.

No rain has fallen here since September 18 and, with but one exception, this is the dryest season of record at San Diego. To date .26 of an inch of rain has fallen since July 1, and the only season during the last eighty years which has been dryer to date is the [illegible] season, when but .25 of an inch fell from July 1 to February 1. Chances for rain in the immediate future are small, Blake said today.

Veteran Printer on Great Papers Heeds Last Call

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 24.—[illegible]bert Washington Barker, [illegible] typographical man with a record of fifteen years on the New York World and twenty-five on the New York Times, died yesterday at the age of 67 at St. Catherine's Hospital, Ocean Park of apoplexy. He came to Southern California a year and a half ago. He resided at [illegible] Fourth street, Santa Monica.

He was a life member of the Big Six Typographical Union of New York and a member of Joppa Lodge No. 201, F. & A. M., of Brooklyn. He leaves his widow, Elizabeth [illegible] Barker; two sons, Walter and Joseph, both of Brooklyn, N. Y., and a sister Mrs. Ida B. [illegible] of Montgomery, N. Y.

The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Wilshire Funeral Home chapel, this city. After Masonic services burial will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Three-Year-Old Made Plaintiff in Two Actions

ONTARIO, Dec. 24.—[illegible] Tholen is only 3 years of age, yet he is the central figure in two suits on file in Superior Court today in which he asks, through his guardian, [illegible] Tolen of Los Angeles, [illegible] from A. T. Darling for injuries received in an automobile crash here October 25. B. F. Hendricks of Los Angeles is also listed as a plaintiff in the case.

In his first complaint the 3-year-old boy asks damages of [illegible] the second complaint asks [illegible] for Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks.

The crash occurred at [illegible] and A streets, throwing the child from the Hendricks car, causing a fracture of the skull, according to the complaint.

TWO GIRLS INJURED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 24.—Two girls, Ruth Gradell, [illegible] Prince avenue, and June White, [illegible] Lacey street, both of Santa Ana, were cut and bruised when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into another machine here yesterday. Lawrence Laughead, [illegible] Fourth street, San Pedro, driver of the car in which the girls were passengers, was held on a charge of reckless driving.

POLO MANAGER TAKES REST

Chaperoning of Speedy Mounts on Rough Voyage from Argentine Proves Strenuous Task

PASADENA, Dec. 24.—Chaperoning fifty-two polo ponies on a [illegible] forty-two-day ocean voyage from Buenos Aires to San Pedro is [illegible] play, according to Thomas C. Nelson, Buenos Aires sportsman and manager of Argentine's twenty-four-goal polo team, who is resting at the Hotel Huntington following his trying experience.

Nelson, who accompanied Argentine's international polo team to New York in 1928, is the advance guard of Capt. Manuel Andrada's crack team which will give Southern Californians their only taste of international polo this season.

"The voyage," asserted Nelson, "was the roughest I have ever experienced and I am sorry to report that three of our best ponies, Mal Tiempo, Raja Bonette and Mandarino, died from pneumonia on the trip." Mal Tiempo was South America's champion polo pony in 1926, and Raja Bonette was a half-brother of None-So-Pretty, one of the finest ponies of all time.

"I have no words with which to express my appreciation on behalf of my country for the kindness shown us," asserted the Argentinian. "Trucks were waiting at the dock and there was absolutely nothing left for me to do. One pony which was sick was rushed to a veterinary hospital and the others were taken direct to the comfortable Midwick Country Club stables."

Capt. Andrada and his team [illegible] arrive here about January [illegible]. The team has been defeated only once [illegible] the Argentine and has played together since 1928. The other members are Jose Reynol, 7 goals; Juan Reynol, 5 goals; Alfredo Harrington, 5 goals, and Charles [illegible] goals.

"These men are the ones on which Argentina rests its future international polo hopes, and I am confident that they will give a good account of themselves in [illegible] that will be played in this country in January and February," Nelson said.

WANDERERS GIVEN PRESENT

A Christmas present for the wanderers was given yesterday by the City Council when it appropriated $5000 for the municipal service bureau for homeless men. At the same time it was indicated that if this sum does not suffice an additional appropriation of $5000 will be made. The money is to be expended under the supervision of the department of social service.

Temple Sewing Circle: Mrs. J. Baruch, Mrs. E. H. Reich, Mrs. Eugene Willard, Mrs. M. Loewenthal, Mrs. H. Levi, Mrs. Karl Triest, Mrs. Eugene Meyberg.

NAMES CHANGED

The main feature of the meeting was the change of name of the Jewish Aid Society to Jewish Social Service Bureau and the Kaspare Cohn Hospital to the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital.

This hospital, which will have 250 beds and will be nonsectarian in character, is being erected by the Jewish citizens of Los Angeles at a cost of $1,650,000.

Among the speakers were Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, Rabbi Herman Lissauer, J. Y. Baruh, chairman of the finance committee of the federation; Lemuel Goldwater, president of the hospital, and Alexander Meyer, president of the Jewish Social Service Bureau.

MAN LIVES AFTER FIVE STORY FALL

Bank Porter, 70 Years of Age, Leaps from Window to Escape Loneliness

"Too old to live," as he said yesterday, Ernest Bisselman, 70 years of age, of 521 San Julian street, plunged from an eighth story window in a downtown bank building, where he was employed as porter. Practically every bone in his body was broken when he struck on the third-story skylight in a court below. Yet he still was breathing when taken to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where his death was expected momentarily.

The septuagenarian was well known to the attaches of Central Police Station, wihch he passed daily going to and from work. He always saluted anyone he saw there, giving a smart military snap to his hand.

Loneliness oppressed him yesterday, when Bisselman confided to Arthur Maltby, janitor of the bank building, that he was "too old to live" and that "there was no use of going on living." From that talk he went to an eighth-floor window and jumped.

Seal Campaign Holiday Appeal Made to People

A special Christmas Day appeal in behalf of the Christmas seal campaign being conducted by the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association was made by Dr. R. L. Cunningham president.

"Today we are celebrating peace on earth good will toward men," Dr Cunningham said. "It would be well to pause and consider that one of the greatest peace battles known to man is that which helps to destroy disease The Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association is one organization which wages an intensive all-year battle to prevent tuberculosis Funds raised through the sale of seals are its sole source of revenue. I urge everyone to make their first Christmas act a humanitarian one and to send a check to the Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association to aid it in stamping out tuberculosis."

Western Avenue Paving Fund Set Aside by Council

The City Council yesterday approved a report of its Special Allocations Committee setting aside $142,370 from the permanent improvement fund for the paving and improving of Western avenue between Twentyfourth street and Santa Barbara avenue. This represents the total cost of the paving.

The district, however, has borne assessments amounting to $838,176 for the opening and widening proceedings for this stretch of the avenue. The completion of the project will give Western avenue between these points a fifty-six-foot roadway paved with eight-inch concrete.

NOTED AUTHOR WITH HUGHES

Lasky Will Star Gary Cooper in "Civilian Clothes;" Florence Eldridge to Play Opposite Denny; Olive Thomas's Leading Man Back in Films

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

One of the most important happenings of filmland during the past few days was the signing yesterday by Howard Hughes of that noted writer, Joseph March, author of "A Wild Party" and "The Set-Up."

JOSEPH MARCH

The contract is for three years, and is not of the optional variety, Hughes being evidently eager to keep March's talents to himself except as he may occasionally loan him out.

Not only is March to write, but he also is to supervise and direct such productions as seem to need his aid in these directions. Four productions a year are specified under the terms of the contract. His salary, while not announced, is said to be one of the largest ever paid a film writer.

March's first work for Hughes will be the adaptation of "The Front Page," which possibly he also will direct, although this is not yet certain.

In the meantime, March is being loaned to Paramount to adapt a story for that organization.

March has done distinguished work since coming west. He wrote the dialogue for Hughes's "Hells' Angels," as well as the adaptation of Tiffany's "Journey's End."

The writer has been the recipient of many offers from various film companies since coming to the Coast.

LASKY WILL FILM BUCHANAN COMEDY

Now that war plays are all the go in pictures, what's wrong with taking out and dusting off one of the most popular and brilliant stage plays which was shown during the immediate post-war days?

GARY COOPER

That's the way Paramount feels, apparently. At any rate that organization, we hear, is to film Thompson Buchanan's "Civilian Clothes," a play produced first, by the way, by Oliver Morosco, and which made a sensation in its day, some ten years ago. It deals with the problem of the common soldier, worshiped by all classes during the war, who becomes the subject of neglect once his uniform is doffed. The play should make a very fine talking picture.

It was made as a silent film by Paramount, with Thomas Meighan starred some years ago.

Gary Cooper, we hear, will be the star of the picture, and Joseph March is to write the adaptation.

Ian Keith Back

That very skillful actor, Ian Keith, is back in Hollywood. He returned yesterday.

And we do hear that he and Ethel Clayton, his wife, are reconciled. Keith just finished a tour of the East in "The Command Performance," in which he played the lead. He is expecting to continue his picture career.

Florence Eldridge With Denny

Unless something goes wrong within the next few days before the contract is signed, Florence Eldridge will play the leading feminine role opposite Reginald Denny in his first Tiffany production, "The Dark Chapter," adapted from the novel of that name, with A. A. Kline doing the film and talking versions.

FLORENCE ELDRIDGE

Miss Eldridge is from the New York stage originally. She came to Hollywood a couple of seasons ago to play opposite Edward Everett Horton, and made a hit in "Her Cardbard Lover" and other productions.

Denny is to start work on the new picture within a week or two, with E. H. Griffith directing.

Lee Phelps Returns

If you recall the beautiful and ill-fated Olive Thomas you doubtless remember that she had as her leading man in many productions a handsome youth named Lee Phelps.

Phelps has been in vaudeville for some time, but is now returning to pictures. He has the honor of being the only actor of the younger generation to be selected for work in an amusing comedy skit of the M.-G.-M. revue, a skit featuring Louis Mann and DeWolf Hopper.

The actor left pictures to headline in vaudeville in the team of "Armstrong and Phelps,—those two boys from Hollywood." He later went to Australia where he headlined in vaudeville.

Paul Page With Fox

That engaging young actor, Paul Page, has just been assigned by Fox to one of the featured male roles in "The Golden Calf."

Page has recently been playing leads in Fox pictures with great success, and he has also been loaned to other companies.

NAUTICAL COMEDY TO START RUN

Jack Oakie, Polly Walker Star in "Hit the Deck" at Orpheum

The first public showing anywhere of "Hit the Deck" will take place at the Orpheum Theater today.

The world premiere of this picture coupled with the fact that this event will mark the debut of the Orpheum as a leading talking picture theater makes the occasion one of unusual interest. Another outstanding feature of this opening is that "Hit the Deck" will be presented continuously.

JACK OAKIE

"Hit the Deck" was directed by Luther Reed, the man who directed "Rio Rita," and is considered a production worthy of typical premiere festivities. This fact the Orpheum officials have decided to overlook in favor of a public opening. Radio Pictures' version of Vincent Youman's musical comedy features Jack Oakie with Polly Walker.

"REAR CAR" IS HOLIDAY STAGE FARE

Vine-street Theater to Start Comedy Today With Pangborn in Cast

A mystery melodrama played against a comedy background, "The Rear Car," is scheduled to open this afternoon at the Vine-street Theater, with Franklin Pangborn heading the cast.

Prominent in Pangborn's support will be Betty Pierce, newly arrived Broadway stage star, and Gay Seabrook, long a favorite here. Rex Lease temporarily has deserted the screen to accept the role of the cowboy of the Edward Rose mystery.

The entire action of "The Rear Car" is laid in the last car of a transcontinental limited en route from Los Angeles to the East. Although writen around one mysterious happening after another, the play does not resort to the gruesome episodes common to most mystery dramas. Essentially "The Rear Car" is a comedy.

'Dynamite' Will Continue Run at Palace Theater

When "Sunny Side Up" ends its first-run showing at the Fox Palace Theater Tuesday, a new policy of continuous all-talking pictures will be inaugurated for the forthcoming season, featuring outstanding productions released for popular runs.

The opening feature of the new policy, commencing New Year's Day, will be "Dynamite," Cecil B. De Mille's first talking production which scored here in its road-show offering. Changing weekly, the Fox Palace management proposes to present in order a number of the latest of the superspecials on the 1929-30 list of attractions.

"Sunny Side Up," equaling the length of run records attained in other cities, is winning the same acclaim at the Fox Palace that won it a six-weeks' engagement at Grauman's Chinese. Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell costar in their first joint musical comedy. Familiar stage names in the supporting cast include El Brendel, Sharon Lynn, Frank Richardson and Marjorie White.

Actress Writes Theme Song for Stage Comedy

"Dear Me," the song which gives title to the comedy which Grace La Rue and Hale Hamilton and the Henry Duffy Players are presenting at the Hollywood Playhouse, had its lyrics written by John Golden, the original producer of the play, while Miss La Rue composed the music. The song was an offshoot of the story, suggested by April Blair's habit of writing letters of commendation to herself.

The play gives Miss La Rue opportunity for several numbers which she sings in the manner that made her a favorite vaudeville headliner and a star in musical revue. After the performance she also sings "request numbers" for the audience.

Included in the cast of "Dear Me" are Brenda Fowler, Myra Hubert, Joseph De Stefani, Walter Law, Frank Dawson, Bram Nossen and others.

Paramount Will Hold "Sweetie" Over for Week

"Sweetie," the rollicking musical comedy of youth which is now playing at the Paramount Theater, will be held over for a second week. This forces the Paramount to postpone all future bookings.

"Sweetie" features Nancy Carroll, Jack Oakie, Helen Kane, Stanley Smith, Stuart Erwin and William Austin. These youthful stars are one of the principal reasons for the popularity of this picture, it is said.

Many new songs, already becoming popular, are featured in this campus romance. "Sweeter Than Sweet," "I Think You'll Like It," "The Prep Step," "Alma Mammy" and many others are sung by Misses Carroll and Kane, Jack Oakie and Stanley Smith.

Vivacity and Comedy Teamed

Fifi Dorsay

Keeps things humming for Victor McLaglen and El Brendel in "Hot for Paris," which starts today at the Criterion Theater. The three persons essay leading roles in the film.

SANTA STOPS AT CARTHAY

Here's what Santa Claus brought to folk at the Carthay Circle Theater: Carli Elinor, a gold, silver and platinum baton engraved with the names of the theater staff; Bebe Daniels, star of "Rio Rita," current attraction at the Circle, new signatures on a gilt-edged Radio Pictures' contract, a pair of theater tickets to Ben Lyons's stage debut, a Spanish shawl from her grandmother, and a miscellaneous half-ton of other presents.

John Boles, leading man of "Rio Rita," received a polo pony, a half-interest in a cotton plantation in Texas, telegraphic offers from New York light-opera producers and six dozen golf balls. Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, comedians in "Rio Rita," were recipients of three bales of "professional copies" of music for them to try out; a new pair of horn-rimmed spectacles for Woolsey and a pair of rubber-soled dancing shoes for Wheeler.

Dorothy Lee, comedienne in "Rio Rita," arrived in Los Angeles from a tour with Waring's Pennsylvanians on Friday night in time to be home with her mother for Christmas.

'SHREW' IS DUE TODAY AT ARTISTS

Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks Costar in New Version of Farce

"Taming of the Shrew," in which Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks make their first joint appearance in motion pictures, opens at the United Artists Theater today.

Besides the all-talking version of the Shakespeare farce, the program embraces the Paramount-Christie comedy, "The Duke of Dublin," featuring Charlie Murray; Paramount Sound News; Oliver Wallace at the console, and Frances Williams and the four Yacht Club Boys in "Hitting the High C's."

Christmas Week Ends Today at Loew's State

The Christmas week show at Loew's State will end today. The Fanchon and Marco Christmas Kiddie Revue on the stage with the Meglin kiddies has been very popular with the juvenile patrons this week. Over 150 people are on the stage in this double bill which also includes the regular "Desert" idea.

Edmund Lowe and Constance Bennett in "This Thing Called Love" is the all-dialogue feature picture from Pathe. With the start of the new program tomorrow, the film will be "Romance of Rio Grande," Fox Movietone successor to "In Old Arizona." Warner Baxter has his first outdoor "gringo" role since that production and Mary Duncan and Antonio Moreno are also featured.

Rehearsals for the special New Year's Eve midnight whoopee show are now under way. Benny Rubin will act as master of ceremonies.

R.-K.-O. Brings Drama of Air in Popular Run

The Three Hundred and Seventh United States Marine Corps Reserve, under the command of Lieut. J. M. Burns, Jr., will turn out in force tomorrow night at the R.-K.-O. Theater to usher in the first popular showing of "Flight," the romantic air drama.

The marines will appear on the stage in drill formation in honor of Jack Holt and Ralph Graves, who portray two heroic flying devil dogs in the picture. The romance and adventures of the two marines is enhanced by Lila Lee, who plays the part of a nurse.

"Broadway Scandals" will be shown for the last time this evening. It cofeatures Sally O'Neil, Carmel Myers and Jack Egan.

BURLESQUE AT BURBANK

"Broadway Cinderellas," Christmas week burlesque at the Burbank Theater, is a rapid-moving show with laughs, pleasing numbers and two hard-working comics, Charlie Fritcher and Billy Mossey. Dance ensembles space the clever comedy bits. Frances Parks, an attractive brunette, is entitled to leading honors. The balance of the cast includes Virginia Jones, Grace Carlos and Jane Hazleton.

Atmosphere of 'Condemned' Has Authentic Note

Undeniably authentic is the local color in "Condemned," the story of the French penal colonies in South America, which has been made into Ronald Colman's latest starring picture now in its fourth week at Grauman's Chinese Theater.

ANN HARDING

In order to gather material for this book, most of which has been incorporated in the photoplay, Mrs. Blair Niles secured the official permission of the French government to visit the Devil's Island prison in French Guiana, permission which has scarcely ever before been granted to any journalist.

"Condemned" features Ronald Colman with Ann Harding and was directed by Wesley Ruggles. In the supporting cast appear Louis Wolheim and Dudley Digges.

Gala Midnight Shows Offered at Two Houses

Plans for gala midnight matinees on New Year's Eve have been completed at the two Warner Brothers Theaters. At both the Warner's Downtown and Warner's Hollywood Theater, midnight matinees will be given on New Year's Eve.

The attraction at the Downtown Theater is "Paris," starring Irene Bordoni, the noted international star who is appearing in motion-pictures for the first time. At the Hollywood Theater John Barrymore's first talking picture, "General Crack," will be the attraction.

With balloons, noise-making instruments and other souvenirs given to the patrons at these midnight matinees, a gala occasion is anticipated at both theaters.

DUFFY TO RETURN IN MYSTERY

"Cat and Canary" Listed at President; Dale Winter Costars in Play

Dale Winter and Henry Duffy are returning to the stage for another engagement here, this time at the President Theater. Their appearance here last summer at El Capitan in Frank Craven's "The First Year" was one of the noteworthy events of the theatrical season. This time the popular duo will return to present "The Cat and the Canary," starting January 5.

Duffy has been ambitious for a long time to present "The Cat and the Canary" here as he considers it the best of all mystery plays. Moreover the role of Paul Jones, the youth who finds himself the central figure in the strange proceedings that take place in the gloomy Glencliffe manor on a stormy evening is one of his favorites and he has appeared in it in the East and in San Francisco. Dale Winter will be Annabelle West, the heiress, who finds her life endangered by a series of hairbreadth adventures.

"That Ferguson Family," Howard Chenery's comedy of the American family, is now in its final fortnight at the President.

Colored Cast Tweaks Noses of Moralists

With lines containing several thrusts at modern civilization and those souls who make it their business to regulate the lives and morals of everyone else, "The Eternal Magdalene" was presented at the Lincoln Theater last night by the colored Lafayette Players.

"The Eternal Magdalene" is a strange play, in some ways a bit old-fashioned, but withal a strong document with a novel theme. Many of the evils and social ills with which the play deals have disappeared from modern life, and for this reason all the worry raised in the course of the action seems a bit unnecessary. But it points out a good moral anyway for those persons who are inclined to judge their fellow-humans.

Evelyn Preer plays the role of the woman of the town and gives an excellent performance. A large cast essays supporting roles in a capable manner.

Noted Aviators Interested in 'Lost Zeppelin'

Well-known pilots and leaders in local aviation circles have shown keen interest in the premiere at midnight New Year's Eve of Tiffany's all-talking production, "The Lost Zeppelin," at the Million Dollar Theater.

Among the first to make reservations for this gala opening were Lieut. D. W. Tomlinson, former navy flyer, noted as the leader of the Three Sea Hawks, Bobby Trout, endurance flyer Karl Lang, pilot of the Goodyear dirigible, Volunteer, and Felix Preeg.

An aeronautic display is being placed in the lobby of the Million Dollar.

Horton Provides Humorous Antics

A typical masculine rendition of a popular song by Edward Everett Horton provides a choice comedy sidelight in "Among the Married," the breezy Vincent Lawrence play of modes and manners now at the Majestic Theater.

To the accompaniment of the clink of ice in a cocktail shaker, Horton gives his own inimitable version of "I Can't Give You Anything but Love, Baby," while Mary Astor plays on the piano and also sings the song. In an original bit of acting, Horton manages to sing the first line, and then mumbles the tune, coming out with a reckless loudness at the end of all lines with "baby"—several times when the last word doesn't even rhyme with baby.

FOLLIES BILL PLEASES

There is sparkle in "Nite Club Girls," this week's burlesque at the Follies. Foster and Semon mix German wit and eccentric comedy in the various scenes to the accompaniment of continuous laughter. A newcomer to the Follies stage is Wanda Devon. She wins instant favor with audiences, and bids fair to become a favorite. Evelyn Myers and Evelyn Ramsay, soubrettes, offer two song-and-dance numbers that please.

POWER BOARD SEEKS TO GROW

Purchase of Gas Company's Electric Lines Proposed

Elimination of Duplication Given as Object

Option to Buy Owens River Ranch Lands Approved

A resolution advocating the purchase of the electric system of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation and another one approving the option for the purchase of 4100 acres of much-disputed ranch land on the Owens River canal were adopted by the Board of Water and Power Commissioners at a special meeting yesterday.

At various times the power bureau has agitated itself over the proposed purchase of the gas company's electric system, and yesterday's resolution advocating such step puts the matter out in the open. The resolution is as follows:

RESOLUTION'S TEXT

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this board that, for the best interests of the city of Los Angeles, which has invested $75,000,000 in its own electric system, and in order to prevent economically unwise duplication of facilities, the Department of Water and Power should acquire the electric generating, transmission and distribution system of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, with all properties and rights of said company pertaining thereto, such acquisition to be at a fair valuation to be determined by mutual agreement, if practicable, or by the Railroad Commission of the State of California."

The board, through its president, Dr. John R. Haynes, issued the following explanation of its resolution:

EXPLANATION MADE

"Purchase by the city of the electric system of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation will make possible large economies in operation and in overhead. These economies will be immediately realized through the elimination of duplicating distributing facilities now in existence, and elimination of large overhead operating expenses.

"These economies will be reflected in lower rates to the consumer.

"It may be conservatively stated that the additional net earnings made available to the city of Los Angeles through consolidation of the gas company electric system with the Bureau of Power and Light will: (a) pay all carrying charges on the bonds authorized to purchase the system; (b) provide additional revenues to guarantee the financing of Boulder Dam power development; (c) make possible such material electric rate reductions as will greatly help carry the city's domestic water financing outlay.

BUREAU'S RATE RECORD

"Our city-owned power system has, since its inception, led the way in consistently reducing rates for the benefit of the consumer. The low rates established and maintained by the Los Angeles Power Bureau have brought about much lower rates, not only for Los Angeles people, but for electric consumers throughout California."

The resolution on the land purchases brings to an end a deal with some of the valley ranchers that has been hanging fire for months and involves holdings in the valley that have been for years a bone of contention between the city and certain of the valley forces. There are thirty-seven pieces of land involved covering about 4100 acres. The purchase price is set at $1,120,000, a figure arrived at by E. D. Goodenough of Piru, who was agreed upon by the city and the landowners as a one-man board of review to establish a price after the two parties could not agree.

OPTION FOR THIRTY DAYS

Under the terms of the resolution the city takes an option for thirty days. Within that time the ranchers are expected individually to produce evidence of clear title to at least 30 per cent of their land, meaning that it is not encumbered. As soon as such evidence is produced the city will enter into a new option to purchase, running up to November 1, 1930, and paying 10 per cent of the purchase price down. This is virtually an agreement to purchase before June 30, 1931.

The land is being bought, of course, for its water rights. This leaves some scattered ranches still to be purchased by the city, and is independent of the proposed purchase of the towns.

Sentencing of Officer Delayed

Sentencing of Arthur McClanahan, negro police officer, convicted of three counts of bribery, was continued by Superior Judge Hardy to January 3, when attorneys for McClanahan filed a motion for a new trial yesterday.

McClanahan was tried on the bribery charges together with S. S. Wylie and C. N. Bradford, also negro officers. The latter two were acquitted. The State charged the officers with accepting "protection" money from reputed bootleggers in the Central-avenue district.

VICTIM OF AUTO CRASH SUCCUMBS

Six Others Injured, Three of Them Probably Fatally, in Pre-Christmas Traffic

Mrs. Roma Bryant, 22 years of age, of 533 MacArthur street, San Pedro, died last night in a San Pedro hospital, as the result of injuries received yesterday when a car in which she was riding with her husband, Joseph L. Bryan, collided at Fourth street and Grand avenue, San Pedro, with an automobile driven by W. R. Stiber of 3524 Dennison street. He was arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

When his motorcycle was struck by an automobile yesterday, R. E. Doyle, 20, of 1329 Thirty-seventh Place, was thrown, and received a skull fracture. Doyle was riding his motorcycle at Main and Arcadia streets when knocked over. He was treated at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, and then transferred to General Hospital. His condition is reported as very serious.

Struck by a passing car yesterday while he was backing his own car Lenord White, 21, of 1911 West Forty-first street, received internal injuries, while several ribs were fractured. White was backing out of his home garage driveway when another car passing along the street, struck the rear end of his automobile, injuring the driver. White was taken to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

In a collision of two cars last night, Mrs. Dorothy Merritt of 1526 Diamond street, South Pasadena, received a fractured skull. Her brother, Harold E. Hess, of 1606 Ben Lomond Drive, Glendale, who was driving, was cut by glass, and her daughter, Dorothy, received minor injuries.

They were treated at the Glendale Medical Group, and Mrs. Merritt later was taken to Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital. The Hess car collided with one driven by Edward Maulfair of 527 Winchester avenue, at the intersection of Winchester avenue and Lake street, Glendale, according to Sergt. Browne's police report.

Mrs. Gene Townsend, 45, 1721 Van Ness avenue, was probably fatally injured last night when she was knocked to the pavement at the corner of Hollywood Boulevard and Van Ness avenue by a car driven by Harold B. Halvern, 31, 1056 Sanborn avenue. According to the investigation of Patrolmen Pierson and Cavanaugh of the Hollywood police station, Halvern was intoxicated at the time of the crash and struck Mrs. Townsend while speeding at fifty miles an hour. He was held at the Hollywood station on a charge of driving while intoxicated, pending the outcome of Mrs. Townsend's injuries.

Employees at City Hall Get Theft Caution

Due to the fact that many City Hall employees have been leaving Christmas packages in their cars in the City Hall garage, Building Manager Rodgers yesterday published a bulletin warning against the practice. He stated later that while no thefts have been reported to him, he issued the warning to guard against a situation which arose last July when many thefts were reported by persons leaving their cars in the garage.

At that time Rodgers made an appeal to the Board of Public Works for a staff of watchmen, which, however, was not afforded him. Shortly thereafter, rifling and searching of cars ceased.

Officers Seek Missing Youth

Search for Lawrence Gibson, 18 years of age, of 1348 West One Hundred and Sixth street, was begun yesterday by deputy sheriffs following a report of his disappearance last Monday by the boy's father, B. W. Gibson.

According to the report, the boy left a note to the effect that the "curfew would not ring for him," and instructed his sister not to make Christmas preparations for him. The father told deputies that the boy had less than $5 in his possession at the time of his disappearence and that he had returned by mail a $100 bill given him for Christmas.

MUST CHANGE NAMES

Many children in Bologna, Italy, will have to change their names in compliance with a decree of the Civil Court. During the Communistic fervor which preceded the Fascist regime many boys and girls were given such names as Lenin, Anarchist, Proletarian, Illegalitarian, Atheist, Vengeance, Dynamite, Internationale and the like. These Bolshevist and anti-Christian names says the court, must be dropped and more orthodox ones adopted instead.—[The Pathfinder.

AUTHOR SEES BOOM HERE

Los Angeles Real Estate and Industrial Activity Certain, Says Writer Back From East

Edgar Lloyd Hampton, magazine writer, has returned to Los Angeles after ten weeks spent in the East, mostly in conference with editors of publications for which he writes, and he predicts that "in the next few years people are going to invest in something that they can see and get their hands on."

"I look for a rapid increase in real estate and industrial investments throughout the entire country during 1930, with a decided forward movement in Los Angeles," he said.

"The New Yorker," he commented, "does not just now seem particularly interested in the Pacific Coast. He thinks it is a long way off and he knows almost nothing of the great movements under way in this area. The news in the New York dailies stop dead at Chicago and almost nothing of a constructive character is mentioned regarding this region farther west.

"These statements, however, do not apply to the editors of national magazines. They are very much alive to our various Pacific Coast activities, and in particular are interested in Los Angeles industries, the harbor commerce, our aeronautics and such work as is being done by Dr. Robert Millikan and at Mt. Wilson Observatory."

As an example of this, he said, he obtained commissions for thirty-two magazine articles to appear in 1930 in various national magazines dealing with the western half of the United States, "fully one-half of which will deal with phases of life and industrial activity in Los Angeles."

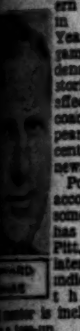
BRAVEN DYER



Rockne and John W. have gone on record as Pittsburgh to beat Southern California in the New Year's Day game at Pasadena. Signed stories to this effect by these coaches appeared in recent Pittsburgh newspapers.

Pop Warner, according to some reports, has also picked Pitt, although later dispatches indicated that the veteran mentor is inclined to call a toss-up.

body of note, outside of Connelly, has named the the likely winners.

PITT ELEVEN SET FOR TRIP

Panthers Ready to Leave for Bowl Contest

Special Train Scheduled to Bring Squad

Novel Souvenir Given to Squad Members

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Dec. 24. (Exclusive)—At 11:48 Christmas night the Pitt Panther special will pull out of Pittsburgh carrying with it the hopes of the city and of the University of Pittsburgh. They will be four days reaching Los Angeles, stopping each day to practice.

JOCK SUTHERLAND

The Pitt special train will be made up of four sleepers, a diner, observation car, a club car and a baggage car. A large number of prominent Pittsburghers and friends of the university will make the trip with the team.

The Panthers will take their final workout in Pittsburgh Christmas afternoon in the Hunt Armory, they will be given a big turkey dinner following the practice and then will be free until time to board the train at 10 p.m.

Today's workout was held in almost zero weather. As has been the trouble for the past week, it was almost impossible to do any kind of passing. For this reason, the much-needed drill in defense against the Trojans' aerial attack was grievously curtailed.

The loose ground in the Armory also hindered the Panthers from polishing up their own attack. The best they can do is to get into the best condition possible for the game and trust to the early season practice for their finished attack.

The members of the team will have calling cards written on rice

HERE'S JOB FOR SANTA CLAUS

Madison Square Garden Wants Opponent for Sharkey; Sixteen Major League Managers Want Right-Hand Hurlers; Golfers Looking for Slice Cure

BY BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—Santa Claus, alias St. Nick, can do a good turn tomorrow for a number of watchful waiters in sports, but probably he will not.

There's Madison Square Garden with a yawning sock, only half-filled with heavyweight boxers to clutter up a new and expensive arena at Miami, Fla., in February.

No one connected with the commuting promoters would be sorry to find an opponent for Jack Sharkey dropped from Kriss Kringle's capacious pack. The old gentleman, however, is understood to be practically out of heavyweight boxers.

Sixteen managers of major league baseball clubs, would count Christmas a huge success if jolly old S. Claus, Esq. should leave them a few good right-hand pitchers or even left-hand ones if their control is good. Santa, however, is reported short of good pitchers this year.

Donie Bush of the Chicago White Sox will look through his packages to see if any are labeled "catchers," and Bob Shawkey of the Yankees will feel much better over the holidays if his presents include infield toys guaranteed not to break.

If Roger Peckinpaugh and Bill Evans find an outfielder on their joint Christmas tree their first question will be, "Does he bat right-handed?" If not, they will toss him back. For Wilbert Robinson at his Dover Hall (Ga.) retreat, where Christmas trees are grown, not bought in the market, the best present will be news of peace, or an armistice, along the turbulent Brooklyn baseball front.

Bill McKechnie of the Braves and Heinie Wagner of the Red Sox will be among the most charitable of the recipients of Christmas tokens. They will not look gift horses in the mouth. If their presents include ball players they will not care what positions they play.

Hundreds of golfers, convinced that the game they misplaced last autumn will be found again if they can try their shots under southern skies, will start after Christmas for sunnier climes, where there is no snow on the greens. The best Christmas for these optimists will be a cure for a slice. They do not mind the hook.

Jeff's Boxer Off Hollywood Fight Program

Tony Starr and Ed Herting will be the main-event fighters at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium Friday night. Al Morro, Jim Jeffries's heavyweight, has a bad ear which was lanced by a doctor yesterday and his Hollywood debut has been set for some time in January. Starr is the San Diego marine who looks like a comer.

The semi-wind-up has been changed to read Joe Bitto vs. Bud Doyle. They are light-heavies. Bitto recently won from Wally Fraser by a technical knockout.

The Hollywood card hasn't been weakened any by Starr being boosted up to the main event. Some of the curiosity may be lost by the fact that Al Morro won't fight Herting, but Starr is just a youngster and looks very promising. He may turn out to be just as big a sensation as Frankie Campbell.

In the special event Tommy McGough will fight Clayton Gouyd. They are bantamweights. Gouyd has been away and returns to fight a very tough youngster in McGough.

ALL-STAR GRIDDERS TO WORK

DENVER (Colo.) Dec. 24. (AP)—The Rocky Mountain Conference All-Star football team which will meet a picked eleven from the North Central Conference in a charity game New Year's Day, will assemble in Denver Thursday for its first workout.

STANFORD CINCH TO WIN; ARMY END ALL MIXED-UP

GIANTS SUE EX-OFFICIAL

Francis X. McQuade, ex-Treasurer, Gets $250,000 Suit for Christmas But He Can't Wear It

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—Seeking damages in the sum of $250,000, the National Exhibition Company, operating the New York Giants baseball club of the National League, today filed suit against its former treasurer, Francis X. McQuade.

McQuade, who served as treasurer of the company from May 1, 1928 to May 1, 1929, is alleged in the complaint to have injured and destroyed the property, assets and earning power of the plaintiff to the extent of the sum asked in the suit. The defendant is a New York magistrate.

The document sets forth a claim that the defendant "attempted to induce and influence officers and directors to pay to him and other officers increased and unconscionable salaries." On refusal, the complaint says that "the defendant planned and schemed to wreck and destroy the property, assets and earning capacity of the plaintiff."

Other allegations are that McQuade stood at the gate of the Polo Grounds, playing field of the Giants, and admitted "vast numbers" to games without these patrons having tickets, that he "insulted, assaulted and falsely imprisoned spectators attending games," and "insulted and harassed employees."

The former treasurer is alleged in the document filed today to have accompanied the Giants on trips in spite of the objections of the plaintiff and made discipline among the players difficult.

Committees representing colleges renting the Polo Grounds for exhibitions are alleged to have been "harassed and insulted."

JOHNNY RISKO MAY SPOIL GRIFFITH RING BALLYHOO

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The late Tex Rickard once characterized Johnny Risko of Cleveland as a "spiler," and the well-known Ohio rubber man will try his best to live up to his reputation when he takes on Tuffy Griffith in a ten-round bout in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Rickard tacked his nickname on Risko because of the Clevelander's penchant for "spoiling" battlers the famous promoter was trying to "build up." Sharkey, Berlenbach, Delaney, Paulino Uzcudun and Tom Heeney all were sent against the rubber man for "build-up" purposes but what glory there was in those matches went largely to Risko.

The Cleveland veteran meets another comer in Griffith and he may flash enough of his old-time form to conquer the slugger from Sioux City, Iowa. Risko always has fought his best in New York rings, aside from the bout of several months ago when he was stopped by Max Schmeling.

Griffith, who has won ten of his thirteen heavyweight bouts by knockouts, will enter the ring a favorite at odds of about 7 to 5. The Sioux City fighter has much to gain and just as much to lose. Provided he can win in sensational fashion from Risko he will be given serious consideration as a possible opponent for Jack Sharkey at Miami in February.

NOBLE KIZER MAY GET JIMMY PHELAN'S POST

LAFAYETTE (Ind.) Dec. 24. (AP) Noble Kizer, who for five years has been football line coach at Purdue University, has been recommended by Col. Nelson A. Kellogg, director of athletics, for head coach to succeed James M. Phelan and the recommendation was approved today by President Edward C. Elliott.

Kizer is a former Notre Dame player, having filled a guard position on the Notre Dame team at the time when the famous "four horsemen" were running wild on the gridiron.

Earl Martineau, former Minnesota player, and Mal Edward, another former Notre Dame athlete, have been recommended for retention as assistant coaches. Kizer, Martineau and Edward aided Phelan in developing the Purdue team into Western Conference champions this season.

It is expected the Purdue trustees will approve the appointment of Kizer, when they meet here January 8.

Flashy Center in Hospital With Temperature

Cadets Try Out Defense to Stop Warner Team

West Pointers Build Aerial Attack Around Cagle

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 24.—Scrimmage was the order of the day in both the Army and the Stanford football camps. The weather was nippy and snappy, vigorous mix-ups resulted.

RED CAGLE

Capt. Biff Jones, holding secret practice in the stadium, used the scrub teams to test the varsity's attack and the plebe team to test its defense. The plebes used Warner plays in their effort to undo the regulars. The drill was declared successful in teaching the cadets how to cover Stanford's strong points.

After the scrimmage session, the Army wound up with a passing drill, Mr. Cagle unlimbering his trusty flipper for the attack which Army hopes will humble Stanford.

Announcement also came from within the cadet precincts that Gibner, second-string quarter, has been shifted to left halfback where, if needed, he will be used in Saturday's game. Gibner is a former Stanford man, having attended here for a year.

Aside from the above, the Army has nothing to report. They seem to have the situation well obscured.

With Walt Heinecke, center, still running a temperature and keeping to his bed in the hospital, the announcement was made today that it was doubtful whether he would be able to play. At all events, he will not play the entire game. To Perry Taylor, a rangy moose who has attracted favorable notice this season, will fall the task of substituting for the stocky lineman. Pop Warner would rather lose any man on the team than Heinecke

THOMPSON BOUT NOT SANCTIONED

Jimmy McLarnin is Named as Challenger

Board Points Out Champ Has Twice Defeated Negro

Bass-Morgan Aftermath is Cause of Decision

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The scheduled fifteen-round welterweight championship boxing bout at Madison Square Garden January 3, next, between Champion Jackie Fields and Jack Thompson, was quashed today by the New York State Athletic Commission, which refused to grant its sanction.

JACKIE FIELDS

Holding that the proposed affair was not a logical championship match, the commissioners pointed out Fields has beaten the San Francisco negro twice. They indicated a belief that Jimmy McLarnin has a better right to the shot at Fields's title.

Because of the dissatisfaction resulting from the Tod Morgan-Benny Bass junior lightweight affair of last week the commission was disposed to apply closer scrutiny to the future title matches.

Further investigation of the bout in which Bass won the title from Morgan by a knockout in the second round was postponed indefinitely and the purses of the principals were still held up, but the commission relented sufficiently to allow Morgan and his manager, Frank Churchill, enough of their share to pay the railroad fare back to Seattle.

John Pesek, the powerful Nebraskan, who is seeking a bout with Dick Shikat, recognized in New York and Pennsylvania as heavyweight wrestling champion, posted a $2500 check as an evidence of good faith and this was passed on to Jack Curley, New York wrestling promoter.

FRANK CRIDER WEDS

DURANT (Okla.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Frank Crider of Durant, captain and fullback of the 1929 University of Oklahoma football team and selected on several all-Big Six elevens, fell a victim of cupid' tackle here last night. His bride was Miss Kathryn Jarrell of Durant, who has been attending Southeastern State Teachers' College here.

All-Star Teams Clash Today in Holiday Program Presented by City Soccer Lo

LOYOLA FIELD SITE OF TILTS

Benefit Games Will be Held for Injured Players

Southern California League Faces Local Squad

Veteran Soccerites Slated to Strut Their Stuff

A holiday soccer football program will be staged at Loyola Field this afternoon with all-star teams from the Southern California and City leagues clashing in the feature game at 3 o'clock. A 1 o'clock preliminary game will bring out two teams of youngsters, representing Los Angeles and Pasadena.

The program will be a benefit one with all proceeds going into the fund for injured players. There is no little rivalry between the city and Southern California leagues and all-star teams from the two organizations are certain to put on a fast and furious game of soccer.

The City League team has lined up a speedy set of forwards in Thompson and Cleve of the Vikings, Downie of the Scots, Espinosa of the Magyars and Montserrat of the Spanish Americans. In the defense will be Pelayo, Spanish Americans, goal, and Stevens, Richfield, and Whatne, Vikings, fullbacks. The halfback line will be composed of Holmes, Scots; Martindale, Magyars, and Stewart, Hollywood.

Against this array of stars the Southern California team will line up as follows: Spargo, Scandia, goalfil Taylor, Caledonia, and Muller, Victoria, fullbacks; Grey, Rangers; Steudle, Victoria, and Macrae, Caledonia, halfbacks; Sephton, Caledonia; Young, Caledonia; Tucker, Rangers; Rogar, Caledonia, and Seiners, Germania, forwards.

The preliminary game between the teams of boys, none of whom are over 15 years of age, will be another contest full of thrills.

Bears Tangle With Oilers

Winter Garden officials are offering local ice hockey fans a real treat tonight when the Sunfreze Bears and the Union Oilers mix at the Van Ness arena. These two big husky squads have been working out for a week and both managers pronounce their teams in shape for the contest.

While the encounter this evening has all the earmarks of a grudge battle, it will also settle the supremacy of second place in the local amateur league. When the Bears and Oilers met last week Referee Abbey Newell sent twenty-four players off the ice during the course of the game for ungentlemanly conduct.

The Bears will show two newcomers in Bud Boyd, a giant forward, and Charley McDonald, a capable goalie. Wood Woodley, Tubby Coleman, Tut Collett and Choppy Richards are the other big stars of Sunfreze. Union will rely on Howard, Horsfall, Henry, Hayden and Simington to gather their share of the points.

Filipinos Play Games Today

Today the "sipa vula" and the "tubig-tubig" will be introduced to Los Angeles.

They are novel athletic contests of the Philippines to be presented in a mammoth Christmas Day sports tournament to start at 10 o'clock this morning at the Los Angeles High School field.

The meet is part of the entertainment program arranged for delegates to the third national convention of the Filipino Federation of America by Hilario C. Moncado, the national president.

In the Philippines "sipa vula" and "tubig-tubig" contests take the place of football here. "Sipa vula" is played with a rattan ball, kicked and thrown much like the ball in American rugby. Although no ball is used in "tubig-tubig," the players tackle each other.

ANDERSON SIGNED TO BOX ALVARADO

Clark Anderson, one of the best young negro ring prospects seen in Los Angeles in some time, has been signed to meet Jimmy Alvarado, Mexican 126-pounder, in the six-round semi-wind-up at the Main-street Athletic Club next Saturday night. Alvarado is a highly touted member of the Goldie Hess stable.

Leo Hernandez and Jack (Baby) Grande, welterweights, are scheduled for the main event.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO SOMEBODY

It's the jolly Yuletide season for a number of the local populace today, for some 70 000 tickets for the New Year's Day game were launched yesterday by Arnold Eddy, assistant graduate manager at the University of Southern California. The photo shows Arnold Eddy, foreground, smiling cheerfully as the pasteboards are launched on their way, with Webster Hopkins, his assistant, in the background, and Miss Dorothy Fenstamaker, assisting him in the distribution of the Christmas offerings.

ROGER WETHERED
RUNS BALL UP FACE OF CLUB ON PITCH
Sol Metzger 12-23

BY SOL METZGER

Certain fine golfers do not play a pitch shot in the orthodox manner. That is, they do not meet the ball as the clubhead is coming down. Roger Wethered, one of Britain's great amateurs and a brother of the more famous Joyce, is such a player.

Wethered's pitch — and it has plenty of bite—is more of a scoop. It differs radically from the better known method from start to finish. You notice two differences in Wethered's iron play from that of a star like Jones.

First, his stance is much wider. Second, he plays the ball off his left shoulder instead of nearer the right. That means he meets it at the lowest arc of his swing through.

Roger actually slides the face of his club under the ball, forcing the ball to run up the face of the club. It's a sort of slap through shot that few can imitate. But Wethered plays it with deadly accuracy. Tomorrow—the hit down pitch.

Sol Metzger has prepared a complete analysis of the pivot with illustrations which will aid any golfer. He will gladly send it to any reader requesting it. Inclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

grains to introduce themselves to the Californians.

Jimmy Clark, speedy little fullback, saw plenty service during the practice session. He replaced Tom Parkinson, who is being held out of the scrimmage sessions for fear of an injury. The big fullback is the key man of the Pitt attack and Sutherland is not going to take any chances of him turning an ankle on the uncertain footing.

A good friend of the team, L. Blystone of Ardara, Pa., has sent each member of the official party a grain of rice with the name of the player, his position and the name of the team written upon it.

For Coach Sutherland he has made a special card from the same material, having on its surface more than 150 words.

STRONG UTAH FIVE NEXT FOR WESTWOOD BRUINS

After splitting an exceptionally close and exciting two-game series with the powerful Brigham Young University Cougars from Provo, Coach Caddy Works's Bruin cagers will take on another intersectional court rival from the State of Utah. The University of California at Los Angeles team will meet the University of Utah quintet in a three-game series to be played on next Friday, Saturday and Monday nights, all games scheduled to be played on the floor of the Olympic Auditorium.

The Utah aggregation is rated as one of the strongest in the Rocky Mountain Conference, and may upset Caddy Works's fast traveling Bruin basketeers. The Utah boys have a similar attack to that displayed by the Brigham Young cagers, that the Bruins had such a hard time solving.

In their practice season to date, the Bruins have won three games and lost but one encounter. In their first practice game of the season, the Westwood aggregation took La Verne College Leopards to the tune of 37 to 22, and then on the following night smote down the Pomona College Sagehens by the overpowering score of 48 to 19.

The series of two games with the Brigham Young outfit came next and the Bruins won a game, and lost a game. Last Saturday night, the U.C.L.A. team was unable to solve the intricate passing and accurate basket-shooting of the Mormons, and lost a close fracas by the score of 47 to 49 in a game played on the Olympic Auditorium court. On Monday night, the Bruins got revenge, edging out the Cougars in one of the most hectic and closely fought games of the season thus far, by a count of 47 to 43. In both games with Brigham Young, Carl Knowles, stellar Westwood center, led the attack, scoring 14 and 17 points, respectively, in the two games. Capt. Larry Wilds played a sensational game in Monday night's fracas in the Manual Arts High gymnasium, scoring 13 points.

DEMAVE DUE TO ARRIVE TODAY

Eastern Heavy and Kennedy Mix New Year's Eve

Jack De Mave is due here today from New York after a train ride through snow banks and cold, to fight Les Kennedy at the Olympic on New Year's Eve. The easterner is a 195-pounder with a good punch, ability to box and plenty of experience.

Matchmaker Wad Wadhams plans to use all the young heavyweights he can muster as the supporting card. The club announced yesterday it would stage a heavyweight elimination tournament in an effort to help name the world's champion.

At present, the Coast has two able candidates in Kennedy, who recently defeated K. O. Christner, and Frankie Campbell, who has knocked out his last eight opponents.

Campbell is vacationing until late in January, and there is a strong urge for a Campbell-Kennedy bout. This match is by far the best natural looming at Jack Doyle's club.

It is expected that Goldie Hess will appear at the Olympic tomorrow to sign for the Cecil Payne bout on January 7. Payne has already signed. The Louisville boy agreed to box the winner of the Hess-Baby Sal Sorio contest.

Fidel La Barba is already training for his 1930 campaign, which he starts on January 14, when he meets Ignacio Fernandez. The ex-flyweight champion is doing his stuff in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Cohan Host to News Boys

Morrie Cohan, the boy promoter of Pasadena, today is acting as host to the newsboys of his town, with a big Christmas feed at Hotel Green in Pasadena. The young guests, to the number of several hundred, are also being presented with a lot of toys and their food is being served to them by pretty motion-picture actresses, acting as waitresses for the occasion.

Meanwhile, Cohan is busy with preparations for a second "Christmas party" at his regular show tomorrow night, when he will present an exceptionally attractive bill at a "ladies' free" performance. By ladies free is meant that all fair fans accompanied by escorts are admitted without charge.

A real fistic natural is promised Thursday night in the ten-round main event. It brings together Dud Eades, favorite Crown City lightweight, and Young Peter Jackson, the greatest colored boy to walk into the Pasadena Arena since Baby Joe Gans.

Johnny Jordan and Sailor Freddie Ramierez, flyweights, will fight the six-round semifinal.

Four-round bouts will present: Roy Molina vs. Jimmy Previs, 126 pounds; Connie Sambrio vs. Phil Blood, 145 pounds; Frankie Abendino vs. Cliff Barrier, 126 pounds.

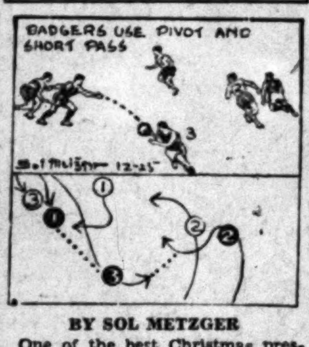
COACH STAGG ON WAY TO CALIFORNIA

CHICAGO, Dec. 24. (AP)—Coach A. A. Stagg of the University of Chicago has left Chicago for California, where he will spend his annual vacation. The grand old man of the Midway will witness the Army-Stanford and Pittsburgh-Southern California games, and will stop off during the return trip to address alumni clubs at San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Denver and Salt Lake City.

HOPPE BEATS COCHRAN

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—Willie Hoppe easily conquered Welker Cochran in a 200-point three-cushion billiards match concluded here tonight, 200 to 149. Hoppe took both of today's blocks, winning, 50 to 44, in fifty-three innings this afternoon, and 50 to 30 in 35 innings tonight.

Badger Five Clever With Short Passes



BY SOL METZGER

One of the best Christmas presents to those who play basketball is this version of attack as developed by that clever coach, Walter Meanwell, of Wisconsin. It combines blocking, pivoting and short passing.

No. 1 has been blocked off in his advance and as he receives the ball, No. 3 cuts past him. No. 1 pivots and passes to No. 3. Note No. 2, the forward on the other side line, cut off from an advance to the basket. He does a half-pivot, cuts to the rear of his guard and takes a pass from No. 3. This plan of attack, an advance over the short pass and cut attack of Meanwell's earlier shown, is a high spot in modern play.

Davis to Head Yacht Club

New flag officers for the year 1930 were announced yesterday from the secretary's office of the California Yacht Club, following a warmly contested election covering a period of more than two weeks.

Pierre Davis, well-known local architect and yachtsman, was chosen commodore. Davis has been prominent in C.Y.C. for several years and is known as one of the club's most successful racing skippers. As one of the former owners of the R sloop Patricia, Davis had the honor of piloting her to victory in one race or another in practically every port on the Pacific Coast.

Other members of C.Y.C.'s new staff include W. L. Valentine, vice-commodore; A. N. Kemp, rear-commodore; Sloan Flack, fleet captain; Dr. E. G. Eisen, fleet surgeon; Judge Rey Schauer, judge advocate; George H. Hand, fleet secretary.

On the advisory board are such veteran boosters of the yachting game as Otto G. Wildey, Joe Fellows, Eugene Overton, Ray Thomas, E. C. Wilson, E. W. Murphy, C. P. Craig, W. J. Hole, Paul Jeffers, Owen Churchill, H. T. Morrow, S. K. Rindge, Albert Soiland, Alvin Frank, G. Allan Hancock, F. P. Graves, D. P. N. Little, Asa V. Call, Dwight Whiting, J. Park Dougall, D. H. Laubersheimer, Lyman Farwell, M. J. Walsh, Hugh Angelman, B. P. Weston.

Cotton Turf String on Deck

AGUA CALIENTE (Baja California, Mex.) Dec. 24.—The powerful stable of Hamilton Cotton, wealthy Southern California sportsman, has arrived here for the winter meeting opening Saturday, the 28th inst. Included in the stable is Listo, a candidate for the $140,000 Agua Caliente Handicap, and this horse will be seen in action in many other stakes of less caliber. Listo gave a good account of himself in the last Coffroth Handicap, and should be a keen contender in any race in which he starts.

Mr. Cotton races under the nom de course of the La Brea stable, and his purple silks are well known on western and New York race courses. He is an annual visitor at the Saratoga sales, and is bringing down four unnamed yearlings which he obtained at the vendues for fancy prices. There were twenty horses unloaded in all. Darrell Cannon, youthful trainer, was in charge of the shipment and will prepare the racers for all their engagements.

COHEN FACES ABAD

DENVER (Colo.) Dec. 24. (AP)—Mickey Cohen, Denver lightweight, today was matched to fight Davey Abad at St. Louis January 7. They fought ten rounds here last week, Cohen getting the referee's decision.

BOBBITT WINS JUNIOR MATCH

Pasadena Youngster Scores Impressive Victory

Defending Champion Downs Strong Challenger

Will Meet Billy Doeg in Feature Struggle

Starting his battle for a second consecutive championship in the junior boys' singles 18 years and under in the second semiannual Ambassador Hotel junior net tournament, which is being run off on the courts of the Ambassador Hotel under the direction of Vernon A. "Bud" Campbell, tennis professional, Jimmy Bobbitt of Pasadena and defending champion yesterday administered a scorching defeat to W. Byrnes without losing a game in two sets. Bobbitt is seeded third in the rankings of the players.

In what promises to be the classic match of the tournament to date, Bobbitt will meet Billy Doeg, seeded fifth and brother of the famous Johnny, at 2 p.m. tomorrow in a third-round encounter. This match should provide the numerous tennis fans that are witnessing the play daily an interesting sidelight on the ability of two of the most up and coming local juniors. In his second-round engagement yesterday, Doeg had little difficulty in defeating Lem Morris, 6-1, 6-0.

Displaying tennis characteristics of a champion, young Jay Cohn, national junior boys' 15-years-and-under singles and doubles king, yesterday waltzed through two matches of both divisions of the junior boys' singles by defeating Billy Seward in two love sets, and losing one game to L. Smith, 6-0, 6-1. Cohn is a favorite to defeat Vic Layng of Pasadena in a third-round engagement tomorrow of the junior boys' singles, 15 years and under.

Other prime favorites who will make their appearance tomorrow, are Ellsworth Vines, national junior boys' doubles titlist, and seeded first; Lester Stoeffen, Los Angeles city municipal doubles champion, seeded second; Charles Hunt, Cohn's doubles partner from San Francisco, and Orville Scholtz, U.C.L.A. net ace. Play was suspended today.

Two more events will open tomorrow with five matches scheduled in the junior girls' singles, 18 years and under, and one match in the junior boys' doubles. Seedings of the junior girls' singles are as follows: Helen Marlowe, nationally famous Hollywood player, first; Violet Doeg, a member of the famous Doeg family, second; Dorothy Workman of El Monte, defending champion, third, and Margaret Sturgeon, fourth. Seedings in the junior boys' doubles are as follows: Ellsworth Vines and Cliff Robbins, first; Sidney Beardsdale Wood, Jr., and Lester Stoeffen, second; Jimmy Bobbitt and Howard MacDavitt, third, and J. Cohn and Leonard Patterson, fourth.

Yesterday's results follow:

Junior boys' singles, 18 years and under: J. Bobbitt defeated W. Byrnes, 6-0, 6-0; B. Doeg defeated L. Morris, 6-1, 6-0; G. McCabe defeated J. Del Amo, 6-0, 6-1; C. Robbins defeated L. Myers by default, and J. Cohn defeated B. Seward, 6-0, 6-0.

Junior boys' singles, 15 years and under: M. Wood defeated N. Buck, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2; L. Patterson defeated B. Sherwin, 6-1, 6-2; J. Creamer defeated D. Gillam, 6-2, 6-2; C. Mako defeated D. Kasl, 6-4, 6-2; B. Layng defeated R. Braly, 6-1, 6-3; M. Woodside defeated J. Law, 6-1, 6-4; B. Underwood defeated F. Barkelew, 7-5, 6-1; J. Cohn defeated L. Smith, 6-0, 6-1; V. Layng defeated R. Riskind, 6-4, 6-4; H. Haight defeated J. Ware, 6-3, 7-5; F. Robinson defeated D. Stern, 6-3, 6-2; B. Georgi defeated G. Valencourt, 6-1, 4-6, 6-0; W. Roush defeated B. Miller, 3-6, 6-1, 6-0; B. Seward defeated D. Clark, 6-4, 6-1, and B. Georgi defeated W. Roush, 6-1, 6-4.

Thursday's schedule follows:

8 a.m.—W. Roush and L. Smith vs. D. Miller and F. Hickman, D. Belote vs. J. Law.

8:30 a.m.—J. Pike vs. O. Carter.

9 a.m.—E. Vines vs. J. Booge, C. Hunt vs. B. Pirie.

9:30 a.m.—H. Haight vs. F. Robinson.

10 a.m.—B. Seward vs. S. Levy, O. Scholtz vs. K. Pettersen.

10:30 a.m.—M. Woodside vs. B. Underwood.

11 a.m.—L. Paterson vs. J. Creamer, C. Mako vs. B. Layng.

11:30 a.m.—Winner Law-Belote vs. H. Butler.

12 m.—Winner Pike-Carter vs. L. Stoeffen, J. Cohn vs. V. Layng.

Baseball Notes

James Keesey handled 143 assists at first base, last season, the best record in five seasons. Norman Brashear, Vernon player, holds the league record with 188 assists at first-base in 1909.

Tacoma established a league record for safe hits in August 23, 1904, hitting safely twenty-seven times and defeating San Francisco 23 to 9.

The Missions made but 203 errors, the fewest for a club in a complete season.

A famous old catcher named "Silver" Flint, when he retired from the game, announced that at one time or another every joint in his finger had been broken. This was considered only a minor injury. What they did object to was having their noses broken and teeth knocked out.

Jimmy Rees's fielding average of .979 is the second best compiled by a second-baseman. Reese established the league record for second-basemen when he fielded .984 in 1927.

Catcher Kearns of the Dallas club of the Texas League accepted 984 fielding chances during the 1907 season. William Mitchell of the San Antonio club of the Texas League fanned twenty Galveston players in a nine inning contest played during the 1909 season.

The Mission Reds' team fielding average of .975 is a new high mark for the league. Oakland fielded .973 in 1927 and Sacramento tied the mark in 1928.

William Hart, Southern Association League pitcher, was in the game for 26 years, starting at Chattanooga in 1885, and finishing in the same city in 1910.

Ralph Pinelli accepted 583 fielding chances at third base, the best record compiled by a player at that position in three years. Jud Smith of Los Angeles holds the league record with more than 800 fielding chances in a single season more than twenty-years ago.

RABBIT PUNCHES

BY PAUL LOWRY

A WORKADAY CHRISTMAS

IT'S Merry Christmas today for all except the hard-working members of six football teams—five of them in California and one starting on the way to the land of Golden Sunshine.

At Palo Alto the East and West teams are in preparation for their New Year's game to benefit Shrine charity at San Francisco, and so are Stanford and Army for Saturday's battle.

In this city the Trojans of Southern California can relax just a wee bit to welcome Santa Claus today, but they can't gorge on turkey and all the fixin's. The Pasadena game is just around the corner, and Pittsburgh isn't the kind of a team you can monkey with.

Not with the four all-Americans, the Messrs. Parkinson, Uansa, Montgomery and Donchess in the line-up.

And Pittsburgh isn't fooling today, either. The Panthers are taking a westbound train in frozen Pittsburgh, one that will get them here a day before the game.

The Panthers haven't been licked this year, and they aren't making this a joyride into western territory to take a beating. So the Christmas repast for them will be slim, also. Four days to the Stanford-Army game at Palo Alto and eight days to the Southern California-Pitt game at Pasadena, also the East-West game in the Bay City.

There won't be any trekkers from here for the all-star game in the north on New Year's Day, but there will be plenty for the pending Saturday conflict.

Army's "Onward Christian" Cagle has been talked about so much that even if the other Army players were blind he would draw a big crowd.

NO SUBSTITUTIONS

BUT Army has other players, and they seem to have found themselves in the last game of the regular season—the one with Notre Dame.

In fact they found themselves so well that Army outrushed Notre Dame 144 yards to 126, and made six first downs to five.

But Notre Dame won the game, 7 to 0, because of Jack Elder, the lad who wasn't good enough for any all-American mention this year but was the deciding factor in practically every game played by the Irish—the winning factor in every major struggle.

There is one interesting point about the Army line-up that opened the game against Notre Dame at New York three weeks ago.

It played the game through without a single substitution.

In this day of rapid and wholesale substitutions this is rare and unusual and speaks well for the stamina and staying powers of the Cadets.

This feat is quite a contrast to the situation that existed at the Stanford-Army game at New York last year.

Powerless to check Stanford with the opening line-up Coach Biff Jones substituted men by the droves—but all to no avail. Army, an admittedly better team in 1928 than this year, was beaten 26 to 0, and the score doesn't tell the story of the times Pop Warner's boys were checked on the goal line.

STICKS UP FOR BRICK

MR. G. W. PREMO of Bakersfield sticks up for Brick Muller's 70-yard pass in the California-Ohio State New Year's Day game of 1921, and this is what he has to say about the matter:

"I was a spectator at that game and saw Muller stand on his own 30-yard line and pass to the goal line, which is seventy yards. My memory does not serve me well enough to state where the line of scrimmage was, but it was near the center of the field. The ball was passed to Toomey, who started toward right end running back. He passed the ball to Sprott, who started toward left end running back. He in turn passed the ball at least fifteen yards back to Muller, who was standing, as I stated, on the 30-yard line, and he passed the ball to the goal line.

"You seem to doubt that any team would pass the ball back from the line of scrimmage. Ohio State seemed to think the same thing and that was what made the play work."

There seems to be a difference of opinion on the Muller pass. From a point in the press box opposite the middle of the field I saw Muller run back of his line of scrimmage approximately fifteen yards—five yards farther than a passer usually retires.

The line of scrimmage was on the Ohio State 38-yard line. Newspaper files will verify that statement.

California used the same play in the Georgia Tech game last New Year's Day, and it would have worked but for the fact that Breakenridge tripped on long cleats as he raced under the ball. Phillips did the hurling, and he went back of his line of scrimmage on a double pass about as far as Muller—fifteen yards.

DARO MAKING PLANS FOR OPENING 1930 MAT SHOW

Several of the most colorful wrestlers who appeared in big mat battles here last year yesterday were mailed license applications for 1930 by "Carnation" Lou Daro, local mat promoter, who is completing plans for a bigger wrestling year than the one just closed.

The local promoter also stated he had sent applications to several of the new heavyweight sensations he saw in action during his recent scouting trip. Daro declared yesterday he hoped to have at least two new mat stars on his opening card of the new year, matched against mat veterans whose mat work is well known to local fans.

At the present time Daro is trying to sign a pair of top-notchers for his opening feature event that would provide a battle as interesting as any seen here during the past year.

The local promoter announced that if he is able to close the bout he is angling for, it would be the first meeting between one of the fastest and cleverest veterans and an undefeated youngster of limited professional experience with great championship possibilities.

Daro brought many new grapplers here during the last twelve months, and all of them have proven sensations. The group includes the present champion, Gus Sonnenberg; Stanley Stasiak, Joe Malcewicz, Marin Plestina, Bill Shaw and Jack O'Malley. He matched these new stars with those already established here, and the fans of this section witnessed mat battles in the Olympic ring that have never been equaled for action, speed and colorful mat work.

That is practically the same plan he expects to follow next year. Young stars, those who are capable of traveling at top speed for a long time and have proven abilities to mix and wrestle, will be the ones Daro will go after to put the punch in his matches during 1930.

Simmons Gets Highest Award

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 24. (AP)—Al Simmons, left fielder of the world champion Philadelphia Athletics was unofficially chosen the "most valuable player to his club in the American League," for 1929 in a poll conducted by the Sporting News, St. Louis Baseball newspaper of sports writers who formerly comprised the League's erstwhile contest committee.

Results of the poll, announced tonight, gave the slugging Athletics star the honor with 40 points, with Tony Lazzeri of the Yanks a close second with 33 points. Heinie Manush of the St. Louis Browns and Lew Fonseca of the Cleveland Indians were next with 31 each. Charley Gehringer of the Detroit Tigers got a fifth place with 19 points.

UTAH AGGIE FIVE ON WAY TO FACE TROJANS

LOGAN (Utah) Dec. 24. (AP)—Thirteen basketball players of the Utah State Agricultural College with Coach E. L. Romney, Trainer George Nelson and Student Managers Myron Childs and William Reading, left here today for Los Angeles, where they will play the University of Southern California the 28th and 29th inst.

COUGARS BEATEN

NEW YORK, Dec. 24. (AP)—The New York Americans turned in their third victory of the National Hockey League season, defeating the Detroit Cougars, 5 to 3, in a comedy of errors, at Madison Square Garden tonight. An awarded goal, at least one accidental score and a couple of lucky ones were recorded.

FINN WILL QUIZ TO BE PRESSED

District Attorney's Helper Selects Investigator

Two Conflicting Documents Left by ex-Senator

Perjury Possibility Hinted as Cause of Inquiry

Chief Trial Deputy District Attorney Beecher yesterday announced that he has delegated Chief Investigator O'Brien of the District Attorney's office to question several persons and take their statements in connection with the investigation begun last Monday into the circumstances surrounding the death of George Lafayette Finn and the subsequent finding of two purported wills.

Beecher signified his intention of having questioned all persons known to have come in contact with Finn, formerly State Senator of Iowa, during his fatal illness last January. The following, according to Beecher, probaby will be questioned:

Dr. Frank Murphy, John Dickey and Frank Remington, nurses; Jane Corwin Finn, niece and secretary of the dead man, and Mrs. Gladys McAfee, grandniece.

The investigation was undertaken by Beecher on the appearance in the office of the District Attorney of Mrs. McAfee and her attorney, E. W. Pottle. A will asserted to have been made by Finn in 1925 named his grandniece and the State of California as principal beneficiaries. A subsequent will is asserted to have disinherited both. While no one has been accused, according to Beecher, he has been asked to investigate the possibility of forgery in connection with Finn's asserted wills.

Finn's estate now is under litigation in civil court.

She obviously isn't out of tennis but is not contemplating playing soon. Incidentally, Mr. Moody, though a successful bond salesman, has taken off time enough to become a navigator, too, and a few years ago went around the Horn on the Falls of Clyde, the last windjammer to make that trip.

The bride arrived at the Yacht Club from Santa Barbara in a three-piece knitted sport suit in brown and beige, with a brown tie and matching brown felt hat. The skirt was fashionably long. Mr. Moody wore a gray tweed suit with a dark brown fedora.

ADVERTISING AGENCY HAS NEW CHIEF

Duane D. Jones Appointed Manager of Local Office for National Concern

Appointment of Duane D. Jones as manager of the Los Angeles office of Lord & Thomas & Logan, advertising agency, was announced yesterday by Don Francisco, vice-president of the company and general manager of its Pacific Coast offices.

DUANE D. JONES

Jones, who has been a resident of Los Angeles since 1910, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, a former newspaper man and magazine publisher and has been with the Los Angeles office of Lord & Thomas & Logan since 1923.

Francisco also announced the appointment of K. C. Ingram, at present advertising manager of the Southern Pacific Company, as manager of Lord & Thomas & Logan's San Francisco office. Ingram likewise is a former newspaper man and has been identified with advertising on the Coast for the last fifteen years. He is a graduate of Stanford University.

Both appointments will take effect January 1. Francisco will continue in his present capacity as executive head of the two offices, which handle the advertising of such representative western organizations as the California Fruit Exchange, All-Year Club of Southern California, Union Oil Company, Pacific Electric Railway, Southern Pacific Company, Sun-Maid Raisin Growers' Association, Californians, Inc., Associated Oil Company, Dollar Steamship Lines, M.J.B. Coffee, California Dairies, Inc., Jell-Well Dessert Company, Antrol Laboratories, Germain Seed and Plant Company, Pilot-Ray Corporation and others.

YULE MESS LINE FED BY ARMY

receive the bounties prepared by army officials and their assistants.

The children of all the families benefitting by the gift of food baskets—and it is estimated that there are 3000 or more of them—will be the guests of the Salvation Army tomorrow evening at a party to be given at Polytechnic High School. Toys and candies will be distributed among the children and an excellent program will be given. Features of the program will include acts by Alberto, "the gay deceiver;" Eddie Gamble, comedy juggler; the Crawford Sisters, singers; Billie Lennon, boy tenor; Cookie Bowers, comedian, and a Punch-and-Judy show.

AGENCIES JOIN FORCES IN FEASTING HUNGRY

For the first time in the history of the Salvation Army and the Midnight Mission, those two great religious and charity organizations will co-operate today in a Christmas program, which will include the feeding of thousands of homeless and unemployed persons at the Mission, 396 South Los Angeles street. Toys and candies will be presented to children.

With the donation of 1000 pounds of pork by W. Compton, 1000 pounds of turkey by Young's Market Company and other mercantile companies and with hundreds of pounds of celery, cranberries, cakes, pies and ice cream sent the Mission by kindly disposed individuals, a "regular" dinner for all needy men of Los Angeles is assured.

Co-operating with Col. William G. Gooding, head of the industrial home of the Salvation Army, the Midnight Mission will feed at least 300 men who heretofore have been given their Christmas dinners at the industrial home. All homeless and unemployed men of Los Angeles are invited to the dinner, which will begin at noon today and continue until midnight—or until tomorrow morning, if necessary.

Yesterday afternoon a dinner was given to the forty workers at the Mission, each faithful worker receiving also a shirt, a tie and a silver dollar.

Hamlet Ghost in Dispute

Tourists to Denmark are protesting that guides are misrepresenting the walking places of the ghost of Hamlet's father. The guides point out the battlements of Kronberg Castle, said to be the site of the castle, of the sire of the famous Dane, as the locale of the nightly perambulations. Historians declare, however, that the present castle was built only a few hundred years ago, long after Hamlet's time.

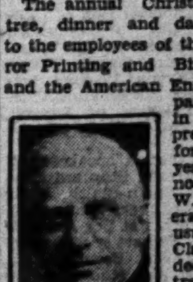
'TIMES-MIRROR' PARTY JOYOUS

Yule Festival in Press Room of Publishing House

Sim Crabill Fulfills His Usual Role as Santa

Workers of Two Companies Share Gifts and Dance

The annual Christmas festival, tree, dinner and dance tendered to the employees of the Times-Mirror Printing and Binding House and the American Engraving Company were held in the large press room of the former's plant yesterday afternoon, with Sim W. Crabill, general manager, as usual, the Santa Claus. Lavish decorations transformed the plant into a place of revelry; glowing lights illuminated a huge tree; decorated trucks provided receptacles for the gifts and a series of tables seated all the employees and the invited guests—mostly heads of departments from The Times, with their wives and families. A menu of hot dogs and trimmings was served by volunteers from the force and a clever vaudeville show was produced on a stage erected by Ed Eberhard and his crew.



SIM CRABILL.

LIST OF ACTS

Among the acts offered under the direction of Bill Ham Cline, producer and entrepreneur, were songs by Bob Hixson, accompanied by Bella Brener, a drawing series in cartoon by Carl Crouse, a "tough" talk in character, by Wilbur Harding that was a take-off on The Times, and was characterized by good-natured raillery; cello numbers, well played by Bella Brener; a duo whistling and dancing number by the "Bluebirds," Helen Paine and Billie Botello; a monologue and dance in burlesque character by John Marco, ending with a travesty hula dance; some clever banjo playing by Gordon Holmquist and a finale wherein Misses Johnnie White, Jean Freere, Thelma Spurlin, Dolores Halldorson, with Joseph Cohn and Maurice Poirier, impersonated children before a fireplace awaiting Santa, with "The Night Before Christmas," recited by Miss White, and the appearance of E. L. Lyon as Santa Claus down a real chimney.

This was followed by the presentation to Mr. Crabill of a wrist watch, and a generous distribution of gifts both from him and from the various employees to one another. Dancing to an orchestra led by Horace Stone, continued the fun all afternoon, the plant having been shut down at noon for the day.

The management of the stage was supervised by Ed Eberhard and Norman Reynolds; the curtains were handled by Bert Wheeler and Carl Stevens, both attired in Spanish costumes, and Sarah Weiss provided the wardrobe services.

BONUSES DISTRIBUTED

The day was also made memorable by the distribution of cash bonuses on the part of the management to the various employees, based on length of service.

One of the most laughable features of the day was a series of motion pictures of various officials and department heads, with good-natured "famous sayings," interspersed, which made merry with the fads and foibles of everyone portrayed. These were produced under the direction of W. Irvin Brennan, sales manager. A. P. Bell, assistant general manager, served as a general chairman of committees in charge of arrangements.

Cheap Turkey Causes Extra Heavy Buying

Los Angeles' festal board will sag today under the heaviest load of turkey in a long time, Marketeer George Young said last night. Buying of the gobbler was without end until the markets closed last night.

The secret lay in the prices. They ranged from 35 to 45 cents a pound compared with 42 to 50 cents last Christmastime. They were even 10 cents or so below roasting chicken prices in places. Not only was the local flock exceptionally large but there were heavy importations from near-by States. Generally, Mr. Young said, food purchases for yuletide feasts exceeded those of last season.

DOCTORS STUDY PANTAGES

Five Examine Theatrical Man Preparatory to Hearing Tomorrow on Bail Plea

Preliminary examination of Alexander Pantages, convicted of an attack on Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old dancer, was made yesterday by five physicians named by Dist.-Atty. Fitts, in an effort to answer the plea of the theatrical magnate that he be released from the County Jail on account of ill health.

Hearing of the motion for release on bail is set for tomorrow at 2 p.m. Chief Deputy District Attorney Stewart, who will direct the State's hearing of the plea of the millionaire theater owner, announced that the five physicians who examined the convicted man will not make an affidavit of their findings.

FIVE EXAMINERS

The five State's examiners are Dr. Charles D. Decker, Dr. Edward M. Pallette, Dr. C. F. Nelson, Dr. O. V. Sweet and Dr. P. B. Mason.

The physicians declined to make public their findings after an hour's visit with the theatrical magnate and they will give their verdict as to the present physical condition of Pantages tomorrow when the motion for release on bail is heard before Judge Fricke.

IN COURT'S HANDS

"The attitude of the District Attorney's office on the plea for release on bond," said Stewart, in discussing the case, "is governed entirely by the findings of the physicians. The matter of release on bail from the County Jail is wholly in the hands of the court. We base our position on the ruling of the District Court of Appeal in the application for release on bail of former Dist.-Atty. Keyes. The Appeal Court set down this rule: 'That there must be such eminent danger to life or health of defendant to require his immediate removal from the County Jail.'"

The physicians will make another examination tomorrow morning. No affidavits of their findings will be demanded by the District Attorney. They will be called to the witness stand and asked to give their views of the physical condition of Pantages, according to Stewart.

Attorneys for Pantages have asked for his release on account of "heart trouble" and sworn statements of eight physicians were filed with the court to substantiate the request.

PHILOSOPHY SESSIONS TO OPEN HERE

Night Meetings of Pacific Division of Association Arranged for Public

Sessions of the Pacific division of the American Philosophical Association are announced for Friday and Saturday. Night sessions will be open to the public. At 2 p.m. Saturday, a session will be held in Royce Hall, U.C.L.A. Speakers will be Henry W. Stuart, Stanford University; Robert Charles Dennison, Pomona College, and George P. Adams, University of California. The evening session at 8 p.m. Saturday will be at Philosophy Hall, University avenue and Exposition Boulevard. Hartley Burr Alexander, Scripps College, speaks on "Drama as a Cosmic Category."

Telephone Girls Close Season of Holiday Parties

Christmas Day marks the culmination of many happy parties held during the past few days by telephone operators in practically every central office in the city. Some of the affairs were enjoyed not only by the operators and their families, but also by unfortunate persons whom the operators presented with gifts.

The girls of the LAfayette office devoted their entire social time this season to bringing cheer to the needy in their district. The long-distance operators had a luncheon at the Bull Pen Inn. Kid parties and the presence of Santa Claus enhanced the affairs at several exchange parties.

The girls of the MEtropolitan office combined Christmas with a sort of farewell, as their exchange will go out of existence in 1930 and many of the operators will go to different offices.

Operators outside of Los Angeles in the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company also celebrated the coming of Christmas.

Officers Seek Autoists After Woman's Charge

Deputy sheriffs yesterday were seeking a man who the previous day is asserted to have abducted Mrs. Margaret Murphy, taking her to the Malibu Hills where he attempted to assault her.

Mrs. Murphy, according to a Sheriff's office report, accepted a ride from the man in Hollywood upon his promise that he would take her to her place of employment on Lankershim Boulevard. Instead, she reported, he drove to the Malibu Hills where she resisted him and then jumped from the car. He speeded away, she reported.

British Player Will Call Sons

REGINALD SHARLAND

"London, Los Angeles calling," will be the word picked up from the trans-Atlantic telephone system at 10 a.m. Christmas Day when Reginald Sharland, English actor, will verbally deliver a Christmas message to his two young sons, Peter, 12 years of age, and David, 5.

Sharland has cabled that at 6 p.m. in London, just before his kiddies sit down to dinner, they are to wait for a call from daddy. He already has sent over a lot of toys for the youngsters, but wants to talk to them and hear their voices on this Christmas, so many miles from home.

FATE HITS TWICE IN SAME HOUR

Mother Killed by Train as Son Suffers Serious Hurts in Home

Struck by a train last night, Mrs. Frances Barra, 72 years of age, was killed instantly, within the same hour that her son, Joseph Barra, 36, received serious injury in their home at 1716 East Thirty-second street. Police report that Mrs. Barra, while apparently confused, walked in front of a Long Beach train of the Pacific Electric at Twenty-fifth street and Long Beach Boulevard.

Joseph Barra, a boilermaker, while repairing a faucet in his home, nearly severed his right hand. He was rushed to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where Dr. Savarin operated on him. News of his mother's death was kept from Barra.
